Mr. Malone is expected to return from sick leave on August 2. I have been talking to Mr. Cadieux about the date of his transfer to the Consular Division. Mr. Cadieux suggests that at least three or four days overlap with Mr. Gilmour, who reports on August 15, would be useful.

2. Could we agree on August 22 as the date that Mr. Malone takes over the Consular Division.

R.H. Jay, FSO 3, should also arrive about mid-February. Both Rae and Jay have reasonable French and Jay has had one tour in New Delhi. MEMOIRE POUR M. STEPHENS

Je vous transcris deux paragraphes d'une lettre que j'adressais à Marcel Cadieux le 28 décembre au sujet de son retour à Ottawa:

"Nous avons déjà pressenti Saul Rae et il est prêt à assumer ta succession. Il pourrait arriver à Hanoi aux environs du 8 février. Vous pourriez passer une quinzaine ensemble au cours de laquelle tu l'initieras aux jeux de la Commission. Saul a l'esprit vif et deux semaines lui suffiront pour comprendre de quoi il s'agit.

Envoie-moi un télégramme pour me dire que tu es d'accord. Nous aviserons Lett immédiatement par télégramme."

Following are tentative requirements for next 3 months. Cadioux, M.
Beaudry, G.

(a) Officers.

2. FSO 4 mentioned in your telegram under reference to serve as political adviser in Hanoi should arrive by February 6 when Goldschlag due to return Delhi. Agree that Ballachey will stay in Vientiane as permanent replacement for Thurrott.

3. 1 FSO to replace Crane as assistant secretary in Hanoi should arrive by February 10 when Crane returns Karachi. Since Jennings has French, agree he be sent Vientiane although he might stay in Hanoi until other FSO 1 arrives if pressure of work is then heavy.

4. Dumas has assumed duties of secretary of the delegation here and plan to assign Bevan to Secretariat as you have suggested. I presume we cannot count on Stuchen's arrival.

5. Mr. Cadioux' health as you know was precarious when he left Canada. Strain of last few months and particular ailments affected by hot weather make it desirable that he should be replaced before return of hot season, e.g. end of March or early April at the latest.

(b) Military personnel.

6. Requirements in our telegram No. 257 of December 17 have been covered in signal DGAP1026 dated 16 December from Army Headquarters.

(c) Administrative staff.

7. Replacement for Gauvreau to arrive by February 15.

8. Replacement for Miss Shaw to arrive by end January so Miss Shaw be released to Washington.

The special tests referred to in the attached claim were necessary and were made by the Notre Dame Hospital in Montreal instead of by the Department of National Health & Welfare as the result of a misunderstanding between this Department and the Civil Service Health Division. Dear Marcel,

I am enclosing your passport. Visas have been obtained for Indochina and Lebanon. The Passport Office has informed me that, although the Lebanese Consulate General require that persons wishing a visa apply in person, an exception has been made in your case. In the circumstances, would you be good enough to complete and sign the enclosed application for visa, in duplicate, and return both copies to the Passport Office as soon as possible?

With best wishes.

SUBJECT: Allowances Abroad for Single F.S.O.'s.....

In a conversation this morning with Personnel Division, Mr. Marcel Cadioux, who has just returned from Paris, raised the question of representational allowances abroad for single officers in relation to those granted to married officers. Mr. Cadioux pointed out that during his stay in Paris, he received allowances which were as much as $3,000 less than those received for instance by Mr. Fournier. While he recognized that a married officer with children has additional obligations with regard to everyday living, he still thought that married officers, because of their higher allowances, could entertain on the scale which could not be afforded by single officers of equal or senior rank. Mr. Cadioux found that to that extent he was financially handicapped in the discharge of his representational duties.

2. I told Mr. Cadioux that I thought that the gap between the scale of allowances of married and single officers had been examined in the past but without any tangible result. It may be, however, that this question may be looked into again in the course of a subsequent general review of the allowance system. I told Mr. Cadioux that we would in any case bring his comments to the attention of your Division.

It is agreed between the sender of the message on the face of this form and this Company that said Company shall not be liable for damages arising from failure to transmit or deliver, or for any error in the transmission or delivery of any unrepeatable telegram, whether happening from negligence of its servants or otherwise, or for delays from interruptions in the working of its lines, for errors in cipher or obscure messages, or for errors from illegible writing, beyond the amount received for sending the same.

To guard against errors, the Company will repeat back any telegram for an extra payment of one-half the regular rate; and, in that case, the Company shall be liable for damages suffered by the sender to an extent not exceeding $200.00, due to the negligence of the Company in the transmission or delivery of the telegram.

TOKYO, July 6, 1954.

Dear Mr. MacKay,

My feeling is that the Embassy should be responsible for Korea from the Headquarters down + for Japan too. The 2nd in command could be given special responsibilities for Korea but not exclude him from Japan. Surely nobody can forget keep 72D away from an interest in + making Korea

Thank you for your very kind letter of June 25 and your reference to our mutual friend Morley Scott. We realize now after a month without him that he was a tower of strength to us and in addition he created a wonderful atmosphere in the office. I will long remember my association with him and his value to me. Not only has his departure thrown a shadow over the office staff but even the weatherman is a bit depressed and the sun only shines once in a while. We are glad it relented on July 1st and gave us fine weather for Confederation Day.

The Canadian Delegation to the Geneva Conference did, I think, accomplish a great deal, particularly in obtaining the release of our Canadian airforce officer. However, the breaking-up of the Conference has made a difference to us. We feel now that we have nothing much to depend upon but the goodwill of the opposing sides in Korea. It is to be hoped that they will remain sensible and that hostilities will not break out again.

In your letter you refer to the coming of Mr. Cadieux to succeed Mr. Scott. This was confirmed in your official letter P.484 of June 25. You asked me to comment on the relationship of this Mission to Korea and this I am pleased to do. There are three alternatives, one which I think is the right one, one which would be the middle of the road and a third which I think would be definitely harmful. I will speak of the last one first. The one which I consider to be harmful would be to have Mr. Cadieux come here on the same basis as Mr. Scott since that would place him - as Minister or Counsellor (whichever you propose) - as the senior member of the staff. As such he

R.A. MacKay, Esq.,
Under-Secretary of State for External Affairs,
O T T A W A

would be expected to take a leading part in Japanese affairs which of course he would be unable to do. He would be on the Diplomatic List as a Minister or Counsellor and therefore would be attending many of the receptions but would know very little about Japanese affairs. I am quite sure that the Japanese would resent this and so would the Koreans. You, knowing the work of External Affairs so well, will be able to add many arguments which I do not think I need mention in this letter. I think it would be unfair to the incoming Ambassador to have a senior officer on his staff who would be working independent of him.

The middle-of-the-road course would be to have Mr. Cadieux come here as Counsellor (and therefore assistant to the Ambassador) and appoint an officer junior to Mr. Cadieux to cover the Korean work, if this desk is to be in Japan. At the same time such an officer would have to be fairly senior or he would not be able to make much progress in dealing with the Koreans. I think he should rank between Mr. Cadieux and Mr. Rogers. The Korean representative here is a Minister but the Japanese have no representative in Korea. He would therefore have to be a man who could approach Mr. Kim, the Korean Minister, and who would be able to make his contacts or to follow up the leads prepared for him by Mr. Scott in Korea. This I put as a second choice only. The third course, and I think the better one in the long-run, is to have our representative in Korea. This office could give him a great deal of assistance from Tokyo but he would be recognized as engaged on Korean affairs. This I am sure would be their wish. The feeling between Korea and Japan is so bitter that while the fact that we had the Korean desk in our office here may never be commented upon I am sure it would displease the Japanese.

In sending Mr. Cadieux to Japan why not have it understood that he works on Japanese as well as Korean affairs, sharing both with Mr. Rogers who worked very closely with Mr. Scott and who looked after the Korean correspondence when Mr. Scott was absent? This arrangement could continue until Mr. Rogers leaves at which time

Mr. Rettie could be promoted and carry on in very much the same way, with an FSO.2 being sent from Ottawa to replace Mr. Rettie. Probably later on you could determine the amount of work and decide whether it is necessary or not to take the step recommended of opening an office in Korea. In the meantime either the Ambassador or Mr. Cadieux could keep in touch with Minister Kim of Korea. The Ambassador and also Mr. Cadieux will have many opportunities to discuss Korean military affairs with the U.N. Commander, at present General Hull.

While writing about the Mission generally, I ^{et on} would like to mention that I feel that the Attaches to this ⁷³⁶⁻⁴⁴ post should be Attaches and not merely Advisors and I think also that the senior officer in this Mission should be an External Affairs officer so that when the Ambassador is absent for any reason the Charge d'Affaires would then be a representative of External Affairs rather than a representative of some other Department.

I shall be interested to hear your comments.

With kindest regards,

Yours sincerely,

R. W. Mayhew

PERSONNELLE

Ottawa, le 15 juillet, 1954.

Mon cher Marcel,

Dans ma lettre en date d'hier en réponse à la tienne du 5 juillet, je te laissais entendre que nous n'avions pas d'objection à ce que tu prennes ton "home leave" dès ton arrivée à Montréal, c'est-à-dire du 20 juillet au 15 août. Il y a un instant, cependant, Monsieur MacKay n'exprimait son désir de te voir à Ottawa aussitôt que possible après ton arrivée à Montréal, et indiquait que le 21 juillet lui conviendrait très bien. Je me permets donc de te transmettre cette information, et j'espère qu'il te sera possible de venir à Ottawa dès ton arrivée en terre canadienne.

Je crois que M. MacKay a un certain nombre de questions qu'il désirerait discuter avec toi le plus tôt possible. Ta visite ici te permettra sans doute en plus de disposer de vive voix, des différentes questions administratives se rapportant à ton voyage vers le Japon.

Il serait utile si tu pouvais me confirmer la date à laquelle tu penses être à Ottawa, pour que je puisse fixer l'heure de ton interview avec M. MacKay.

Avec mes amitiés sincères,

A. RAYMOND CREPAULT

PERSONAL AND CONFIDENTIAL
Mr. Cadieux
Div. 2 Chron. Filed 27

PERSONAL

July 13, 1954.

Mon cher Marcel,

In the absence of Llyn Stephens who is on holiday, I am taking the liberty of replying to your letter of July 5.

We have noted that you will be flying to Canada on July 18 and that you will be reaching Montreal the following day. We were pleased to learn that the RCAF arrangements came through because, for its part, Personnel Division was not too happy either about the alternative of having you sail back under mediocre conditions. We share your desire for privacy and, in the circumstances, we certainly understand your preference to fly RCAF despite the fact that the trip is not too comfortable.

With regards to your programme in Canada after your arrival here, this is what I suggest, subject to any modifications you may consider appropriate:

- (a) Home leave - July 20 to August 15
- (b) Report to Department for pre-posting programme - Monday, August 16
- (c) Leave Ottawa for Western tour (by car?) and San Francisco - Friday, September 3. Incidentally your ship, the s.s. "President Wilson", leaves San Francisco on September 18.

The proposal that you drive to the West Coast is a joint idea of Stuart Hemsley's and mine. I know that you have been to the West Coast before, but I thought you might like to see some of the people in British Columbia who are concerned with our relations with Japan. Apart from making you more mobile while on the West Coast, driving your own car might also give you the opportunity to renew your acquaintance with Western Canada

Marcel Cadieux, Esq.,
10,782 St-Laurent,
Montreal.

and to visit the main industrial plants which have mushroomed in and around such places as Winnipeg, Calgary, Edmonton, and perhaps even Uranium City and Kitimat. Another advantage, and I think an important one from your point of view, is that your car would travel on the same ship as you. On the other hand, this proposal might not appeal to you at all, in which case we are quite prepared to forget about it.

I have attempted to find out a little more about the circumstances which led to the suggestion that you should return on the s.s. "United States". It seems that Travel Section really tried to do their best in your case, but unfortunately they have been operating under difficult conditions recently which do not always enable them to meet the wishes of all their "customers". I gather from them that, with all trans-Atlantic sailings solidly booked for many months to come, they were caught between the $250 cabin on the "United States" and a $500 or $600 cabin on something else which apparently Treasury Board in its present mood would have jumped upon. Anyway, Stuart Hemsley (as you may know Travel Section is now part of Finance Division) has undertaken personally to look after your sailing arrangements from San Francisco. Everything possible will be done to ensure that you have a good cabin by yourself.

With regards to the question of a car, which I gather is connected with the question of a loan, this is briefly the answers to your queries:

- (a) Since this is not a first posting, you are entitled to borrow up to $1,000, less any amount outstanding from a previous loan. If you decide that you need a loan, please complete the attached application forms and send them to me. I shall be pleased to look after them.
- (b) A price list for the various types of Chevrolets available is attached for your perusal.
- (c) If and when you decide to order a car, I suggest you write directly to E. J. Wildman, Supplies & Properties Division. I have already talked to him and he is awaiting word from you. On the assumption that he gets your order, say, within the next two weeks, he thinks he can get the car ready to drive from Oshawa around August 15.

While on the subject of a car, I should add that in a recent letter Mr. Mayhew stressed the importance for officers of his mission to have cars. He expressed the hope that you would find it possible to take a car along with you.

I hope that the above data takes care of the points you raised in your letter. Needless to say, if there is anything else on which I can be helpful, please do not hesitate to let me know. I am at your entire disposal.

avec mes amitiés sincères,

A. RAYMOND CREPAULT

PERSONAL & CONFIDENTIAL

July 5, 1954

Dear Llyn,

Unfortunately I have to worry you about a few personal problems. I promise, however, to keep them to a minimum.

The present plan is that I leave Paris on the 17th and fly to Montreal from North Luffenham on R.C.A.F. transport on the 18th. The trip, I am told, is uncomfortable but it lasts only one night. This, I feel, is preferable to sharing a cabin for a week with three jokers in the kind of accommodation which the Department seemed to be very keen to reserve for me on the "United States".

If at all possible, I would like to take some leave in Montreal and to report only later to Ottawa for vaccination, indoctrination, etc. Could you find out when it will be desirable for me to be in Ottawa bearing in mind that if I am to leave San Francisco on September 15 I should probably not count on being able to remain in Ottawa much after September 8 or 9. The answer could be sent c/o my father, M. Poméo Cadieux, 10,782 St-Laurent, Montréal.

Would you kindly take an interest in the kind of accommodation which the Travel Section have arranged for me from San Francisco to Japan. I have lost all confidence in them since their proposal for the Atlantic journey. I have no desire whatever to be accommodated with the champagne and caviar set but I insist on privacy.

L.A.D. Stephens, Esq.,
Personnel Division,
Department of External Affairs,
OTTAWA - Ontario

I will probably wish to take a car to Japan and it would help me very much to reach decision on this point if you could let me know how much I could borrow this time (I may not have to) and what would be the price of a Chevrolet (blue or black), both the two-ten and the sport coupé models without radio, side wall tires and automatic transmission. To whom in the Department should I write to: (a) secure a loan if necessary; (b) confirm the order for the car and send a cheque so that the car may reach Japan as soon as possible after I get there; which should presumably be early in October.

Thanking you in advance for your assistance,

Yours sincerely,

Marcel

I am returning for your signature your proposed letter of June 23 to Mr. Mayhew, in which you deal with the question of Morley Scott's replacement.

Since we have not yet informed Mr. Mayhew officially of Marcel Cadieux's appointment, I thought that your letter should go at the same time as a numbered letter giving him official indication of Cadieux's selection. Also attached, therefore, for your signature, if you agree, is this numbered letter on Marcel Cadieux's appointment.

I am now pleased to be able to inform you that approval has been given to the selection of Mr. Marcel Cadieux as a replacement for Mr. Morley Scott. Mr. Cadieux who is an F.S.O.-6, is at present serving with the Canadian Delegation to the North Atlantic Council in Paris with the rank of Counsellor.

2. Mr. Cadieux, who is 39 years of age joined the Department in August 1941. He has had a wide experience, both in the Department at Ottawa and at missions abroad. He has served as Third Secretary in London, as Second Secretary in Brussels and as First Secretary in Paris. In November 1951, he was selected to attend the course at the NATO Defence College, Paris. Upon graduation from the College, he was assigned to our North Atlantic Council Delegation where he has since been serving. In everyone of his assignments, Mr. Cadieux has proved to be a very hard worker, a most conscientious officer and a congenial colleague. Mr. Cadieux has also had experience at international conferences; he attended the Peace Conference in Paris in 1946 and the Ministerial Conference of the North Atlantic Council in 1952. Mr. Cadieux is one of our promising senior officers, and I have no hesitation in saying that you will find him a great asset to your mission. Mr. Cadieux is single.

3. Our present plans are for Mr. Cadieux to return to Ottawa from Paris in mid-July. After some home leave in Canada, he would return to the Department for a few weeks of pre-posting training. We have a booking for him from San Francisco on September 15, which should get him to Tokyo towards the end of September.

Dear Sir,

ATTENTION: Wing Commander Pearce.

I refer to the telephone conversation of today's date between Wing Commander Pearce of your Department and Mr. Grépaault of this Department, concerning the possibility of arranging service passage on an RCAF aircraft for Mr. Marcel Cadieux, Counsellor with the Canadian Delegation to the North Atlantic Council in Paris.

As mentioned to Wing Commander Pearce, Mr. Cadieux is being transferred from our Delegation in Paris to another Canadian mission abroad, and it is important that he should be able to report to Ottawa for special duties on or around July 15. Difficulties, however, have been experienced in arranging the necessary passage, and it would accordingly be greatly appreciated if your Department could arrange for RCAF passage from the United Kingdom to Ottawa for Mr. Cadieux on about July 15.

We have today written to our NATO Delegation that an official request was being made to your Department, and we have suggested that they contact the appropriate RCAF authorities in London about the date and other arrangements.

Your cooperation in this matter is very much appreciated.

7. We have already felt for some time that there was a serious need for assistance for Cadieux on the political side. This has applied particularly in connection with European integration, a general subject for which we became responsible about a year ago. The work in this connection has increase steadily, a recent development being the move to Paris of the agency engaged in planning for a European Political Community. Our difficulties in this connection are mentioned in your letter No. 870 of Feb. 4, 1954, which at the same time asks that we keep you informed on developments. This broad and important field of European integration has certainly received inadequate attention, primarily because the direct political work within NATO has kept Cadieux very fully occupied and he has found little time to spare for the constant liaison which is necessary if we are to report effectively on developments relating to European integration. This reporting task is complicated by our lack of formal accreditation to the European Defence Community, and the various other bodies active in this field. As we must pick up our information through informal contacts, a good deal of time is required to establish and maintain the necessary connections, and the officer dealing with the matter should be free when important developments occur to put his full efforts on them. As we have indicated, this has not been possible either for Cadieux or for Kirkwood. In particular, our reporting on Council of Europe meetings has been somewhat patchy because there has been no possibility of releasing any one officer for the full two or three weeks of a meeting.

Dear Evan,

Congratulations on the fourth edition of the Register. I know how much work is involved and the opposition you have to overcome to get authority to publish this useful document.

If and when the Register is revised, there are one or two points which might be amended in my own biography. After "L.S.E.P., and LL.L.", you might add: "(University of Montreal), post graduate studies (McGill University, 1939-40)". At the end, some reference might be made to the fact that I have written two or three books on the Department: "Le Ministère des Affaires extérieures", "Premières Armes" and "Embruns".

I have been too busy here at the Delegation and visiting France to work very hard on a fourth book dealing with the Canadian Diplomat. It may not be ready even for the next edition of the Register!

Yours sincerely,

M. Cadieux

Dear Mr. Cadieux,

I am pleased to inform you that your promotion to the rank of Foreign Service Officer Grade 6 has been authorized by the Civil Service Commission with effect from October 1, 1953.

May I take this opportunity of congratulating you on your good work and extending to you my very best wishes for continued success in your career.

Your salary, effective October 1, 1953, will be adjusted at the rate of $7200 per annum, the minimum rate of the Foreign Service Officer Grade 6 salary range ($7200 - 7500 - 7800 - 8000), which is the same as the maximum of the Grade 5 class. Effective July 1, 1954, however, the date on which you would have been at the maximum of the Grade 5 range for one year, you will be eligible to proceed to the rate of $7500 per annum, and your subsequent increases will be on the July quarter.

Yours sincerely,

RECEIVED
AFFAIRS

MEMORANDUM FOR MR. STARNES:

The following are a few paragraphs which you may wish to insert in your reply to Mr. Cadieux's letter of October 12. I am sorry to be so tardy in "producing the goods" but, as you mentioned the other day, I am sure he will understand the reasons for the delay.

"It is as you know very useful from our point of view to receive comments on administrative arrangements from persons who have just been posted abroad. I was, therefore, very glad to receive your letter and had been planning for some time to sit down and let you have my reactions to the various points which caused you difficulty when you first arrived in Paris. However, as you can no doubt well imagine, many things have combined to frustrate my good intentions.

Several of the difficulties which you encountered, especially with regard to financial arrangements, will already have been solved by correspondence between the Embassy and Ottawa. I should like, however, to deal with the subjects as you brought them up in your letter.

Photographs: - The question of providing sufficient photographs to meet the requirements of the country to which an employee is being posted came up, as I recall, last winter when the posting details and record card was first being discussed. Difficulties arose even in obtaining one extra print for that card as it was discovered that the Film Board charge a small fee for each print and the money comes out of the Passport Office Vote. Because of this momentary snag in the arrangements, the idea of getting extra prints was dropped. I agree, however, that an employee holding sufficient photographs for his requirements would be saved a great deal of time, bother and expense on his arrival. Thanks to your suggestion, I think we will again consider the possibility of sending out a circular asking for details on this matter from each Post.

Finance:

(a) Banking Arrangements - The Department have always made it a policy not to advise members of the service concerning personal banking arrangements as it is considered that, except in unusual circumstances, the individual's own bank will be in a position to make the most helpful suggestions. I think that in most cases this is quite true and it seems to me that your bank manager in Montreal fell down rather badly on his job by not giving you some letter of identification to avoid any embarrassment on your arrival. It would appear, however, on looking over the Post reports from the various Missions that there is one way in which we would assist personnel with banking arrangements on their posting abroad. Banking facilities at the Post are not something which the people here in the Department can give advice on but I think it would be of great assistance if the Post reports contained more detailed information on the banks which are available and whether experience has shown that one bank is preferable to another. We are, therefore, planning to ask that Post reports in future contain a paragraph on this subject.

In Manual

(b) Temporary Allowances - I believe perhaps some of your difficulties in connection with the payment of Living and Representational and Rent Allowances may have arisen from the fact that you didn't go through the complete "processing routine" which most personnel are subject to nowadays before their departure on posting. During their tour of the administrative divisions personnel on posting are given the details of the arrangements which have been made to ensure that they are not financially embarrassed on arrival at their new Post. Temporary allowances, as described in Circular Documents Admin. No. 65 of November 27, 1950 and Admin. No. 43 of July 23, 1951, are one innovation designed to overcome the long delays which are necessarily associated with the requisitioning of cheques from the Central Pay Office to cover allowances for personnel abroad. Information concerning an employee's authorized allowances is forwarded on the posting details and record card to the Post who are authorized to pay from Mission funds the equivalent in local currency of this allowance at the first month's end after the employee's arrival and again one month later. Unfortunately, temporary allowances can only be paid in arrears and for that reason a person arriving at a Post near the beginning of the month must wait until the end of the month to receive his first allowance cheque, even though he may have been on allowances since the day of his arrival.

-3-

Done

Accommodation: - You will have already learned from your own experience that both the agent's fee and advance rental can be met initially from Mission funds under existing regulations. It would appear, therefore, that the problems you mention have been anticipated in the normal administrative arrangements of the Department. Many of the difficulties which have arisen in connection with rental allowances result from the fact that, up until the present time, the Rental Allowance Regulations have not been included in the Manual of Regulations and Instructions. We have now almost finished a complete review and revision of the allowance chapter in the manual and the new chapter which will be issued shortly will contain what we hope is a clear and straight forward account of the rental regulations. With this new section, personnel will be in a position to study the regulations both before leaving Ottawa and on their arrival at the Post and thus will not have to depend on their recollection of instructions given to them verbally before their departure.

Cars: - My immediate reaction on reading of your difficulties with the car was to examine the Paris Post Report and I find to my surprise that no mention is made in that report of the necessity for added gadgets such as "feux de position" or direction signals. It seems to me that this point should have been covered in the section dealing with cars in Paris and you may wish to raise this point with whoever at the Embassy is responsible for the Post Report. Another point which the Post Report does not cover is the automobile licensing regulations in France which I presume have something to do with the fact that you had to pay $10.00 for a permit to travel from the debarkation port to Paris. These seemingly insignificant omis-

To day.

Unless it is intended to reduce Mr. Cadieux's representational allowance in line with suggestions which have been made, I cannot foresee what change should be made in the present administrative arrangements, except, perhaps, the following:

- (a) Rental to be paid by our N.A.T.O. Mission if it is to be self-accounting;
- (b) Leave and attendance records to be transferred from Embassy to N.A.T.O. Mission;
- (c) Book of Regulations and Instructions to be turned in to Embassy and N.A.T.O. (Mission to receive new supply of these books for issuance to officers?)
- (d) Appropriate notice in Administrative Notices.

There may be other matters I have overlooked but I think the important one is the question of the amount of representational allowance he should receive.

Paris, April 7/52

Dear Evan,

As you suspect, I am rather pleased to remain in Paris, to work under my former chief and to find myself in a job where my recent visits have many ways of direct use. And, of course, parents being like that, mine are delighted to find that I will be in Paris, although they are leaving for Canada early in June.

I am now trying to find accommodation for early June. I do not propose to cancel the order of groceries from Hudson's Bay; would you please warn whoever is appointed to succeed Ben that I have a reasonable order in and that he can relieve me of it.

As the course will terminate on May 16th, I could report for duty earlier than June 15. If possible, I would prefer not to use up all my leave for 1952. Would June 5 or 6 do as well or are there reasons why June 15th was selected other than that of allowing me to breathe before taking on a new assignment.

Our college is leaving for a 15. day on the 15 of April so that I shall not see my chief immediately he arrives in Paris but as soon as we return, I will be most anxious to find out what are his plans for the new delegation.

Paris is full of endearing tricks and the longer I live here the more rewarding I find it. While I was prepared to go to Prague, I must confess that from a purely personal point of view the prospect of a longer stay here is indeed very attractive.

I hope that in your plans for the delegation you have made provision for bilingual stems: I think that one will be useful & if we are to have any dealings with the natives. As for the officers, I suppose, as you say, that only experience can provide the answer.

Incidentally, when I return to the fold
I will have a stone and you will be spared the job of deciphering my letters.

Yours sincerely

Marcel

MEMORANDUM FOR MR. CHANCE

I have the direction concerning the issuance of Diplomatic passports to the parents of Marcel Cadieux.

Since this matter seems to have originated in Paris, I am wondering whether there is anything we should do in this office. Do you wish me to write Paris or will Mr. Gill, to whom the original letter was directed, be doing so?

I am at the moment holding your memorandum to the Under-Secretary and will put it on Marcel Cadieux's file down here. If you wish me to send it to you, you might be good enough to let me know.

MEMORANDUM FOR SUPPLIES & PROPERTIES

Mr. Marcel Cadieux, who is attending the NATO Defence College in Paris, is being posted to Prague in June next to relieve Mr. E.B. Rogers there. May I have your comments on the question Mr. Cadieux raises regarding the disposition of his furniture. The relevant extract from his letter is quoted below:

"There is another problem about furniture. Since my arrival in Paris I have bought a few pieces of furniture, some souvenirs from the flea market (chinese masks, swords, an antique chair). There is not very much but enough to compel me to enquire whether the whole lot should be taken with me to Prague (where I will be in a really completely furnished place) and thence to wherever I go later on or, whether it would not be better to send everything to my father's residence in Canada when I leave Paris. If these things are shipped to Canada at government expense there will be no question later on about sending them later to my next post. If authority can be given to their shipment now I should be glad to know how they should be addressed and what documentation will be needed by the properties and supply people to obtain their release through customs. The reason I raise the point is that Miss Dumas in Warsaw sent back to Canada some personal articles and my brother-in-law who is related to her has been unable to get them. I would therefore appreciate receiving clear instructions as to the whole operation assuming that the decision is in favour of sending them now. From the point of view of the Department it seems that the choice is really between these things going now or later via some other post."

MEMORANDUM FOR CONSULAR DIVISION

Mr. Marcel Cadieux, who is being posted to Prague in June next to replace Mr. E.B. Rogers there, proposes that his parents should accompany him for a short stay and he enquires whether it would be possible to provide them with diplomatic passports. The following extract from Mr. Cadieux's letter refers to this:

"My reason for raising the question about my parents is that if they come with me, I would like them to be issued with a diplomatic passport. Would there be great objections to this? If they can not be provided with such a passport I feel that they should not come. I do not know the communists very well but I imagine that it will be easier to obtain a visa in the first place and then, the passport may give them some protection while they are in the country. I agree naturally that if they come there should be no additional charges on the public purse."

Mr. Cadieux's parents are at present with him in Paris where he is attending the NATO Defence College and I think he only wants them to have diplomatic passports for the trip from Paris to Czechoslovakia and return.

I would like to meet Mr. Cadieux's request in this matter if it can be done without departing from our established policy. Will you be good enough to give me a ruling on this.

MEMORANDUM TO MISS McDOUGALL

I would be most grateful if you could prepare one or two paragraphs which might be included in a reply to the attached personal letter from Mr. Cadieux to me of October 12. You will see that in some of the points he raises he appears to have misunderstood or misinterpreted the regulations, and I would like to be in a position to give him the correct story. This will probably require the assistance of two or three different people in the department.

I am sorry to heap this extracurricular task upon you, but I feel it is important that Marcel, particularly while in Paris, be put right on the one or two minor points where he seems to have gone off the rails.

J. K. Starnes,
Est. & Org. Division.

Personal & Confidential

PARIS, October 12, 1951

My dear John,

Just a few words to bring you up to date on developments relating to "yours truly".

I have reached Paris with the usual incidental little problems. However, I am told that I was fortunate in finding quickly an apartment which I personally find a bit too expensive and too large. All concerned here have advised me not to let go of the offer that had been made to me because in their view I was unlikely to find anything as good for a long time. Somewhat reluctantly therefore I took their advice but I find that I will be paying almost exactly three times the amount of the rent I was paying in Ottawa.

I still have to follow a very rigid diet but once I am over these little difficulties, I have every hope that I will tremendously enjoy my stay in Paris where I have never been posted before for any length of time. I am looking forward very much to this NATO course.
It seems that it is the only real going concern at an international level at this time. After a few years in administrative problems,
I welcome the opportunity to deal again with political questions.

It occurs to me when I consider my movement from Ottawa to Paris that there are a few little things which might be done to facilitate the operation. Nothing much. On the whole, I think that the procedure is pretty smooth.

Photographs: I find that on arrival here I needed about twelve photos. I am fairly certain that most of your Foreign Service Officers also experience the same need when they reach their post. Probably, although to a lesser extent, the members of the clerical staff also require photos for identity papers, driver's license, etc. As the N.F.B. takes photos for passport purposes, some money could be saved, I think, if every outgoing employee were to be provided with a certain number of copies of these passport photos. The required number both for officers and clerical employees could be determined in advance as

Mr. John K. Starnes,
Head of Establishment &
Organisation Division,
Department of External Affairs,

a result of correspondence with the various missions. In any case, it took me about a whole morning to get the photos and although the amount involved is not considerable, there are some countries, I suppose, where the employees would have to spend a fair amount of money to provide themselves with the required number of photos.

Finance: Before I left Ottawa, I was told that I had to arrange my own financing e.g. arrangement with my Bank to get some money in Paris. My cheques would be deposited into my bank account and through the regular banking channels I could draw on them in Paris. Just to make sure, I went to see my bank manager in Montreal - the Royal Bank of Canada, Papineau Branch. The fellow was pleasant enough. He told me to contact a M. Fréchette at their Paris branch, 3, rue Scribe. He bid me "bon voyage" and that was all. On arriving in Paris, I find that the procedure to be followed should have been a slightly different one. In the first place, the bank manager here was quite ready to believe that my name was Marcel Cadieux and that I was a First Secretary at the Embassy, but he would by far have preferred a letter of credit or some other document from the Canadian branch. It seems to me perhaps useful to warn outgoing officers that in some cases documents of this nature would be of assistance to them.

The other point is that I was advised by the accountant here that they would advance me some money for a couple of months, no allowance cheques being deposited in the meantime in my account. Perhaps the complicating factor in this case is that I will not be on an expense account but on allowances from the day of arrival in Paris. In any case, I feel and I think you will agree that there is a certain amount of obscurity about these financial arrangements which could perhaps be somewhat clarified.

Accommodation You will no doubt have to deal with the submission to Treasury Board for my rental allowances. I do not wish here to discuss this particular problem but would like to bring to your attention - as a possible supporting argument for increasing the amount of money to be loaned to officers who are posted abroad - that in order to secure an apartment, I had to pay three months in advance. This I have to pay for myself and as I am not to occupy the premises before a month from now, this means that in fact I will have to provide personally two full months of rent which I will only recover at the end of the lease e.g. seven months from now. I am not suggesting that the Government should provide the money. My point is merely to underline the need for capital when you move if you are not to find yourself in a financial straight jacket.

The only real shortage in Paris as anywhere else is of course in money. The members of the clerical staff find that their rents are being jacked up by the landlords and those who have just arrived find the going extremely hard. There is nothing almost to be found for $100. A year ago, the feeling was that you could find something pretty decent at that price in the line of small flats. Now the bids have to be open at 50,000 or 60,000 francs. I myself saw a small apartment - four rooms, dining-room, kitchen, study and sitting-room, no frigidaire, a third-class bathroom, no garage, common furniture, and the price requested was nearly $200. a month. I was quite willing to take it in preference to the one I now have because obviously it was less expensive. But the landlord was discussing with an American who was willing to jack up the price as high as was needed to get the accommodation. The landlord was so strongly committed to the American that even though he is a medical student going to America to complete his studies, he still was unable to let me have his flat even when I offered to place the family apartment in Montreal at his disposal free of charge for the winter months.

Car: On arriving in Paris, one of the first things you discover is that you have to have your car fixed with some pieces of equipment to comply with local traffic regulations. As you cannot find a garage for love or money, this means that your car stays outdoors. At night, you must have what they call here "feux de position". Furthermore, the French are much too fragile to expose any limb to the rigorous winter climate and consequently they do not signal their intended movements by putting an arm out of the left window to indicate whether they are turning left or right. This must be done mechanically through a system of lights. I had the necessary alterations made to the car and was in due course presented with a bill for nearly $40. I don't know whether this is chargeable. I have requested the accountant to enquire whether you could use for this purpose the amounts that are paid out for having your radio and iron and other pieces of household equipment adapted to the local facilities.

The point I wish to make here is that I find that on arrival abroad you keep on paying these amounts - $25. here, $40. there. The amounts are not negligible and there are quite a lot of them. This again strengthens the case for liquid assets when you move. Incidentally, the fee for getting an apartment was 25,000 francs e.g. $75. The cost for the permit to travel from the debarcation port to Paris was $10.

As I think, you will agree that these are not very difficult problems and that, generally speaking, there is not much that is needed to make the present arrangements pretty near perfect. All this would certainly not have been possible if you and your assistants had not been doing the wonderful job that you have over the last couple of years. Incidentally, I think that you will find that my successor, Mr. Gill, was genuinely impressed with the smooth functioning of our third largest mission. There were a few incidental personal problems but nothing of real importance. The major contribution to the morale of the office has just been made through the willingness of Treasury Board to grant a substantial increase in the salaries of the local staff. The major remaining problem apparently is - or soon will be - a revision in the cost-of-living index. I am told that the cost of living is going up here all the time and that the allowances are in need of revision. I myself cannot confirm or deny, being so new here that I have not the vaguest idea of how I will fare financially and of how much it will cost me to operate.

I wish to thank you and Helen again for the very friendly and pleasant evening which you organized before I left and to extend my very best wishes for continued success in your difficult but, I can assure you, most helpful job.

CADIEUX, J.R.D.M.

Born June 17, 1915. St. Louis High School, Montreal; Grasset College, Montreal 1934-36 (Arts, Philosophy) B.A.; University of Montreal, (evenings) 1934-36 (Economics, Political Science) L.S.E.P.; 1936-39 LL.L.; McGill University, 1939-40 (Constitutional Law). Joined External Affairs as 3rd Secretary, August 1941; posted to Office of High Commissioner for Canada, London, January 1944; attended Conference of Allied Ministers of Education, London 1944; transferred to Canadian Embassy, Brussels, and granted local rank of 2nd Secretary, February 1945; promoted F.S.O. 2, October 1945; Assistant, Canadian Delegation to Peace Conference, Paris, August 1946; promoted F.S.O. 3, January 1947; returned to Ottawa, March 1947; appointed Head of Personnel Division, January 1949; promoted F.S.O. 4, April 1949. Contributed articles on political and legal subjects to various periodicals. Single.

Duties

This officer is required to spend a considerable part of his time in oral interviews with members of the Department, visiting Heads of Mission, prospective employees and others interested in the work of the Department. He is called upon to participate in a considerable number of Departmental committees and to collaborate with the Civil Service Commission on matters of mutual concern. He is Secretary of the Planning Board, a member of Examination Committee, the Ratings and Promotion Committee and the Establishment Board.

He is required to participate in Civil Service Commission Oral Boards, particularly those held each year in connection with the Foreign Service Officer competition. The latter generally consumes some four weeks of his time, which is spent accompanying a representative of the Civil Service Commission across Canada to interview successful candidates.

Since the war, the Department has undergone considerable expansion, both of personnel and number of missions abroad. Prior to the war, there was little need for a Personnel Division since the number of personnel in the Department was relatively few. Postwar developments, however, have necessitated the formulation of personnel policies applicable to the Department on such matters as recruiting, promotion, transfer, training, etc. In a Department where approximately fifty per cent of the officer personnel serve abroad, there are inevitably personnel problems of a nature peculiar to the Department; similar conditions prevail with respect to the administrative staff. The practical result of this has been that Civil Service policies and practices generally suitable for most Government Departments have not met the peculiar conditions prevailing in this Department. The Head of Division has, therefore, been required to devise and amend policies in order to meet the requirements of the Department.

The incumbent of this position must in the opinion of the Department be a Foreign Service Officer. He should be relatively senior with broad experience both at home and abroad. He must be aware of conditions at missions abroad and of the problems normally encountered by employees serving abroad.

Reasons for Promotion

For some time the Canadian Ambassador to the United States has emphasized the need for more officers of senior rank in the Canadian Embassy in Washington. This situation has resulted from the increased work and responsibilities which that office must now assume arising out of the broader Canada-United States relationship in the whole field of international affairs. We have recognized this requirement and are endeavouring to select suitable officers to fill these important assignments in Washington. You may also have noticed that during the consideration of the External Affairs estimates in Parliament in this last Session, some Opposition Members stressed the desirability of increased Canadian representation in Washington. Mr. Pearson replied that he was conscious of the need and was doing everything possible to meet it.

We have been instructed by our Minister to select two or three experienced, capable, relatively senior officers to serve on our staff in Washington. We have selected D.V. LePan, an F.S.O. 5, whom we regard as one of our best officers. He will proceed to Washington in October. Later in the year, Mr. Marcel Cadieux whom we rate with LePan will be posted to Washington. The fact that Cadieux has been selected for this appointment indicates our high regard for his all around ability. He has done outstanding work during the past two years as Head of the Personnel Division at a time when new personnel policies and procedures were being worked out. During this time, he has made a notable contribution to the work involved in the preparation of a personnel establishment for this Department. In addition to his work in the Personnel Division, he has served in a number of the Department's policy and planning groups and has made very useful contributions to their work. For all these reasons, it is our opinion that his promotion to F.S.O. Grade 5 is well merited.

Mon cher ami,

Je vous remercie infiniment d'avoir bien voulu m'adresser votre livre "Premières Armes" dont j'apprécie actuellement la lecture. J'aimerais beaucoup vous en parler.

Je dois aussi vous remercier de la conférence que vous avez bien voulu faire aux officiers-élèves de la "Jeanne-d'Arc", et qui fut très appréciée. J'ai regretté moi-même de n'avoir pu y assister, mais je ne suis rentré que l'après-midi d'Ottawa, où ils ont été reçus.

A bientôt, je l'espère bien, et bien cordialement à vous.

Dear Mr. Cadieux:

I am inviting officers concerned with staff training in the Public Service to come to a dinner meeting to be held in the College on Friday evening, March 31st beginning at 6:30 o'clock.

My thought in suggesting this meeting is to give representative members of our Carleton College staff an opportunity to meet representatives of government departments in the belief that a description of the programmes of study available in the day and evening divisions of the College will be of mutual interest and value. On the basis of this description I would welcome suggestions for the improvement and strengthening of our programme. In fine, I am most anxious to learn how we may best meet the needs and wishes of training officers in the Civil Service.

I shall be very happy if you will accept this letter as an invitation to be one of our party on that evening. I hope you can come.

Yours sincerely,

Marcel Cadieux

Dans quelque temps, paraîtra aux Editions Variétés un ouvrage d'un Montréalais, ouvrage intitulé Le Ministère des Affaires Extérieures. Monsieur Marcel Cadieux, maintenant chef de la Division du Personnel, au Ministère des Affaires Extérieures à Ottawa, est l'auteur de ce manuel destiné à expliquer les rouages de notre Ministère des Affaires Extérieures et plus spécialement dédié aux étudiants qui se préparent à la carrière diplomatique.

En 1936, Marcel Cadieux obtint les grades de bachelier ès-arts de licencié en sciences sociales, politiques et économiques à l'Université de Montréal, puis poursuivit ses études à la même université jusqu'au grade de licencié en droit, qu'il obtint en 1939.

Après une année de perfectionnement en droit constitutionnel à l'Université McGill, il fit son entrée officielle comme avocat au Barreau de Montréal, et ce pour une durée de douze mois. 1941: Marcel Cadieux quitte la métropole et entre au Ministère des Affaires Extérieures où un avenir intéressant lui est réservé.

En 1943, il est secrétaire du Comité de la guerre psychologique. Départ pour l'Angleterre en 1944, où il obtint le poste de secrétaire au Haut Commissariat du Canada à Londres. Durant l'été de la même année, il est observateur canadien à la Conférence des ministres de l'Éducation des Gouvernements alliés, et représentant du Haut Commissariat auprès de l'Organisation de l'Information des Nations Unies. Puis transféré à l'Ambassade du Canada à Bruxelles, en 1945, il assiste l'année suivante à la Conférence de la Paix, à Paris, à titre de conseiller de la délégation du Canada.

Après cette marche à travers quelques pays d'Europe, Marcel Cadieux rentre au pays, en 1947, avec une connaissance profonde du Ministère. Il s'occupe alors des affaires d'éducation, de science et de culture, à la division des Nations Unies. Après un court stage à la section américaine de la Division de l'Amérique et de l'Extrême-Orient du Ministère des Affaires Extérieures, il devient adjoint exécutif du sous-secrétaire, en août 1947.

Aujourd'hui même paraît aux Editions Variétés, un ouvrage d'un Montréalais, intitulé "Le Ministère des Affaires Extérieures". M. Marcel Cadieux, maintenant chef de la division du Personnel au ministère des Affaires extérieures à Ottawa, est l'auteur de ce manuel destiné à expliquer les rouages de ce ministère et plus spécialement dédié aux étudiants qui se préparent à la carrière diplomatique.

En 1936, Marcel Cadieux obtint les grades de bachelier ès-arts et de licencié en sciences sociales, politiques et économiques à l'université de Montréal, puis poursuivit ses études à la même université jusqu'au grade de licencié en droit, qu'il obtint en 1939. Après une année de perfectionnement en droit constitutionnel à l'université McGill, il fit son entrée officielle comme avocat au Barreau de Montréal, et ce pour une durée de douze mois. En 1941 Marcel Cadieux quitta la métropole et entra au ministère des Affaires Extérieures où un avenir intéressant lui était réservé.

En 1943, il devint secrétaire du Comité de la guerre psychologique. Départ pour l'Angleterre en 1944, où il obtint le poste de secrétaire au Haut-Commissariat du Canada à Londres. Puis transféré à l'ambassade du Canada à Bruxelles en 1945, il assiste l'année suivante à la Conférence de la Paix, à Paris, à titre de conseiller de la délégation du Canada.

Après cette marche à travers quelques pays d'Europe, Marcel Cadieux rentre au pays, en 1947, avec une connaissance profonde du Ministère. Le ministère des affaires extérieures

par Marcel Cadieux

Tout ce qui touche à la diplomatie a toujours été pour le grand public et pour la jeunesse passionnée d'histoire, un domaine non seulement rempli de mystère, mais enveloppé de finesse, d'esprit, d'intelligence, souvent même de génie.

Le mot diplomatie évoque immédiatement les grandes figures de Talleyrand, maître suprême de la diplomatie, de Metternich, de Bismarck; plus près de nous, celles de MM. François-Poncet, Charles-Roux, Paul Claudel, Jacques Maritain, chez les Français; M. Spaak, chez les Belges; MM. Chamberlain, Churchill, lord Halifax, en Angleterre. Au Canada, le mot évoque de grands noms tels que M. Mackenzie King qui, sans avoir été ambassadeur ni ministre à l'étranger, a toujours exercé une influence très forte dans le domaine de la politique extérieure; celui du sénateur Dandurand qui a été l'un des créateurs (sinon le créateur) de notre ministère des Affaires extérieures. Et maintenant, notre diplomatie proprement dite est intelligemment représentée par des hommes tels que Leurs Excellences MM. Jean Désy, Victor Doré, Pierre Dupuy, Georges Vanier, Vincent Massey, Norman Robertson, L.-D. Wilgress, Hume Wrong, et autres non moins importants.

Voilà pourquoi nombre de jeunes étudiants ont maintenant les yeux tournés vers notre Ecole de politique extérieure, sorte de Saint-Cyr civil du Canada. Cette école exercera une influence très forte sur l'histoire future de notre pays.

Dans un livre intitulé Le ministère des Affaires extérieures, qui vient de paraître aux Editions Variétés, M. Marcel Cadieux, l'un des plus brillants attachés au ministère des Affaires extérieures à Ottawa, à titre de chef de la division du personnel, nous révèle enfin ce que sont exactement les rouages intérieurs. Il est intéressant de voir comment fonctionne cette énorme machine qui doit donner les renseignements à nos diplomates, recevoir les rapports des ambassadeurs, des secrétaires, des attachés d'ambassade, des chargés d'affaires, etc., condenser toutes ces communications, puis informer notre gouvernement afin que celui-ci puisse conduire notre pays dans les affaires du monde. Ce ministère a pour but ultime de constamment améliorer nos relations économiques et politiques avec tous les pays du monde. M. Cadieux nous fait connaître l'âme de ce grand corps.

Aux jeunes qui veulent se destiner à cette carrière pleine d'embûches, il est vrai, mais qui, en même temps, permet de servir son pays d'une façon extraordinaire, ce livre apporte des renseignements essentiels. Il donne la ligne de conduite, exprime des points de vue utiles non seulement pour se préparer à ce travail, mais également pour connaître le moteur qui active notre prestige à l'étranger.

Cet ouvrage intéressera le grand public aussi bien que le futur diplomate, puisque tout Canadien doit s'inquiéter de l'avenir de son pays. Ce sera une étude passionnante pour tous et un document capital pour le futur secrétaire d'ambassade, consul ou d'ambassadeur.

Une école de diplomatie serait une erreur, déclare M. Marcel Cadieux

Le ministère n'offre pas assez de débouchés pour absorber les diplômés, explique-t-il

QUEBEC (DNC)—Le chef de la division du personnel, au ministère des Affaires étrangères à Ottawa, M. Marcel Cadieux, a affirmé que ce serait une erreur d'instituer dans le Québec une école de diplomatie, parce que le ministère n'offre pas assez de débouchés pour absorber les diplômés d'une telle école.

M. Cadieux qui parlait devant les membres du Club des Relations internationales des étudiants de Laval, a exposé à ses jeunes auditeurs l'esprit du ministère canadien des Affaires extérieures, ainsi que les qualités requises des candidats au concours, pour terminer avec les modalités même de ce concours.

"Seul le mérite ouvre les portes du ministère et permet d'accéder aux plus hauts postes" a affirmé M. Cadieux, qui insiste sur le fait qu'au Canada, contrairement à ce qui se passe dans d'autres pays, où les diplomates sont surtout recrutés parmi l'aristocratie, les fonctionnaires du ministère des Affaires extérieures viennent des quatre coins du pays et toutes les classes de la société. De plus, les femmes y sont admises au même titre que les hommes.

Le ministère des Affaires extérieures dans l'état actuel date de 10 ans seulement; il n'a pas encore de tradition comme le secrétariat des Affaires étrangères britannique. Tout y est neuf et le personnel doit suppléer par son dévouement et son initiative à la carence de tradition.

Le ministère doit non seulement assurer un rôle au Canada sur le plan international, mais il a aussi un rôle important de coordination à jouer dans la politique canadienne même. Il ne doit pas seulement s'occuper de politique extérieure mais aussi des incidences dans la vie nationale.

C'est en exposant les qualités requises des candidats au concours d'admission au ministère des Affaires extérieures que M. Cadieux a exprimé son opinion sur l'inopportunité d'établir une école de diplomatie dans le Québec. M. Cadieux a précisé sa pensée en disant qu'il serait ruineux de mobiliser des experts et de faire la dépense que comporterait l'organisation d'une école aussi spécialisée. Il note aussi que cela ne serait pas sans danger pour les étudiants eux-mêmes qui pourraient échouer à l'examen d'admission et éprouver quelque peine à s'employer ailleurs vu leur formation spécialisée.

M. Cadieux suggère la faculté de droit comme étant celle susceptible de préparer le mieux dans le Québec le candidat aux affaires extérieures. Le cours de droit pourrait être complété par des études spécialisées. Au sujet des langues étrangères, M. Cadieux souligne que le diplomate n'est pas un interprète et il recommande surtout aux Canadiens français de posséder le mieux possible l'anglais comme seconde langue. Quant aux autres langues étrangères, elles constituent un accessoire certes utile mais non indispensable. C'est avant tout la culture du candidat qui compte. Quant aux diplômés, ils sont une condition d'admission à l'examen mais rien de plus.

La conférence était sous la présidence de M. André DesGagné, président du Club des Relations internationales. Le conférencier fut présenté par M. Guy Choquette, et remercié par M. Guy Angers.

EXTERNAL AFFAIRS RECORDS

Cadieux, m.

Dear Mr. Cadieux,

I am sorry to have been so 26 22
long in replying to your letter of August 19 asking me to try to find a couple of spare tubes for your radio. Incidentally, it goes without saying that I am only too pleased to do this for you, though so far
I have drawn a complete blank.

The Telefunken people in Copenhagen say that the tube or valve of the description required is long since out of production, but they consider that an alternative type might suffice if they had a precise description of the make of your radio. If you will send this to me I will try again at the makers. In the meantime, I am making further enquiries amongst radio people whom I happen to know in an endeavour to pick up wherever possible (for example, from the old stock of some retail radio shop) a couple of tubes tallying with the description on hand. Assuming I am successful, even if I should not return to Ottawa quite as early as originally planned, I am sure that arrangements can be made to have the tubes properly packed and forwarded to you by parcel post.

Your ominous reference to the importance of even the smallest financial considerations in Ottawa only tends to confirm the rather alarming picture of runaway costs at home which recent visitors from Canada have portrayed, yet I imagine that you and others who have recently returned from abroad will agree that it is not the financial pinch which one minds in Ottawa so much as the total lack of adequate accommodation at prices within the reach of the average married Foreign Service Officer.
The disturbing word which reaches us here is that virtually no housing is available for rental, only for sale at exorbitant prices. If this is the case, it seems to me that the Government might be disposed to support a private building or purchasing programme on the part of External Affairs Officers by a system of Governmental loans or mortgaging at reasonable rates of interest.
However, I don't suppose this is by any means a novel suggestion.

Yours very truly,

R. Campbell

PERSONNELLE

La Haye, Pays-Bas,
le 2 septembre 1949.

Mon cher ami,

Après vous avoir envoyé ma dernière lettre je n'ai pas voulu faire suivre les revues que je vous annonçais par notre valise même maritime, au cas où notre Trésor n'ait eu à se plaindre des frais de poste trop élevés. Il faut croire que les trésoriers sont des petits délicats qui regardent les choses de très près et je les plains d'avoir tellement de loisirs.

J'aurais bien des choses à vous écrire à propos de la Conférence de la Table Ronde qui se poursuit en ce moment à La Haye, dans une atmosphère de mille et une nuits, mais ce sera pour une prochaine fois.

J'ai demandé au jeune Langley, au sujet duquel je vous ai écrit, de bien vouloir vous remettre cette enveloppe lors de sa visite chez vous.

Encore une fois, toutes mes fidèles et cordiales amitiés.

Chef du Personnel,
Ministère des Affaires Extérieures,

AIR MAIL

Ottawa, April 23, 1949.

My dear Tom,

In spite of what you may think of your colleagues in Ottawa, the fact that I am sending you this letter proves I think to some extent we are not without conscience, I have been intending to write you for sometime. I know that this is the classical excuse but in your case I have no choice but to have recourse to it as it happens to be true.

I have been involved in the confounded Foreign Service Officer examinations for the past three months. I was no sooner through with the ordeal of marking the papers - a job I would not wish on my worst enemy - that I had to leave for a trip across the country to attend these oral boards. Now cut off that cynical-laugh Carter! I had to interview 8 to 9 candidates every day and the only thing I can give you about this country as a result of this trip is a description of the softness of the beds in the various C.N.R. hotels and notes on the dullness of their menus. On top of that, probably as a result of a period of overwork, I got a finger infected and I have never had a worse time with anything in my life. Two months after, as I am dictating that letter to you, that finger is still throbbing. All that can be said is that it will probably not be necessary for me to chop it off. All this time, however, I felt that I had to send you word because you had very kindly kept me posted on your various trips in Italy.

The one thing that melts the heart of Foreign Service Officers who happen to be chained in Ottawa is to receive postcards from their friends from places like Naples, Amalfi, etc. It makes them realize that they have chosen the right profession and that their duties of shifting stuff from one basket to another in the East Block is so pleasant that they can hardly keep from sending a note to the Treasury Officer that they should not be paid considering the fun they are having doing it. All joking aside, the going is pretty tough in Ottawa and while the work is very interesting you still have the feeling that you haven't the opportunities of those serving abroad.

I have noted from your card that you would prefer to remain in Rome until some time next Spring. I think that this is a very reasonable request and that the Personnel and Planning Board will very likely approve of it. It is impossible as you know to make any commitments, but you can be assured that I will do my best to leave you in Rome until next Spring.

Miss Alie is now back in Canada. She is working in the Prime Minister's office, I have seen her a couple of times. It seems I never get an opportunity to meet the people from Brussels and talk to them about our doings, I see Cardinal occasionally. He has just become engaged another bastion of bachelorhood has surrendered. I have not heard from the McGreer's for a long time, but as in your case I still owe them a letter.

There have been a great many changes at Headquarters in the last six months. Everybody is being promoted and this is, no doubt, the reason why I got stuck as Head of Division. As I had been in the Division for about a year before this happened I was not too disconcerted and then I have been away looking after this competition practically ever since I was given the job.

I have been back in Ottawa now since the beginning of the week and I will, I hope, get things going any day now. I must say, however, that Bruce Williams, whom you probably know, did a wonderful job in my absence. I was able to take over from him with empty baskets. I have been looking at some files in the steel cabinets and have so far found not skeletons. He is now on leave for a few weeks and I think that the major plans will have to await his return. We have now in the Division a staff of three officers, plus a senior clerk. We should be able to do a fair job with this equipment.

The letter which you sent me outlining some suggestions was circulated to some of our dear colleagues who shook their heads in solemn approval. I myself agree with what you said, but I am beginning to be cautious about sending clerical staff abroad. Clerks working in Embassies soon become dissatisfied with their status and they soon get into debt or want to become Ambassadors over night. We have had, as you know, some bad luck in Brussels, but the same thing is happening all over the map. We are a pretty democratic people and no Canadian wants to remain a Clerk Grade 3 or 4 all his life. The trouble is that in the clerical grades the scope for promotion is very limited and you soon reach the point of dissatisfaction, or resignation from the service.

I can see that I am getting involved in business. The point of this letter was merely to tell you that I am still alive and that I hope you are having an interesting time in Rome. If I can do anything about it you will stay there until Spring, but for God's sake don't send me photographs of cathedrals. For the rest of the day I simply cannot become interested in the promotion of John Doe from Grade 2 to Grade 2A.

Yours sincerely,

GOVERNMENT OF CANADA

PICKERAGILL, John Chitney

Mr. Pickeragill joined the Department on October 14th, 1937. He has been employed for some years in the Office of the Prime Minister. Reports received on him have indicated that he has competently discharged his duties at all times in this Office. He has been responsible for the overall organization and administration of the work of the Office of the Prime Minister and has performed these functions in a most satisfactory manner. In recent months, Mr. Pickeragill has assumed new and more onerous responsibilities, and it is desirable that he be promoted from P.S.O. Grade 6 to P.S.O. Grade 7 in order that he may be of a rank more in keeping with his new duties. Mr. Pickeragill was promoted to the rank of P.S.O. Grade 6 effective December 1st, 1947.

RONNING, Chester Alvin

Mr. Ronning was appointed to the Department as P.S.O. Grade 4 on October 30th, 1945 and posted to the Canadian Embassy in China. He has now been in China for over three years and his knowledge of local conditions and of the language makes him one of the most valuable experts in this field. As the Ambassador will be returning to Canada on home leave this summer, Mr. Ronning will be in charge of the Embassy. In view of his experience and particularly the increased responsibilities which will fall upon him during the Ambassador's absence, it is felt that his promotion from the rank of P.S.O. Grade 4 to the rank of P.S.O. Grade 5 should be effected without delay. The Ambassador considers that this promotion will make it easier for Mr. Ronning to represent the Embassy and perform his duties effectively under very difficult conditions.

DAY, Archibald Aetilius

Mr. Day joined the Department as P.S.O. Grade 4 on October 2nd, 1947. He was assigned to the United Nations Division and continues to be a member of this Division. Mr. Day is an officer who has from the beginning shown qualities and capabilities of the highest order. He has specifically been charged with looking after Canadian interests in the work of the various specialized agencies of the United Nations. In this, Mr. Day has proven himself most capable and industrious. He has on numerous occasions acted as Chief of the Division and on these occasions has performed his duties with efficiency and despatch. In view of the quality and character of his work, the Department recommends that Mr. Day be promoted from P.S.O. Grade 4 to P.S.O. Grade 5.

LEGER, Jules

Mr. Leger, who has been a member of this Department since July 9th, 1940, has recently returned from Canada House, London, to Ottawa to act as Senior Secretary to the Prime Minister. Mr. Leger during his period of service in this Department, has constantly proven himself to be an officer of first-class ability. He is fully bilingual and has always been considered one of the best officers in this Department. He has also unusual drafting capacity and organizing ability. His recent appointment to the Office of the Prime Minister is an additional indication of the high regard in which he is held. It is felt that his promotion from P.S.O. Grade 4 to P.S.O. Grade 5 is fully justified and that the responsibilities and duties that he now assumes in the Prime Minister's Office make it advisable that he be reclassified as an P.S.O. Grade 5. Mr. Leger was promoted to P.S.O. Grade 4, effective November 1st, 1947.

CADIEUX, Fernand

Mr. Cadieux was first appointed to this Department as Third Secretary on August 21st, 1941 and was last promoted effective January 1st, 1947. On January 13th, 1949, he was appointed Acting Head of the Personnel Division. In this capacity, Mr. Cadieux has increased responsibilities which, in the opinion of the Department, warrant his promotion to the class of P.S.O. Grade 4. Mr. Cadieux has to deal with other Heads of Divisions as regards the selection, training and posting of junior officers and the proposed promotion will make it easier for him to discharge his duties. He also has general supervision of

The Personnel Division in connection with the clerical and stenographic staff of the Department. Furthermore, Heads of Divisions are normally Foreign Service Officers Grade 4 or higher, and it is considered that Mr. Cadieux' appointment should warrant the classification of F.S.O. Grade 4.

COLLINS, Ralph Edgar

Mr. Collins, who was first appointed to this Department as Third Secretary on August 21st, 1940, is at present employed in the Canadian Embassy at Washington and has been the Canadian expert in Washington on matters concerning the Far East and the work of the Far Eastern Commission. Mr. Collins has been the Canadian Representative on the Far Eastern Commission and has performed his duties with respect to this Commission in a most satisfactory manner. Reports received from the Canadian Ambassador in Washington on Mr. Collins indicate that he continues to perform his duties in a highly commendable fashion. In many of his duties Mr. Collins is, in fact, carrying the responsibility usually given to more senior officers and in order to permit him to do his liaison work with the State Department and on the Far Eastern Commission more expediently, it is desirable that he be reclassified in accordance with the nature of his work. The Department has, therefore, no hesitation in recommending his promotion from F.S.O. Grade 3 to F.S.O. Grade 4. Mr. Collins was last promoted on January 1st, 1947.

EBERTS, Christopher Campbell

Mr. Eberts was first appointed to this Department on July 9th, 1940 and promoted to his present rank of F.S.O. Grade 3 effective January 1st, 1947. He is now a member of the Defense Liaison Division and is Secretary of the Canadian Section of the Permanent Joint Board on Defence (P.J.B.D.). In this capacity, Mr. Eberts has duties of a character not normally assigned to an officer of his present rank. Mr. Eberts has been associated with the P.J.B.D. for more than a year and in view of his work in this field, he has increased considerably his usefulness to the Department. In the Defense Liaison Division, reports on his work have been most favourable. Mr. Eberts has given assistance to the Head of the Division in dealing with matters relating to the North Atlantic Security Pact and on other matters of equal importance relating to defence co-operation with the U.S.A. and Commonwealth Countries. In order to facilitate the discharge of his duties (he has to deal with officers of much higher rank in other Departments), his promotion to F.S.O. Grade 4 is considered necessary.

FORD, Robert Arthur Douglass

Mr. Ford joined the Department on July 6, 1940 and has served in Canadian Missions at Rio de Janeiro, Moscow and London. During his period of service in Moscow, Mr. Ford was for a time Charge d'Affaires a.i. and performed these functions in a most satisfactory manner. In view of Mr. Ford's broad experience, it was decided that he should be transferred to the Canadian High Commissioner's Office in London. At Canada House, Mr. Ford is responsible for maintaining close Liaison with the Commonwealth Relations Office and has unusually heavy responsibilities with regard to political reporting. Mr. Ford has, throughout his period of service, proven himself an officer worthy of commendation and it is felt that his responsibilities have developed to a point where they no longer correspond to his present rank. The Department recommends, therefore, that he be promoted from the rank of Foreign Service Officer, Grade 3 to Foreign Service Officer, Grade 4. Mr. Ford was last promoted on January 1st, 1947.

KENSIE, Arthur Braden

Mr. Kensie was first appointed to this Department on July 5th, 1940 and last promoted effective January 1st, 1947. Mr. Kensie is the Head of the Far Eastern Section of the American and Far Eastern Division.

In this capacity, he does work of a very important character and tenders advice to the Department in a wide and complex field. He is also responsible for advising the Department as regards the instructions which have to be sent to Canadian representatives attending international meetings where Far Eastern problems are likely to be discussed. He supervises a staff of three officers and it is felt that the quality of his work and importance of his duties are above those of Foreign Service Officers Grade 3. Promotion to F.S.O. Grade 4 would relate Mr. Mazure's rank to the duties which have been assigned to him.

PICK, Alfred John

Mr. Pick, who was first appointed on July 15th, 1940, was promoted to his present rank of F.S.O. Grade 3 on January 1st, 1947. He is a member of the Commonwealth Division and is one of the most widely experienced officers in this Department. He has served at Canadian Missions abroad in Australia, India, South Africa and Newfoundland. In all of these Missions he performed his duties in a most satisfactory manner. Since his return to Canada in 1948 he has continued to prove himself to be an officer of first-class ability. Mr. Pick, because of his experience in and wide knowledge of the Commonwealth Countries, has been primarily responsible for dealing with those problems in the Department which relate to the other Commonwealth Countries. For example, Mr. Pick was responsible for the Department's work in connection with the Meeting of Prime Ministers in London in November, 1948. Mr. Pick acts as Chief of the Commonwealth Division in the absence of a permanent Chief of the Division. His experience, ability and good judgement justify his promotion from F.S.O. Grade 3 to F.S.O. Grade 4.

TREMBLAY, Paul

Mr. Tremblay, who was first appointed to this Department on July 6th, 1940, was last promoted on January 1st, 1947. Mr. Tremblay was posted to the Canadian Embassy in Chile in November, 1946. He is to return to Canada shortly. During his stay in Chile, next to the Ambassador, he was the only diplomatic officer, and in this capacity he was responsible for a variety of duties. He has received from the Ambassador the best possible reports on the quality of his work. In addition to preparing political reports, supervising consular and administrative work at the Mission. Mr. Tremblay occasionally acted as Charge d'Affaires; he has also taken a special interest in cultural relations. It is proposed, when he returns to Ottawa, to place him in charge of an important section of the Information Division. He will be responsible, in particular, for liaison with the press gallery, for UNESCO matters and for general assistance to the Head of the Division. In recognition for his increased usefulness to the Department, his work in Santiago and also in view of the additional responsibilities which will be assigned to him on his return to Ottawa, it is felt that Mr. Tremblay should be promoted from F.S.O. Grade 3 to F.S.O. Grade 4.

CHAPUT, Joseph Louis Bernard

Mr. Chaput joined the Department of External Affairs on November 16th, 1942 and was promoted to his present rank of F.S.O. Grade 2 effective July 1st, 1947. He is now the Head of the Treaty Section of the Legal Division in which capacity he is responsible for the registration and publication of Treaties, the preparation of a register of Treaties and he also tenders advice on the legal obligations incurred by Canada under international instruments. Mr. Chaput has also been made responsible for the preparation of full powers and other documents required by Canadian representatives attending international meetings. In view of his experience, his increased responsibilities in the Legal Division and the excellent reports received as regards the value of his work, it is felt that his promotion from F.S.O. Grade 2 to F.S.O. Grade 3 should be effected.

TEAKLES, John MacLaurin

Mr. Teakles was first appointed to this Department on August 15th, 1946 and was promoted to F.S.O. Grade 2 on April 1st, 1948. Before his appointment as student at the National Defence College, Mr. Teakles was responsible in the Under-Secretary's Office for liaison work with the National Defence Department. The reports received on his work were then most satisfactory and it appears that at the National Defence College, Mr. Teakles has maintained his record of high efficiency and responsibility. It is considered that postings to National Defence either to the Directors' staff or to student positions, are of substantial importance to this Department. It is felt, therefore, that if Mr. Teakles' promotion could be effected, it would be a recognition both of his good work at the College and of the significance which is attached to postings at this institution. Such a recognition would make it easier to recruit other candidates for this course. Mr. Teakles' promotion is also warranted for the reason that on his return from National Defence College, he will be given the responsibilities of an F.S.O. Grade 3.

BORLIS, Herman Frederick Herberman

Mr. Borlis joined the Department on June 2, 1947 and was posted to the Economic Division. He very quickly made himself a useful member of this Division, and reports received on his work in the Economic Division indicated that he was a first-class officer. In July 1948, he was posted to Bern as Secretary to the Permanent Delegation of Canada to the European Office of the delegation and to co-ordinate the work of the various Canadian delegations to the European Centre of the United Nations. Mr. Borlis has carried out these duties in a manner which has drawn the special commendation of Mr. Tilgros. With the transfer of Mr. L.D. Tilgros to London as High Commissioner, Mr. Borlis has, of necessity, had to assume even greater responsibilities. It is thought that in view of these new responsibilities, which are normally those assumed by a more senior officer, Mr. Borlis should be granted a promotion from Foreign Service Officer, Grade 2 to Foreign Service Officer, Grade 3. Mr. Borlis was promoted to F.S.O. Grade 2, effective December 2nd, 1947.

ANDREW, Arthur Julian

Mr. Andrew joined the Department as F.S.O. Grade 2 on August 1st, 1947 and was posted to the European Division. On first joining this Division, Mr. Andrew was given special responsibility for handling the question of Germany, the post-war settlement and related subjects. The complexity and extent of the questions arising out of Germany, in which the Department is interested, has grown materially during the past fifteen months. Mr. Andrew's attitude in dealing with this expanding field has been well proven. It is felt that in recognition of his efforts in this regard he should be promoted from F.S.O. Grade 2 to F.S.O. Grade 3.

RAU, Gerald Anthony

Mr. Rau joined the Department on August 6th, 1945 and was shortly thereafter posted to the Canadian High Commissioner's Office in Australia. From reports received from the Canadian High Commissioner on Mr. Rau, it is felt that his promotion from F.S.O. Grade 1 to F.S.O. Grade 2 is warranted. The High Commissioner has reported a number of times on his reliability and industry, and since becoming the Senior Secretary with the Mission, Mr. Rau's duties have grown heavier and more responsible. Mr. Rau is responsible for all questions arising out of the passport, visa and immigration work of the Office. In addition, Mr. Rau has had general supervision over the accounts and cypher work. Mr. Rau has also been assigned responsibilities with regard to the preparation of the political reports. In view of Mr. Rau's consistent improvement and his increased responsibilities, it is felt that he should be granted this promotion.

KILGOUR, Arthur Ruthford

Mr. Kilgour joined the Department on June 10th, 1947 and was first appointed to the American and Far Eastern Division, where he did important work and gained valuable experience in the American section. After a few months, he was assigned to the Personnel Division where the initial good impression was confirmed. He initiated a number of useful procedures and made a very valuable contribution as regards job analysis and documentation on personnel. Mr. Kilgour was sent to Paris with the Canadian Delegation to the General Assembly of the United Nations and then was posted to the Canadian Embassy to assist the Canadian Observer with the Organisation for European Economic Co-operation (O.E.E.C.). Mr. Kilgour is one of the most promising of the recently-appointed junior officers and it is felt that both as recognition for past services and in view of his seniority (Mr. Kilgour served in the Armed Forces for five years), he should be promoted as recommended above. As Mr. Pioreo, the Canadian Observer with the O.E.E.C., has returned to Canada, Mr. Kilgour is now reporting on the work of this important organization. He has duties, therefore, which are heavier than those usually assigned to Officers of his present rank.

LANGILLE, Gilbert Craig

Mr. Langille joined the Department on November 3rd, 1947 and was assigned to the Legal Division. Mr. Langille very quickly proved himself a most useful officer of this Division and in the period in which he has been a member of the Legal Division, has indicated that he is an officer of first-class calibre. He has constantly been given increased responsibilities. He has also proven himself capable of doing work of a more senior nature than normally granted to a person of his rank. Mr. Langille was charged with the responsibility of the preparation of the Departmental War Book and has been discharging this task in a most competent manner. He has also been responsible for some of the legal questions arising out of the work of the United Nations and has also given invaluable service in this regard. In view of Mr. Langille's record since he joined this Department, his promotion from F.S.O. Grade 1 to F.S.O. Grade 2 is recommended.

ROBINSON, Henry Basil Owen

Mr. Robinson joined the Department on August 15th, 1945. After a year's service in the Diplomatic Division he was granted special leave without pay for the purpose of completing his studies at Oxford. Mr. Robinson has recently returned to the Department and is now in the United Nations Division. His responsibility in this Division is to prepare, under direction, recommendations for the Government and to issue instructions to the Canadian Permanent Delegate to the United Nations on these issues before the Security Council. Mr. Robinson's present duties require experience and ability beyond that normally expected of a Foreign Service Officer, Grade 1. During Mr. Robinson's first year in the Department he was rated as a first class officer and it is felt that as a result of his studies and his present work that he should be promoted from F.S.O. Grade 1 to F.S.O. Grade 2..

TOWE, Peter Gilbert

Mr. Towe joined the Department on September 29th, 1947 and was assigned to the Economic Division. Very soon, he became one of the most useful officers of that division and he was assigned to deal with European Recovery Program (E.R.P.) work. In very little time, Mr. Towe became an authority on this project and provided assistance to the Department in a fashion which was unusual for an officer of his rank and age. In December last, he was transferred to the Defence Liaison Division and the reports available on his work indicates that his usefulness is rated much higher than his present rank. In view of Mr. Towe's outstanding qualifications and first class work since he joined the Department, this Department has no hesitation in recommending his promotion from F.S.O. Grade 1 to F.S.O. Grade 2.

Your favourable consideration of these recommendations would be appreciated.

A.D.P. Hooley,
Under-Secretary of State
for External Affairs.

(OPERATING ITS OWN LINES AND THOSE OF THE GREAT NORTH WESTERN TELEGRAPH COMPANY, THE GRAND TRUNK PACIFIC TELEGRAPH COMPANY AND THE CANADIAN GOVERNMENT RAILWAYS). HEREINAFTER CALLED THE COMPANY.

ALL MESSAGES ARE SUBJECT TO THE FOLLOWING CONDITIONS, WHICH HAVE BEEN APPROVED BY THE BOARD OF TRANSPORT COMMISSIONERS FOR CANADA, UNDER GENERAL ORDER 162, DATED MARCH 30TH, 1916, AND ORDER 49274, DATED 5TH DECEMBER, 1932, WHICH ORDERS WERE PUBLISHED IN THE CANADA GAZETTE ON DECEMBER 24TH AND DECEMBER 31ST, 1932, AND JANUARY 7TH, 1933.

It is agreed between the sender of the message on the face of this form and this Company that said Company shall not be liable for damages arising from failure to transmit or deliver, or for any error in the transmission or delivery of any unrepeatable telegram, whether happening from negligence of its servants or otherwise, or for delays from interruptions in the working of its lines, for errors in cipher or obscure messages, or for errors from illegible writing, beyond the amount received for sending the same.

To guard against errors, the Company will repeat back any telegram for an extra payment of one-half the regular rate, and, in that case, the Company shall be liable for damages suffered by the sender to an extent not exceeding $200.00, due to the negligence of the Company in the transmission or delivery of the telegram.

Correctness in the transmission and delivery of messages can be insured by contract in writing, stating agreed amount of risk, and payment of premium thereon at the following rates, in addition to the usual charge for repeated messages, viz.: one per cent for any distance not exceeding 1,000 miles, and two per cent for any greater distance.

This Company shall not be liable for the act or omission of any other Company, but will endeavour to forward the telegram by any other Telegraph Company necessary for reaching its destination, but only as the agent of the sender and without liability therefor. The Company shall not be responsible for messages until the same are presented and accepted at one of its transmitting offices; if a message is sent to such office by one of the Company's messengers, he acts for that purpose as the sender's agent, if by telephone, the person receiving the message acts therein as agent of the sender, being authorized to assent to these conditions for the sender. This Company shall not be liable in any case for damages, unless the same be claimed, in writing, within sixty days after receipt of the telegram for transmission.

No employee of the Company shall vary the foregoing.

Cher Monsieur Cadieux,

Permettez-moi de vous remercier vivement de votre lettre du 1er Février, qui expose si clairement la Politique du Gouvernement Canadien en matière d'immigration. Toute ma gratitude vous est également acquise pour avoir bien voulu signaler à l'Attaché Commercial à Paris l'importance d'éviter des malentendus analogues à celui que je vous ai indiqué.

Permettez-moi d'ajouter qu'une réponse prompte et précise comme la vôtre tend à me ~~me~~ concilier avec la lenteur habituelle et le vague si fréquemment exaspérant de l'Administration.

En vous disant encore une fois merci, je vous prie d'agréer, cher Monsieur Cadieux, l'assurance réitérée de ma haute considération et de mes sentiments dévoués.

It is agreed between the sender of the message, on the face of this form and this Company, that said Company shall not be liable for damages arising from failure to transmit or deliver, or for any error in the transmission or delivery of any unrepeatable telegram, whether happening from negligence of its servants or otherwise, or for delays from interruptions in the working of its lines, for errors in cypher or obscure messages, or for errors from illegible writing, beyond the amount received for sending the same.

The Company shall not be responsible for messages until the same are presented and accepted at one of its transmitting offices; if a message is sent to such office by one of the Company's messengers he acts for that purpose as the sender's agent; if by telephone the person receiving the message acts therein as agent of the sender, being authorized to assent to these conditions for the sender. This Company shall not be liable in any case for damages, unless the same be claimed, in writing, within sixty days after receipt of the telegram for transmission.

No employee of the Company shall vary the foregoing.

Club de Relations Internationales

de l'Université de Montréal

2900, boulevard du Mont-Royal - Montréal 26, Canada

Montréal, le 22 janvier 1949.

Cher monsieur,

Permettez-moi d'abord de vous offrir mes félicitations ainsi que celles de tous les membres du Club de Relations internationales pour votre nomination à la direction du personnel du Ministère. C'est là une nouvelle que nous avons apprise avec beaucoup de plaisir.

En réponse à votre lettre du 19 janvier 1949 je dois vous faire part à regret qu'il nous sera impossible de tenir notre première réunion un samedi soir. Je suis fort confus de ne pas avoir mentionné ce fait dans ma première lettre mais jusqu'ici nos séances ont eu lieu durant la semaine, du lundi au vendredi seulement. Et comme nous traversons présentement la période de l'année où chaque faculté donne son bal, et chaque organisation universitaire, sa soirée récréative, nous ne pouvons compter sur les membres du Club les samedis.

Lors de notre prochaine réunion, j'essaierai d'amener les membres à déterminer un samedi soir où ils pourront se réunir et je m'empresserai de vous communiquer cette date. J'ose espérer que vous voudrez bien accepter alors de venir nous entretenir du sujet dont vous m'avez parlé; je suis certain qu'il intéressera les membres du Club, tant ceux qui se destinent à la Carrière que ceux qui portent un simple intérêt au fonctionnement de notre ministère des Affaires extérieures.

Je vous suis, cher monsieur, très reconnaissant de l'intérêt que vous portez au Club ainsi que de votre amabilité à notre égard et je demeure,

Votre très dévoué,

MEMORANDUM FOR MR. HEENEY:

Loan of External Affairs Officers to the Prime Minister's Office

There is no urgency about this matter but I wish that some time you would look at the attached memorandum of January 6 from MacDermot, on the general question, and the memorandum of January 18 from Cadieux on the specific question of whether I should recommend Gauvin for permanency as a Foreign Service Officer when he has had no experience in the Department.

ER

M. CADIEUX/MAB

January 18th, 1949.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE ACTING UNDER-SECRETARY

I would like to refer to the attached note of December 2nd concerning Mr. Gauvin's permanent appointment.

2. Mr. Gauvin's certificate from the Civil Service Commission appointing him Foreign Service Officer Grade I is dated October 15th, 1948. He will, however, get his annual increase on April 1st, 1949. (He will then receive $3440). Everything will therefore be as if he had been appointed April 1st, 1948.

3. In fact, the date of Mr. Gauvin's appointment as Foreign Service Officer Grade I is not important, either from the point of view of salary or from the point of view of seniority. As regards salary, as I indicated above, he will receive an increase as if he had been appointed on April 1st, 1948. As regards seniority, his service for promotion purposes dates back from his enlistment in the Army.

4. The other point which Mr. Pickersgill raises in his memorandum is more difficult - e.g., Mr. Gauvin's permanent appointment. I am of the view that the nature of the work in the Department is different from what Mr. Gauvin does in the Prime Minister's Office. He is not familiar with our departmental procedure and the particular problems which arise in the various Divisions. I would be reluctant, therefore, to recommend him for permanency until he has had some experience in departmental work.

5. There would seem to be two solutions:

- (a) to request Mr. Pickersgill to allow Mr. Gauvin to return to the Department. His case could be brought before the Promotions Board for a decision after a shorter period of training than usual - three or four months;
- (b) If Mr. Pickersgill is not willing to release Mr. Gauvin, I am given to understand that the Civil Service Commission would accept Mr. Pickersgill's recommendation as to Mr. Gauvin's fitness for permanent appointment. When he becomes eligible for permanency, we could forward Mr. Pickersgill's recommendation with a statement that Mr. Pickersgill is an Officer of this Department on loan to the Prime Minister's Office, and that he has an adequate knowledge of the qualifications required of a Foreign Service Officer.

6. This second alternative raises, in my opinion, a very important policy problem which you may wish to discuss with Mr. Pearson. If Mr. Pickersgill's recommendation is to be acceptable for purposes of permanencies, annual increases and promotions, this means that for practical purposes, the Prime Minister's Office, under Mr. Pickersgill, is a part of the establishment of this Department. Yet, the Officers seconded from this Department to the Prime Minister's Office are not doing work for which Parliament has authorized appropriations covering their salaries. They are doing work which is in fact of a political nature, and I have serious doubts whether the Department should agree to consider the Prime Minister's Office as part of its establishment. Both the Prime Minister and the Minister may be criticized for having allowed this situation to continue, even if at one time it was justified when the Prime Minister was also Secretary of State for External Affairs.

7. I would be exceedingly sorry if Mr. Gauvin were to be personally affected by the discussion regarding the Department's responsibility as regards the personnel requirements of the Prime Minister's Office. If Mr. Pickersgill is not willing to release Mr. Gauvin, I think that an exception could be made and his recommendation could be accepted. I would, however, strongly recommend that the question of principle be discussed with the Minister.

Cher monsieur,

J'ai bien reçu votre lettre du 13 janvier, 1949. Il me ferait plaisir d'accepter de vous donner une causerie le 29 janvier prochain. Il ne me sera pas possible d'ici au 29 de vous préparer une causerie sur le sujet que vous me suggérez. J'ai cependant un texte inédit que je pourrai utiliser et qui pourrait être utile aux membres de votre Cercle touchant le travail qu'ils seraient appelés à faire s'ils entraient au Ministère des Affaires Extérieures. Si ce projet vous convient, je quitterai Ottawa par le train de 4:25 p.m. et arriverai à Montréal vers 7:25 p.m. Je ne pourrai pas me trouver à l'Université beaucoup avant 7:45 p.m.

Je préférerais arriver plus tôt pour pouvoir assister à votre dîner, mais je serai déjà obligé, à cause de cette causerie, de m'absenter du bureau le samedi matin, et je ne vois guère la possibilité de m'absenter aussi le vendredi après-midi.

Je vous prie d'agréer, cher monsieur, l'assurance de mes meilleurs sentiments.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE ACTING UNDER-SECRETARY

I attach a letter dated January 13th, 1949 which has been received from the International Relations Club of the University of Montreal. As you will note, they would like me to give a lecture at their Club during the week of January 23rd to the 29th. I have no material on the main factors governing Canadian external policy, but I have an essay on "Le Travail au Ministère" which I am submitting to you for approval.

2. As you know, the International Relations Club at universities, groups students who are chiefly interested in foreign affairs, and it is no doubt from these groups that candidates for Foreign Service Officer competitions are recruited. There would seem to be a good deal of advantage in keeping in close touch with them.

3. If you concur, I could give this lecture on Friday, January 28th.

Vu l'intérêt que vous avez déjà manifesté à notre égard, nous avons cru que vous accepteriez peut-être de venir donner une causerie au Club dans la semaine du 23 au 29 janvier. Comme il s'agit de la première causerie du semestre, c'est-à-dire d'une introduction à nos études subséquentes, vous pourriez nous exposer les données générales d'ordre idéologique, géographique et économique, qui commandent la politique extérieure du Canada.

Le Club tient ses réunions à l'Université, de 6 à 8 heures le soir. Il y a souper d'abord; ensuite, exposé du sujet à l'étude par notre invité suivi de questions des membres et de discussion.

M. CADIEUX:BY

O t t a w a,
December 29th, 1948.

Dear Cam:

I was glad to hear from you. This brings you my best wishes for Christmas and the New Year. And while we are on the subject of wishes, there seems to be a good prospect that we may have a chance to meet again during 1949.

My best friend in the Department (that means Headquarters in Ottawa) brought me a very good report on your work in Paris and also on the assistance you gave her in what I understand was a difficult situation.

I note that you are still interested in that post across the Channel. Having been in the Personnel Division for a few months, I could perhaps give you an idea of what the official view is likely to be. As you know, the Department generally does not send Officers to their wives' country of origin. I assume that Pat has a touch of Irish! This, as you can see, would very likely complicate the problem. Another principle with the Department is the flexibility of the personnel arrangements. The theory is that people are moved around a good deal before they are appointed to take charge of a Mission. The official view, therefore, is likely to be that it will be in your interest, as well as in that of the Department, for you to spend some time either in Ottawa or at some other post before the grand appointment is made. One advantage is that you would bring a more varied and broader experience in the discharge of your duties. Furthermore, if you were to be posted elsewhere, this would enable the Department to give very useful training to some promising youngsters. As I said, these are only my personal views and it may be that, as usual, if the pressure is applied at the right places, there might be what you might call diversions from official policy. I thought, however, that you might find it useful to have an idea of how the official mind operates at this end.

In a few weeks, I will have been back in Ottawa for two years. I would never have thought when I came back that I could have stood it for so long. Life in these parts is nothing but work, work, work. You shift stuff from one basket to another. There seems to be no end to this game. You never have time to read or even, what is more important, just to do nothing. So if you let yourself be manoeuvred into being posted to Ottawa you are warned as to what you can expect. It seems very probable that before the new year ends, I will leave for another posting. If I can help it, it will be Paris. However, I am ideally placed here to note the number of things which may happen to upset the applecart.

Yours sincerely,

Dear Marcel,

I should have acknowledged your kind letter of August 31st long before this, although in actual fact I did not receive your letter until some time later.

I liked your best friend in the Department very much indeed - a very able person as well as a very nice one. I trust she will not report too unfavourably about this friend of yours.

I was very glad to read that you had had a 'Cooks Tour' of Canada. I think it is something we should all do much more often. Perhaps you have heard that the Canadian Section of the Empire Press Union asked Mr. Pearson if I can be the government member of the tour, so it looks as if we will be at home in 1950 for two if not three months. That's good news.

Tonight I am going out to the airport with the Pearsons. We are still without Norman, who is hard at work in Paris, and I fear without someone to look after him he will overdo it again. How right you were about him. One of the very nicest and most able men I have ever had the pleasure of knowing. As further proof of my thoughts, I send you herewith a copy of a letter which, when the offer was first made to me some months ago, gave me some food for thought. Now the post is still open, and they have written again. I am not interested, but it is a nice thing to have turned down, especially when I know that £4,000 goes with it for expenses. However, if the Department gets tough and wants to move me around I can always resign. There is only one move that I am still interested in and that's across the Irish Sea.

Now, what's your news and what are the plans? I know how busy you are but I am always very happy to hear news of you, your plans and your hopes.

God Bless you, and take care of yourself.

Yours ever,

Marcel Cadieux, Esq.,
Department of External Affairs,
OTTAWA.

P.S. I had a chance one evening to say a few things about you to Mr. St. Laurent, and said a bit more to the son and asked him to be sure and mention it again to his father. It may not do any 9th December, 1948.

Dear Cam,

You will remember my asking you, some months ago, if you would be available to take on a job as Assistant to the Managing Director of Fords, particularly on the publicity and public contacting side. You then told me that you would not be inclined to make a change as long as the High Commissioner had need of you here.

I now write only to say that the job, which incidentally is a good one, and would I imagine carry a salary of around £3,000 a year, is still open. At the same time I should also tell you that when you previously declined, I told Norman that I felt he should hear first from me that I had approached you, and what your attitude had been.

So now, although I want it to be quite clear that this letter is in no way meant to suborn you from your allegiance to our mutual good friend, I would like you to feel that if circumstances should alter at any time in the future, you can get in touch with me on the matter. I believe you have got what Fords want but I also want you to know that I realise where your loyalty lies and I commend you for it.

May you and Pat have a Merry Christmas and a Very Happy New Year with that new baby.

Yours ever,

Cher monsieur,

Je desirè me référer à notre conversation de la semaine dernière concernant un avis publié dans le bulletin de notre Ministère touchant à un plan d'assurance mutuelle pour les employés civils.

Conformément aux indications données dans l'avis publié dans le bulletin du Ministère, je me suis adressé à votre représentant, monsieur Hall, pour lui demander de me faire parvenir les formules de demande. Monsieur Hall m'a répondu par une note du 15 décembre, 1948, que ces formules ne sont pas disponibles en français. J'ai pris la liberté de vous appeler la semaine dernière pour savoir si vous n'aviez pas à votre disposition quelques unes de ces formules en langue française.

Je me permets de vous signaler que s'il s'agit d'un plan d'assurance mutuelle organisé pour le bénéfice des employés civils, il y aurait avantage à faire imprimer des formules françaises pour ceux des employés civils dont le français est la langue maternelle. Il ne s'agit pas seulement d'une question de droit, mais aussi d'une question pratique vu que certaines des questions présentent des difficultés pour une personne ne possédant pas une connaissance approfondie de la langue anglaise. Je me réfère tout particulièrement à la section 4, section 14 (b), et la section 15 de votre formule en langue anglaise (application for membership). Vous m'obligeriez beaucoup en me faisant savoir quelle suite vous vous proposez de donner à cette demande.

I am pleased to advise you that under this authority your salary has been increased as of October 1st, 1947, from $3,900 to $4,260 per annum. The date when you can expect normal statutory increases will remain as it was in the past.

A cheque for the amount due to you will be issued shortly.

Yours very truly,

MEMORANDUM FOR MR. MAYRAND:

Attached is the memorandum to which I was referring.
As I understand you are willing to undertake this I hope you will be good enough to get in touch with Mr. Cadieux and the President of the Club and make the necessary arrangements.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE SECRETARY OF STATE

FOR EXTERNAL AFFAIRS

With regard to the invitation of the President of the "Club de Relations Internationales de l'Université de Montreal" that a senior bilingual officer of the Department spend a day with them to discuss with the delegates to the Convention of International Affairs Clubs the work of this Department, I would think it might be very useful to accede to this request. It would be an opportunity to inform a particularly interested group about some of the more important aspects of our external relations and external policies and perhaps there would be an opportunity also to draw their attention to the conditions and requirements under which recruiting for our staff is carried out.

I would suggest that Mr. Mayrand would be an excellent choice for this assignment. He is one of our most experienced bilingual officers both at home and abroad. He is away in Washington at the moment, but, if you agree with this suggestion, I could speak to him directly he returns and see if he is free to go to Montreal.

It happens that Mr. Marcel Cadieux, who is in Mr. Pearson's office, is going to Montreal next week-end to deliver a lecture to the students of the University about the work of the Department and if you agree, and the President of the Club de Relations Internationales was agreeable, it might also be useful for Mr. Cadieux to accompany Mr. Mayrand as he is particularly interested in the proceedings of such organizations.

MEMORANDUM TO MR. PEARSON

The International Affairs Club of the University of Montreal is organizing a convention of International Affairs Clubs of Canadian Universities to be held in Montreal on the 6th of March and at which at least eight such Clubs will be represented.

I was invited to address this convention but I had to decline the invitation.

The President of the "Club de Relations Internationales de l'Université de Montréal", 2900 Mount-Royal Boulevard, Montreal, now writes me asking whether a senior bilingual officer of the Department could spend the day in Montreal on that occasion so that the delegates to that convention might obtain from him information and advice on international problems and the work done in the Department.

Will you please let me know if we should accede to their request and, if so, who, in your opinion, would be best qualified to represent the Department on such an occasion.

Secretary of State for External Affairs.

En acceptant de donner cette causerie, je me suis rendu compte d'une difficulté assez particulière. Il est en effet délicat pour un débutant comme moi dans la Carrière de se prononcer sur les formules de succès. Une telle causerie reviendrait de droit à un de nos brillants diplomates comme monsieur Désy - monsieur Pearson. Aussi mon dessein n'est-il pas d'essayer de vous dire le secret d'une carrière brillante et rapide au Ministère.

Je suis cependant au Ministère depuis bientôt sept ans et j'ai eu l'occasion de travailler avec nos meilleurs diplomates. J'ai été ainsi en mesure de me former une opinion concernant leurs méthodes de travail et leurs qualités professionnelles. Au surplus, le souvenir des difficultés initiales que rencontre un jeune secrétaire est encore frais à mon esprit; je suis peut-être à cause de cela plus en mesure de vous faire quelques suggestions quant à la manière de surmonter ces obstacles qu'un vieux diplomate qui aurait commencé sa carrière dans le Ministère presque au sommet et qui n'aurait pas ou plus de souvenirs touchant l'embarras des débutants qui s'initient aux mystères de l'édifice de l'Est.

lecture given by Mr Cadieux at University of Montreal in March

Bien entendu, je suppose que le candidat aux Affaires extérieures détient un diplôme universitaire, a fait des études post-universitaires, quelques voyages à l'étranger, des études de langues étrangères, un livre ou deux ou à tout le moins quelques articles de revues ou de journaux. Ce sont là sauf peut-être pour ce qui est des études de langues étrangères les conditions indispensables. Il est bien inutile, à mon avis, de songer aux affaires extérieures à moins d'avoir réalisé ces conditions. Par hypothèse, notre candidat possède ce que l'avis d'examen de la Commission du Service Civil appelle "les qualités requises".

En arrivant à Ottawa, ceci va sans doute surprendre, un secrétaire se décourage vite, fait très mauvaise impression à moins qu'il ne possède une connaissance plus que moyenne de l'anglais. Il ne s'agit pas simplement de savoir lire ou de comprendre facilement. Les revues, les films anglais ou américains sont trop répandus à Montreal pour que le jeune troisième secrétaire ne comprenne ou ne lise l'anglais sans difficultés. Seulement et ceci est plus important, le secrétaire doit pouvoir parler l'anglais avec facilité et correction. Pour ainsi dire, il doit presque penser en anglais. Le secrétaire participe au travail des comités, Durant les conférences internationales, à l'occasion, il exprime le point de vue canadien. A Ottawa, surtout, le plus souvent, il s'exprime en anglais et pour être en mesure de faire son travail efficacement, il importe qu'il possède la langue suffisamment bien pour traduire fidèlement les nuances de sa pensée.

Si le secrétaire parle bien l'anglais, tout probablement il l'écrit correctement. A moins qu'un secrétaire ne puisse préparer des lettres ou des mémoires dans une langue anglaise qui soit non seulement grammaticalement correcte mais châtiée, il est incapable de remplir ses fonctions de façon satisfaisante. Plus, le jeune troisième secrétaire canadien-français qui arrive à Ottawa vaut pratiquement ce que vaut son anglais. Ses connaissances générales, sa culture, la clarté de son esprit ne seront reconnues que s'il peut les manifester dans ses écrits, en langue anglaise. Cela tient au fait que la plupart des communications dans le Ministère sont écrites en anglais; vous pouvez facilement imaginer l'impression que produit un mémoire gauche rempli de fautes d'orthographe ou de style. Au surplus, le fonctionnaire écrit des lettres destinées aux contribuables de langue anglaise, prépare des mémoires pour le Cabinet, quand il se trouve à l'étranger, il rédige des dépêches, sur les conditions politiques. A moins qu'il ne possède bien la langue anglaise, ses lettres, ses mémoires devront être pratiquement refaits par son supérieur ou ses collègues.

Sans doute, le Ministère n'exige pas que le secrétaire canadien-français possède l'anglais aussi bien que sa langue maternelle. Pendant quelque temps, si un jeune secrétaire a par ailleurs les aptitudes nécessaires pour réussir dans la carrière, il est chargé de travaux de recherches ou de fonctions qui ne l'obligent pas à écrire des documents qui viendraient à la connaissance du grand public. Il a ainsi l'occasion d'apprendre peu à peu à se servir de l'anglais. Il est inévitable cependant que pendant cette période d'initiation linguistique, le secrétaire canadien-français ne soit pas en mesure d'acquérir l'expérience de ses collègues de langue anglaise qui sont immédiatement associés aux fonctions essentielles du Ministère. Pour que leur période d'apprentissage soit réduite au minimum, les candidats dans leur intérêt doivent soigner tout particulièrement leurs études d'anglais. Je mentionne ce point en premier lieu pour bien marquer son importance.

La connaissance de la langue anglaise parlée ou écrite implique naturellement une certaine familiarité avec la culture anglo-saxonne, c'est-à-dire, avec les auteurs et les oeuvres principales du patrimoine de l'Angleterre, des Etats-Unis et du Canada d'expression anglaise. Le secrétaire canadien-français se trouve continuellement en rapport avec des collègues qui sont recrutés dans les différentes parties du pays. Pour se créer des relations et devenir partie intégrante de la grande équipe qu'est le Ministère, il ne lui suffit pas d'être en mesure de s'exprimer dans leur langue. Il est indispensable qu'il puisse discuter avec eux dans leur langue, échanger des impressions concernant les livres, les articles ou les idées qui leur sont familiers; en un mot commercer avec eux.

Si la connaissance de l'anglais est nécessaire au jeune secrétaire canadien-français, le Ministère insiste cependant pour que les canadiens d'expression anglaise qui désirent entrer dans la Carrière possèdent une connaissance approfondie du français. Le secrétaire idéal serait donc parfaitement bilingue et à l'aise dans les deux cultures dont les langues sont le véhicule.

Connaissant l'anglais, le jeune troisième secrétaire canadien-français dispose déjà d'un précieux instrument de travail. Il est cependant insuffisamment équipé pour donner sa mesure et rivaliser sur un pied d'égalité avec ses collègues venant des autres parties du Canada. L'avocat ne se contente pas d'étudier le droit civil ou le droit criminel mais à grands coups de volonté, se familiarise avec la procédure et les formulaires de procédure. Le jeune secrétaire a besoin d'apprendre la procédure administrative et de connaître les rouages du Gouvernement. Une connaissance générale et théorique ne suffit pas. Le bon secrétaire connaît les attributions des divers ministères et commissions; il a une idée de leur organisation. A ce point de vue, certaines universités dans les autres provinces organisent des cours de "public administration" très poussés qui familiarisent les étudiants avec les rouages du Cabinet, par exemple, ou la préparation d'un projet de loi et leur permettent de continuer pour ainsi dire, dans l'administration, leurs travaux universitaires. Ces cours supposent une liaison étroite entre l'enseignement universitaire et l'administration. Le secrétaire compétent sait aussi préparer un mémoire pour le chef politique du Ministère, des recommandations pour le Cabinet ou le

Conseil des Ministres, dans le style administratif qui est de rigueur pour les documents officiels. En particulier, le secrétaire tient les minutes des nombreux comités et sous-comités gouvernementaux et inter-départementaux qui fonctionnent à Ottawa. Ce travail exige beaucoup de rapidité et de précision. Et c'est justement en préparant les minutes des réunions auxquelles il a assisté que le secrétaire se rend compte de la nécessité qu'il y a pour lui de bien posséder la langue anglaise. D'ailleurs, la connaissance des divers rouages du gouvernement et de la procédure administrative développent chez lui le sens des possibilités administratives qui manque trop souvent aux jeunes fonctionnaires frais émoulus de nos universités.

Il y a une tendance chez les candidats à négliger un peu les sciences économiques et financières. Ceux qui se destinent à la diplomatie songent naturellement à bien soigner leurs connaissances d'histoire diplomatique et de droit international. Il n'y a certes pas lieu de négliger ces matières mais de nos jours, plus que jamais, les relations internationales sont influencées par des facteurs économiques. Aussi les principes, le vocabulaire, les considérations de la science économique empreignent-ils tous les aspects de l'activité du Ministère. La division économique est l'une des plus importantes. A Ottawa comme à l'étranger un secrétaire possédant une bonne formation comme économiste peut être plus utile et se signaler davantage que s'il a fait des études juridiques même poussées. Pendant longtemps presque tous les canadiens-français au Ministère étaient des avocats. Il faudrait aussi des économistes ou mieux encore des juristes experts en économie politique.

Une fois dans le Ministère, le secrétaire poursuit sans cesse ses études. Il n'a plus à retenir des matières académiques qui ne changent que très peu au cours des années; il est plongé dans des événements actuels, aux prises avec des problèmes qui exigent des solutions immédiates. Pour faire face à sa besogne, le secrétaire se voit constamment obligé de renouveler son information, d'en vérifier l'exactitude. A moins qu'il n'étudie, ne réfléchisse, il est vite dépassé. Les grands chefs du Ministère, j'en puis porter témoignage, sont d'une extraordinaire curiosité intellectuelle.

Généralement, un secrétaire est chargé de préparer la correspondance et d'aviser le gouvernement concernant un organisme international particulier comme l'I.R.O., l'I.C.A.O. ou l'Assemblée générale des Nations Unies ou certain pays ou groupes de pays. Il peut aussi être chargé de donner des avis sur les aspects économiques ou légaux de nos relations internationales. Il ne lui suffit pas de préparer des réponses aux lettres qui sont déposées sur son bureau. Il doit s'intéresser véritablement aux pays, au travail des organisations qui sont de son ressort, comprendre les problèmes qui se posent, analyser la politique, les tactiques des divers pays qui en sont membres, avoir une idée exacte des intérêts canadiens en la matière, prendre des initiatives pour les avancer. Cela suppose non seulement qu'il lit les articles à ce sujet qui peuvent paraître dans les revues canadiennes mais qu'il est familier avec la littérature générale même étrangère se rapportant à la matière. Une véritable avidité intellectuelle, le souci de ne rien ignorer qui puisse avoir un rapport, de près ou de loin, avec les questions dont il est chargé sont parmi les qualités essentielles du secrétaire.

Cette habitude de recherches, d'étude lui sera précieuse lorsqu'il sera envoyé en poste à l'étranger. Dans une bonne mesure et dans bien des cas son ambassadeur et le gouvernement dépendront de lui pour se former une opinion touchant une situation politique ou économique. Un secrétaire consciencieux cherche à envoyer à son gouvernement autre chose que des compte-rendus de journaux ou de conversations. A moins qu'il ne soit pas capable d'étudier systématiquement certains sujets comme le commerce, l'organisation ferroviaire ou le système d'éducation d'un pays et dégager ainsi des conclusions quant aux conditions générales du pays, l'efficacité de son organisation, etc., il devient un simple reporter sans profondeur ou utilité.

Evidemment le secrétaire aux Affaires extérieures, comme son titre l'indique, sait non seulement écrire, mais il aime écrire. Il éprouve un plaisir à exprimer son opinion sur des questions d'intérêt général, à raconter ses impressions sur les personnalités qu'il rencontre. Aux conférences, le secrétaire qui sait bien s'exprimer expose avec éloquence le point de vue de son gouvernement. En poste, il prépare des rapports intéressants sur les événements dont il est témoin. A Ottawa, s'il a appris à étudier un problème de façon objective et méthodique et s'il sait bien présenter ses arguments, il facilite la solution des problèmes et gagnera ainsi parfois des causes qui lui seront chères. En somme, le secrétaire n'est utile à l'étranger, aux conférences internationales ou à Ottawa que dans la mesure où il peut s'exprimer correctement par écrit. Ceux qui n'aiment pas la composition seraient donc bien avisés de chercher à employer leurs talents dans d'autres professions.

Le secrétaire a bonne santé. Inutile de songer à faire carrière aux Affaires extérieures à moins d'avoir une assez grande puissance de travail et une résistance physique éprouvées. Cela ne tient pas comme vous pourriez penser à première vue, au nombre de cocktails auxquels la profession expose. Je vous reparlerai de cela tout à l'heure. Mais à Ottawa, en particulier, il faut travailler dur et pendant de longues heures. Il n'est pas rare que les secrétaires soient obligés de rester à leur bureau jusqu'à 6.30 et même 7 heures tous les soirs. Après le dîner, la plupart du temps, une bonne moitié des secrétaires reviennent au bureau pour pouvoir élaborer les mémoires un peu plus compliqués, à tête reposée, sans interruptions. Durant les sessions et à la veille des conférences internationales, il leur faut aussi bien souvent sacrifier les fins de semaines et les congés.

Rien n'est plus fatigant que les conférences internationales. Il faut tenir des réunions quotidiennes de la délégation, assister aux longues séances des comités et préparer des rapports sur les décisions prises, consulter les autres délégations et le gouvernement canadien quant aux problèmes qui se posent et après les conférences fournir un compte-rendu détaillé des activités de la délégation et des décisions prises.

Le service oblige à se déplacer d'un continent, d'un climat, d'une altitude à l'autre. Un secrétaire ne peut impunément vivre deux ou trois années à Mexico, deux ou trois années à Rio. Et puis, surtout dans les circonstances actuelles, les membres du service diplomatique, en Europe comme en Asie, même en dépensant des sommes assez considérables, n'arrivent pas à se nourrir aussi bien qu'il est possible de le faire au Canada. Imaginez quelles sont les possibilités alimentaires dans un poste comme Berlin, Varsovie, Prague, Tokyo. Ainsi, il faut non seulement travailler de longues heures dans des conditions difficiles et changeantes mais aussi savoir adapter son régime alimentaire aux conditions locales qui sont très différentes de celles auxquelles on s'est accoutumé. Je ne prétends pas que la carrière tue son homme. Je constate simplement que monsieur Skelton, monsieur Christie, monsieur Beaudry ont dû abandonner la partie alors qu'ils étaient encore relativement jeunes.

Les candidats aux Affaires extérieures voient souvent dans la carrière diplomatique une occasion de parcourir des pays intéressants. Il y a certes du vrai dans ce point de vue. Ne croyez pas pour un instant que le secrétaire voyage en touriste et qu'il peut à sa guise parcourir les pays où il est envoyé pour son agrément. Son travail et ses obligations le retiennent à son bureau la plupart du temps. Il se présente néanmoins des occasions de circuler et de rencontrer des personnalités du gouvernement ou autres et c'est justement à cause de cela que le secrétaire peut jouer un rôle utile s'il s'intéresse véritablement aux conditions et aux peuples étrangers. Il importe donc qu'il soit observateur, sans préjugés de race ou autres et qu'il aborde les gens avec un esprit ouvert. Cela n'est pas donné à tous. Il est des jeunes qui préfèrent se consacrer à quelques amis éprouvés, vivre dans un coin du pays humanisé par les ancêtres. Le jeune diplomate est appelé à être un spécialiste des relations humaines et il sait accueillir les personnes qu'il rencontre, compatriotes ou autres, avec un intérêt sincère et constamment renouvelé. Le régime, les mœurs des contrées qu'il observe sont pour lui des sujets d'étude passionnants. Pour qu'il les comprenne, rien ne s'interpose entre son esprit et la réalité. L'objectivité la plus absolue lui est de rigueur.

Cet intérêt pour les gens et les régimes différents implique chez le secrétaire une mentalité spéciale qui ressemble un peu à celle du soldat. Le soldat obéit. Il va où on lui dit, revient quand on lui demande et ne connaît d'autre patrie que son poste. Il en est un peu de même pour le diplomate qui est un spécialiste des négociations, de l'étude des conditions étrangères et de la protection des intérêts canadiens à l'étranger. Il abandonne sa famille, ses amis, sa patrie pour aller où le devoir l'appelle. Les canadiens-français sont plutôt casaniers. Ils sont attachés à la vie familiale. Souvent les exigences du service leur imposent des sacrifices très lourds. Ceux par conséquent qui n'aiment pas changer leurs habitudes ou leurs amis et qui n'aiment pas être bousculés font mieux de songer à faire leur avenir dans un autre métier. Vous n'avez pas aussitôt découvert un groupe de personnes sympathiques, trouvé un logement convenable et assuré votre service d'approvisionnements en livres ou en victuailles ou en renseignements que vous pliez bagage et recommencez ailleurs. A ce point de vue la vie du diplomate qui paraît bien facile comporte une austerité, un renoncement, des sacrifices dont le grand public ne s'avise pas toujours.

qui semblent inconciliables. D'une part, il se consacre à l'étude des problèmes étrangers. D'autre part, il s'efforce de rester en contact avec les réalités canadiennes sous peine de ne plus pouvoir exprimer avec les nuances nécessaires les points de vue et les requêtes de son gouvernement. L'antinomie n'est pas facile à résoudre. Le diplomate maintient l'unité dans ses activités par son métier qui s'exerce à peu près de la même façon dans tous les pays et surtout par son attachement aux grands intérêts canadiens qu'il représente et défend constamment à l'étranger.

Le diplomate est à la fois le spécialiste des conditions étrangères et des impératifs de la politique canadienne. Toujours, à Ottawa comme à l'étranger, il co-ordonne les points de vue, les exigences des divers groupes canadiens et cherche à trouver la formule qui unifie les objectifs à réaliser. Dans cette tâche, il ne peut négliger ou ignorer aucun groupe, aucun besoin canadiens. Par profession, il est amené à penser en termes nationaux. La diplomatie suppose et stimule vraiment le dévouement à la cause de l'union nationale.

À l'étranger, évidemment, le secrétaire ne représente plus une province, une culture ou une religion particulières; il représente tout le Canada et se doit tout entier à tous ceux quels qu'ils soient, qui recourent à ses services.

A Ottawa, le canadien-français peut jouer un rôle utile dans l'élaboration et dans l'application d'une politique nationale. Une politique ne peut être nationale à moins qu'elle ne tienne compte des intérêts canadiens-français. D'autre part, une politique canadienne, sauf en de rares occasions ne s'identifie pas à une politique canadienne-française. Aussi le fonctionnaire canadien-français s'applique à exprimer le point de vue canadien-français sur les problèmes internationaux qui se posent au Ministère, mais il ne se borne pas à ce rôle ou alors il se condamne à une opposition perpétuelle et le protestataire systématique n'est pas un bon diplomate. Il exprime volontiers son avis sur les aspects canadiens-français des questions mais il est aussi capable lui-même de se rendre compte des exigences que posent les intérêts des autres parties du pays et de formuler des propositions qui soient vraiment canadiennes dans leur extension. C'est dire qu'il est amené à s'intéresser aux conditions et à l'évolution des idées dans toutes les parties du Canada. A ce point de vue, ses contacts avec ses collègues d'expression anglaise, surtout au début, lui sont indispensables. Si, par exemple, à Montréal l'abbé Groulx ou monsieur Montpetit expriment un avis sur un problème courant, un intellectuel canadien-français peut facilement estimer l'importance de cette intervention et déterminer quelles conséquences elle pourra avoir quant à la solution du problème. Il importe cependant que le secrétaire canadien-français soit capable d'estimer avec autant d'exactitude, si possible, les effets que peuvent avoir un discours prononcé par le maire ou le chancelier de l'Université de Toronto sur une question particulière.

A représenter à l'étranger tout le Canada, à essayer de comprendre le point de vue des différentes parties du Canada concernant les problèmes courants, au contact quotidien avec les représentants des autres grandes familles spirituelles au Canada, le secrétaire se rend vite compte des grandes possibilités que lui offre une carrière dans l'administration fédérale de contribuer indirectement si l'on veut et même si modestement que ce soit à avancer la cause de l'union nationale.

Il n'est sans doute pas bien nécessaire d'insister sur la nécessité pour le secrétaire d'acquiescer s'il ne les a déjà les qualités de discrétion, de précision, d'aménité qui sont utiles partout mais nulle part plus qu'au Ministère des Affaires extérieures.

Le secrétaire, à cause de ses fonctions, apprend des secrets d'état qu'il garde soigneusement. Quand il est à l'étranger il devient le confident des ambassadeurs et de hautes personnalités. Il doit toujours se conduire avec une loyauté parfaite envers ceux qui lui ont donné leur confiance.

Son utilité comme diplomate dépend aussi pour une bonne partie de la précision avec laquelle il prépare ses compte-rendus. Il a pour mission d'exposer le point de vue et les désirs de son gouvernement avec une exactitude scrupuleuse et de rendre compte de ses actes et des déclarations qui lui sont faites de la même façon. Autrement, au lieu d'être une glace fidèle, il devient un miroir déformant. Il est impossible de fier à ses compte-rendus.

Surtout le jeune secrétaire est de relations faciles. A Ottawa, cela a moins d'importance; mais à l'étranger non seulement le secrétaire pourra accomplir son travail avec plus de succès s'il est d'abord facile et agréable, mais il pourra vivre en bonne harmonie avec ses collègues dans l'ambassade ou la légation. En poste, les diplomates canadiens sont forcément obligés de vivre près les uns les autres. Les caractères difficiles deviennent vite malheureux et rendent la vie des autres impossible. Une ambassade fonctionne bien ou mal suivant que le personnel diplomatique vit en bonne harmonie ou non.

Et j'arrive à la fameuse question des cocktails, de la vie sociale. Là-dessus encore, si vous avez des illusions, je suis obligé de vous détromper. Certes le diplomate va à de nombreux cocktails et réceptions mais, c'est le point important à retenir, ces réunions sont pour lui une occasion de travailler. Il rencontre ainsi de nouvelles personnes qui lui permettent d'obtenir des renseignements qui sont indispensables au succès de sa mission. Ces réunions lui donnent l'occasion d'échanger des idées, des renseignements dans une atmosphère agréable. Les cocktails et les réceptions sont un peu pour les diplomates ce que la Bourse est aux hommes d'affaires. Un mot aimable rappelle à tel fonctionnaire que l'on attend toujours la réponse à une communication. En causant avec un collègue d'une autre ambassade il est possible d'obtenir une indication qui éclairera certains aspects d'un problème qui est à l'étude. Il y a donc un juste milieu à tenir entre ceux qui considèrent les réceptions comme le seul but et le principal avantage de la carrière diplomatique et ceux qui prétendent que ces réunions sont des corvées inutiles.

L'aspect social de la vie diplomatique m'amène à vous dire quelques mots de la compagne du jeune secrétaire. L'épouse du diplomate joue peut-être un rôle plus important pour la carrière de son mari que l'épouse de tout autre professionnel. Un médecin, un avocat peuvent faire leur marque et réussir brillamment même si leur épouse se contente d'être la reine de leur foyer et ne s'intéresse guère aux activités mondaines. Il en va différemment pour le diplomate. Son épouse est véritablement une associée. Elle fait un travail qui a maints égards à une importance presque égale à celui de son mari. Il est important, par conséquent, que dans la mesure du possible les diplomates épousent des compatriotes, des personnes qui soient en mesure de représenter avantageusement leur pays à l'étranger. A cause du caractère de la profession, la vie sociale prend une importance qu'elle n'a pas ordinairement et l'épouse accomplie du diplomate se prépare en conséquence. Etant célibataire moi-même vous comprendrez que je ne me sente pas particulièrement bien qualifié pour vous faire un exposé plus détaillé sur le sujet. Je m'empresse donc de passer à un autre point.

Si, d'aventure, certains s'imaginent que la carrière est avantageuse financièrement, qu'ils soient vite désabusés. Le Ministère ne désire pas et n'essaie pas de retenir les secrétaires en leur offrant des avantages matériels considérables. C'est à dessein. Ceux qui s'intéressent véritablement à leur tâche, qui aiment l'étude, le travail intellectuel, ceux qui identifient leur travail et leur plaisir se soucient assez peu de la rémunération. Ils sont un peu dans la situation de l'artiste qui peint pour son plaisir, qui peindrait même s'il n'était pas payé mais qui naturellement, parce qu'il faut bien vivre, vend à regret quelques unes de ses toiles. Le secrétaire ne reste pas au Ministère à moins qu'il ne soit pénétré de la conviction que même s'il n'avait pas besoin de travailler pour vivre, il n'aurait d'autre ambition que de se consacrer à son métier. D'ailleurs, c'est seulement s'il tient beaucoup au genre de travail que lui offre le Ministère qu'il acceptera le sacrifice - car s'en est un - de travailler à Ottawa, de s'expatrier, de tirer le diable par la queue toute sa vie. Les compensations matérielles ne sont certes pas à la mesure des sacrifices demandés. Mais, justement pour ceux qui ont la vocation, il n'y a pas de sacrifices.....

sorte de mystique. De jeunes intellectuels, venus de diverses parties du pays, se consacrent au service des intérêts supérieurs de l'Etat. Ils n'attendent pas de rémunération autre que la satisfaction d'aider au développement, au progrès du pays. Ils aspirent à être les aviseurs des chefs politiques. La conception du grand commis de l'état renait et propose un idéal de vie austère certes, mais digne et profondément respectable. Ces jeunes fonctionnaires affirment par leur travail qu'il y a autre chose dans la vie que l'argent, la publicité, ou si vous aimez mieux, que la dignité des fonctions, l'intérêt du travail sont des éléments de rémunération qu'il ne faut pas sous-estimer. A condition bien entendu de trouver le travail intéressant et le genre de vie désirable.

X X X

De ce qui précède vous avez pu vous former une idée des obstacles à surmonter, de ce que semblent être les conditions requises pour faire figure honorable dans le service. Ceux qui songent à passer l'examen doivent se demander sincèrement s'ils seraient heureux de vivre dans les conditions que je vous ai exposées. Il ne s'agit pas de s'entêter à vouloir passer et réussir un examen pour se démontrer qu'on a les aptitudes requises pour entrer aux Affaires extérieures. C'est enfantin. Il faut se dire qu'à moins d'aimer le genre de vie que la Carrière impose, ses misères et ses inconvénients deviendront insupportables. Tel qui fait un misérable diplomate a réussi brillamment comme avocat ou professeur. Il importe donc que le candidat trouve non pas ce qui intellectuellement lui semble le plus désirable mais ce qu'il peut faire le mieux suivant sa tournure d'esprit, et ses aptitudes naturelles. Le Ministère, par l'examen, peut déterminer avec plus ou moins d'exactitude, plutôt plus que moins, si le candidat a les diplômes et la formation nécessaires pour devenir secrétaire. C'est au candidat lui-même, dans sa conscience, à découvrir, s'il peut y réaliser ses aspirations profondes et partant, y réussir. D'ailleurs, après une période d'essai d'un an, le Ministère décide si le jeune troisième secrétaire a l'étoffe du diplomate. En réalité il vient au secours de celui qu'il congédie en lui interdisant de continuer dans une voie qui ne lui convient pas.

MEMORANDUM FOR MISS L. FERGUSON,
ROOM 212, NewPost Office:

I am directed to submit to you my claim for $1.90 for the use of a taxi on Saturday, October 4 at a quarter to 1.00. I had to deliver an urgent Top Secret and important message to Commissioner Wood and to Dr. Mackenzie of the National Research Council, who had then left his office and was at his residence 210 Buena Vista Rockcliffe.

Will you please draw the attention of all employees in your Division to Leave Regulations in connection with Application for Leave of Absence, with or without pay.

Under Civil Service Regulations 'when any officer, clerk or employee is absent from duty without leave, his salary for each day of such absence shall be deducted from his monthly salary'.

This regulation is emphasized on page 2 of the Departmental Leave Regulations, a copy of which is given to each employee on entering the service.

Due to the rapid growth of the Department, and in order to minimize the work of the attendance section, all employees are requested to submit in advance of Statutory Leave, C.S.C. CANADIAN EMBASSY

PERSONAL & CONFIDENTIAL

Brussels, 17th January, 1947.

Dear Mr. Hemsley,

In connection with previous correspondence regarding the movements of Mr. Cadieux and your last communication in which you indicated that there should not be more than an overlap of one week between the time of Mr. Cadieux's departure and of Mr. Thurrott's arrival. I have received a telegram from Mr. Thurrott in which he states that he expects to leave Moscow immediately on arrival of his replacement who is expected to arrive about the middle of February.

As you know by now, we have not yet moved to the new chancery and I have personally been so taken up, first by the organization of the Embassy Residence, then by the finding of suitable schools for the children, that I have had little time to acquaint myself fully with the work of the Mission which appears to be well known by Mr. Cadieux.

In spite of all this, and because of your urgent request to have Mr. Cadieux in Ottawa, he has booked a passage for the 12th or 13th February and should be leaving on that date unless some unforeseen circumstances might make it absolutely necessary for him to stay on for a bit longer.

Yours very truly,

(Sgd) Hector Allard,

Personal and Confidential

Dear Mr. Allard:

Mr. Pearson has passed on to us your personal and confidential letter of December 13th regarding the Embassy residence in Brussels.

When you have completed your inventory of all items in the Embassy residence, we would appreciate receiving a copy of it here for our records.

We are not yet certain of the actual date of Thurrott's reporting to Brussels but so great is the pressure on the staff in Ottawa that Cadieux should report here as soon as possible. As mentioned previously, we would like Cadieux before Thurrott arrives if that is feasible, but if not there should be an overlap of not longer than one week.

Yours sincerely,

S.D. Hemsley,
Administrative Officer.

No. 572

Sir,

I have the honour to acknowledge your despatch No. 657, of December 3rd, concerning the Department's plans for Mr. Cadieux.

2. It is anticipated that Mr. Cadieux will remain in Ottawa for some time and no plans for his posting elsewhere have been considered. I suggest, therefore, that he arrange to have his furniture and personal effects shipped to Canada when he leaves Brussels.

3. It will be in order for Mr. Cadieux to take his leave in Belgium after he ceases his duties with the Embassy. Owing to the staff situation here, we hope it will be possible for him to commence his leave at a reasonably early date. Please advise us when his final plans for departure are made.

Sir,

I have the honour to acknowledge receipt of your despatch No. 513 of November 21, 1946. I am very glad to hear that it will be possible for the Department to send Mr. J. H. Thurrott to replace Mr. Cadieux whose departure will be greatly felt here. I have shown your despatch to Mr. Cadieux and he has asked me to express his appreciation of your kindness in giving him this indication of your intentions.

As Mr. Cadieux has some furniture and personal effects he is anxious to know whether it would be in order for him to consign them in care of his father Mr. R. Cadieux, 10782 St. Laurent, Montreal.

It is expected that the present chancery will be abandoned on or about the 15th of December when we will move to another and more appropriate building.

I note that you cannot give us a firm date as to the arrival of Mr. Thurrott and I should like to point out that it will be difficult to dispense with Mr. Cadieux's services too soon as there will much to do to reorganize the chancery at the same time as it is moved to better premises. If it is agreeable Mr. Cadieux would like to make tentative plans to leave Brussels about the end of January. Mr. Cadieux tells me that he has taken no leave last year and if he is transferred to headquarters in Ottawa as his next post he would like to take his leave in Belgium before leaving for Canada. In view of Mr. Cadieux's contribution to the work of this mission I would recommend that this be granted him in the event of his next post is to be in Ottawa.

In the circumstances I would appreciate it very much indeed if you would kindly inform me as soon as convenient whether Mr. Cadieux is to be posted in Ottawa or he is to be sent on to another post after spending a short time in the Department.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,

NO. 513

Sir,

I have the honour to inform you that we are making arrangements to move Mr. J.H. Thurrott, Third Secretary with our Embassy in Moscow, to your Mission some time in the new year. I am sorry that I am unable to give you a firm date now as the time of his removal from Moscow will depend upon the time of the arrival there of a replacement to be sent from Ottawa.

It is our intention that Mr. Thurrott shall replace Mr. Cadieux in Brussels, and that Mr. Cadieux will, shortly after the arrival of Mr. Thurrott or before if he can conveniently be spared, proceed on posting to Headquarters, Ottawa.

I would be glad if this despatch could be shown to Mr. Cadieux as an indication to him of our intentions.

Acting Under-Secretary of State

O T T A W A, 16th November, 1945.

TO

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR GENERAL IN COUNCIL

The undersigned has the honour to recommend to Your Excellency that the Living and Representation allowances authorized by P.C. 8/505 of the 24th January, 1945, for the Married Counsellor and the Unmarried Second Secretary who are serving on the staff of the Canadian Embassy in Brussels, Belgium, be changed from $2,500 to $3,700 per annum and from $1,000 to $1,900 per annum respectively.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

Acting Secretary of State

OTTAWA, 16th November, 1945.

CANADIAN EMBASSY

Dear Mr. Robertson,

There has been an exchange of telegrams recently between this office and External regarding allowances received here by McGreer and Cadieux. I refer to my wire No. 1 of January 3rd and to External's reply, No. 3, of January 10th.

I gather from External's reply that your recommendations, presumably in favour of an increase, had previously been rejected by the Treasury Board and that they are now being reconsidered.

*Orig on
file.*

To take Cadieux's case. He receives monthly, for salary and allowances, $325. In purchasing power here this sum is equivalent to $130 in Canada. No more. He is in the same position, therefore, as if he were living in Ottawa on a tax-free salary of $130. But an employee of such a class in Ottawa is not expected to float round in high society and to do his share, by his way of life, in keeping up the prestige of a Canadian Embassy in a foreign country. Nor is he required to possess the same education and other/qualifications as Mr. Cadieux has. personal

Apart from the question of fair dealing, it cannot be in Canada's interest to have its Embassy officers living in a conscious state of constraint and consequent inferiority in respect to those with whom they must, as a matter of duty, form contacts and associate. Cadieux has already had to make some additional expenditures this month, of the kind that everybody must make from time to time, with the result that he is now figuring out how he can live until the end of the month on $80. which is all he has left. Up to the present he has been able to take most of his meals at the military mess, but this will not last much longer. Up to the present too we have all been able to buy army rations at reasonable prices, which helps, but this advantage will also come to an end shortly.

This problem is created, of course, by the preposterous exchange value of the Belgian franc. Our dollar should bring at least 100 of these francs instead of only 40. But I notice that the Belgian Finance Minister has just announced, with great solemnity, that the franc will stand firm and there will be no devaluation. On the other hand, the general sum of the Belgian people have more money in their possession than probably ever before, (despite the Gutt measures), and they don't seem to mind paying fantastic prices for things. It is only when export trading is attempted that the pinch will arise. Meanwhile the cost of living here is rising. It fell to some degree in the case of textile products and this led to the belief that a general fall was at hand. But the reverse is occurring.

What I cannot understand, I must admit, is the discrimination practised in respect of allowances between this Embassy and that of Paris. Those who suffer from it know that it is unjust and the result cannot be good. It is true that all these officials of the same class receive the same salary, but this creates only a fictional equality; the disparity in allowance provides inequality in the total payments received. Now, apart from the cost of commodities, the exigencies of compulsory social activity in Brussels are, I believe, greater than in Paris. This is a Kingdom; there is an aristocracy in full activity. Everybody is well-off and contented. Belgium is away ahead of France and of every other country in Europe in recovery. Socially they are back to pre-war conditions.

There is much more I might say, but I do not wish to bore you further. McGreer's case is proportionably, as bad as Cadieux's. I do hope that those responsible for these things will realize that a Canadian Embassy cannot be conducted as a second-class mission in respect of other embassies in the same capital nor in respect of other Canadian embassies.

Yours sincerely,

W.F.A. Turgeon

No. 2. January 3rd. As both McGreer and Cadieux are falling behind financially, I urge that immediate action should be taken to accord them the same allowances, retroactive to April 1st, which were granted to their opposite numbers in Paris. Since devaluation of the French franc, the cost of living here shows no sign of amelioration and, if anything, is becoming higher.

No. 113. August 10th. In view of conditions set out in your telegram No. 101 of August 8th, Cadieux has abandoned the idea of taking holidays in Canada. Expenses necessitated here by exorbitant cost of living have made it impossible for him to put aside any savings to finance the trip. Nevertheless, he is in need of rest and I can see that his health is suffering from overwork. Therefore, I am urging him to take holidays here at once notwithstanding extreme shortage of staff to cope with work.

While the Department cannot contribute towards the expenses of transportation, we would be very glad to have Cadieux take his leave in Canada and possibly in addition to leave to be on duty for some weeks in Ottawa. We are not in a position to provide any replacement for him while absent from Brussels. This plan will therefore be dependent upon your ability to carry on during his absence.

No. 109. August 6th. For special purposes at the time of Cadieux's transfer to Brussels, it was considered by both Under-Secretaries that it might be possible for him to take his local leave in Canada. I am in agreement, more particularly since he would be prepared to devote a considerable part of his leave to discuss various matters with you pertaining to the work of this Embassy. As Cadieux's health requires a change, the present would be the most suitable time for him to leave. Please advise immediately.

Dear Mr. Wong,

I hear that you will be arriving in Paris to-day with Mr. Morgan. This is to let you know that I regret very much that I shall not be able to see you. I think however that you may be glad to learn that my financial position is now much more satisfactory. This is thanks to your prompt intervention.

Life in Brussels is interesting. There is plenty of work but I like it. As to the personnel they could not possibly be nicer. If nothing special happens I should not give you any more trouble for some time.

About that journey to Canada.

Bruce tells me that it is difficult to obtain accommodation. I am grateful for the answer that you made to my request in this connection but under the circumstances I can see that it would not be reasonable for me to insist particularly now that everybody will be needed at his post. This is probably the insidious influence of spring or the natural effect of time but I am not so homesick as when I wrote you last fall.

We are following here with great interest the discussions in Canada about the San Francisco Conference. I wish you every success in the delicate mission that you are undertaking.

Thank you again for your assistance.

Very truly yours,

Dear Mr. Matthews,

Thank you very much for your letter of February 28th, concerning various allowance cheques forwarded to London.

I have already made arrangements with Mr. McLennan to refund out of the cheque for £ 64.17.6 the amount of local bonus paid to me during the period 1st October 1944 to 31st January 1945.

The news that I had been given local rank was indeed very welcome and I am grateful to you for your prompt intervention in this matter. I shall probably not surprise you if I say that the increased income involved in this promotion will only enable me to live on a subsistence basis.

My present plan is to request the military authorities here to requisition a house for the Embassy personnel. We can then draw army rations, hire a few servants and get along nicely. The hitch is that we are late in the game and that nearly all suitable houses have already been taken. We are, however, doing our best to bring about the realization of this scheme which would make life here easier financially, and socially more normal.

If this scheme does not succeed before long, I shall be compelled to request the Ambassador to recommend that I be granted an expense account covering room, board and reasonable representation costs.

I can well understand your concern over our spending so much good Canadian dough. It makes me mad to pay 50 cents for a chocolate bar, $ 1.- for a cup of coffee (or tea) and a piece of cake and $ 5.- to $ 7.- for a poor dinner, but we have no choice and even for the money we spend I can assure you that we get very little satisfaction.

Dear Mr. Wrong,

I'm sorry to return to the charge and to add my personal problems to your numerous burdens, particularly on the eve of an important conference, but I have no choice.

The story in a nutshell is that with my present salary and allowances I cannot possibly live here more than another three weeks.

The solution, assuming that it is desired that I should remain in Brussels, appears to be the following: either a substantially larger allowance or an expense account or, horresco referens, a promotion. The only point of this letter is to emphasise that unless any of these solutions or some equivalent is adopted before the end of March I'll be unable to stay here.

Once again I am very unhappy at having to raise this matter of income but the cost of living here for civilians is such that I am compelled to bring it to your attention. I hope that some means will be found to relieve me of these financial worries which, more than anything else, have made my life here most unpleasant.

Yours sincerely,

H. H. Wrong, Esq.,

Personal.

Dear Mr. Robertson,

Mr. Cadieux has just come in to submit his case to me regarding salary, living allowance and cost of living in Brussels. After hearing him I have thought it well to pass this information on to you at once.

The facts are these. Mr. Cadieux' salary is $180.63 (Bel.frs.7.139) per month. His living allowance $104.10 (Bel.frs.4,111) per month. He therefore receives a total monthly sum of $284.79 equivalent to Bel.frs.11,250. So far Mr. Cadieux has been living in one of the hotels requisitioned by the military authorities where only a very small charge is made, but civilians are not allowed to remain long in these places and Mr. Cadieux is now compelled to move out. The room in the modest hotel into which he is moving will cost him 100 frs. a day, which may be put at 3,000 frs. a month. This 3,000 subtracted from the total 11,250 frs. which he receives, will leave him with Bel.frs.8,350 per month, or 278 francs a day. Now these 278 francs will just about pay for one good meal a day and nothing more. They will not even cover the cost of two light meals.

I have just returned from having lunch at a restaurant, and, in order to give you an example of how prices run I set out here the itemized cost of my meal:-

	Francs	Dollars
Sliced cold ham	150	3.75
2 fried eggs	100	2.50
One slice buttered bread	20	.50
One cup of coffee	30	.75
TOTAL.	300	8.50

Norman Robertson, Esq.,
Department of External Affairs, Ottawa.

No soup, no vegetable, no dessert, no wine, etc. In addition, of course, there was the 10% tip.

Mr.Cadieux tells me that he has some expectation, or at least some hope, of being promoted to the rank of second secretary, thus giving him an increase in salary and allowance. If this is not done immediately, I can see no other solution for Mr.Cadieux' case than a considerable increase in his present allowance as third secretary. The above figures will show you that he cannot possibly continue to live here with what he is now receiving.

An alternative plan for Mr.Cadieux might appear to be to rent an apartment, set up housekeeping and use army rations. I am convinced, however, that this solution cannot be worked out just now, and even if it could I do not believe it would reduce his cost of living.

The sad fact which must be faced is that our Canadian dollar, which has maintained a high purchasing power in Canada, is convertible here into not quite 40 francs, and these 40 francs will buy next to nothing in the way of food, clothing, tobacco, etc. I would refer you in this regard to what I said in paragraph 5 of my Top Secret dispatch No.63 of the 8th February.

I have before me your letter of the 12th February regarding the staff employed in this Chancery. I am answering this letter separately, and I mention it here only because of what you say about sending over two girls selected from the permanent Civil Service. These girls should come here provided with adequate living allowances fixed with a view to the extraordinary living conditions prevailing in this country. Otherwise we shall have trouble from the outset.

Yours sincerely,

W. H. Burgess

OTTAWA, 28th February, 1945.

Dear Mr. Cadieux:

We have, to-day, forwarded to the High Commissioner's Office, London, for deposit with the Brussels account in the Bank of Montreal, ^{London} two allowance cheques to cover the balance of allowances due you on account of the increased allowance rates in London and in Brussels, for which details are as follows:-

Cheque for L64-17-6 covers the increased Living and Representation allowances due you from 1st October, 1944, to 31st January, 1945, at $1620 in lieu of $750 per annum. In this connection may I draw your attention to the fact that this higher rate precludes the payment of any local Cost of Living Bonus and that the High Commissioner's Office, London, have been asked to advise you of the amount of local Bonus which you will have to refund to them covering the period 1st October, 1944, to 31st January, 1945, inclusive.

Cheque for L4-13-3 covers the balance of Living and Representation allowance due you for February at the Brussels rate for Third Secretaries which is $1000 while the Living and Representation allowance you received in London was $750 per annum.

I might state that a further cheque will be going forward shortly to cover the balance of allowances due you since you have been given the local rank of Second Secretary. The rates for such will be $1000 for Living and Representation allowance and $750 House allowance in lieu of a total of $1500 as Third Secretary.

In order to provide assistance for Mr. Turgeon, it has been decided that you should proceed to Brussels as quickly as possible. I regret that you have not been able to have a longer tour of duty in England but feel this move essential.

2. It will be necessary for you to postpone planned leave in Canada but I hope opportunity will arise following McGreer's transfer to Brussels. Ends.

Your letter of December 4th, 1944, is indeed very encouraging and I am most grateful for the news that some measure of relief may be forthcoming.

You may be sure that I shall not fail to bring up again in a month or two the matter of leave in Canada.

This will bring you Christmas greetings and my sincere wishes for a very happy New Year.

Dear Mr. Matthews,

Thank you very much for your letter of December 6th returning to me the documents from the Inspector of Income Tax in Ottawa. As I have already completed forms for 1943 it did not occur to me that the Income Tax people would be after me again.

I am sending these various documents to my father in Montreal who completed the forms for me and I suppose that the explanation for all this correspondence will perhaps be that instead of 5 Marlborough, Ottawa, my address was given on the forms as in c/o. Canada House, London, or 10782 St. Lawrence, Montreal.

Yours sincerely,

Ottawa, 6th December, 1944.

Dear Mr. Cadieux:

I have received your letter of November 30th returning to me the letter you had received from the Inspector of Income Tax in Ottawa.

You are perfectly correct in your assumption that you will not be taxable on the basis of your income from the Department during the current year since the amount of salary paid to you prior to your departure is below the exemption limit.

The form which you sent to me does not, however, refer to your 1944 income but to the return that you are required to make of the income received by you during 1943, which of course is subject to tax and which must be covered by the regular income tax return.

I am, therefore, sending back to you the letter you received from the Income Tax authorities and the Income Tax Return forms.

Ottawa, December 4th, 1944.

Dear Marcel,

I have your letter of November 28th and I can give you some measure of assurance on the points you raise. A revision of allowance scales abroad has been under way for some time, and the Dominion Bureau of Statistics is now working on the information which has been accumulated. While I cannot anticipate the exact nature of their recommendations, I understand that the statistical data quite clearly establish that the allowance scales in London, especially for those in junior posts, do not take account of the present cost of living. I do not know when the matter will be ready for submission to Treasury Board, but it should not be delayed for more than a few weeks and I feel reasonably sure that action will then be taken towards relieving the very real difficulties to which you refer.

As for your leave, I should think that April would be a suitable time to come, but I should not like to say anything which could be regarded as a commitment so far in advance. You might bring the matter up again in a month or two.

If you go to Oxford again, you might send a line to my sister-in-law, Mrs. E.M. Wrong, 13 Museum Road. I wrote to her about you when you first went to London, and I thought that I had given you a letter of introduction to her, but in this I seem to be mistaken.

OFFICE OF THE

Dear Mr. Wrong,

I am grateful for your letter of November 23rd, 1944.

Although in my previous letter I stated the reasons why I felt there might be some advantage in my staying here a while, there remains to be discussed the matter of remuneration and conditions of living.

It will be agreed that in order to carry out one's work efficiently in London, an adequate income is an essential condition. For the past ten months, I must confess that loyalty to the Service has been, on more than one occasion, my only incentive to carry on. Although I took great care to budget my income carefully, I have to say that my present salary and allowances are not sufficient to enable me to live decently, nor with the relative degree of social grace that may be expected of one of Canada's representatives. I take the liberty of mentioning here that my predecessor, Mr. George Ignatieff, was receiving the salary and allowances of "acting Second Secretary".

Your ready acquiescence to my request for leave in Canada is very much appreciated indeed. The High Commissioner, whom I informed of your concurrence, stated that he was delighted, and that leave could probably be arranged for early next Spring. Would you be agreeable to authorising my leave for the beginning of April?

I regret that it has not yet been possible for me to meet your relatives in Oxford. I shall be more than pleased to receive from you some indication as to where I may get in touch with them.

Yours very sincerely,

18th October, 1944.

Dear Mr. Matthews,

With reference to your communication of the 15th September last to Mr. Massey enclosing letters for the staff regarding the Superannuation Act, I am returning herewith the duplicate copies signed by the staff concerned, as desired. As both Hibbert and Rott are serving in the Army abroad I do not know if their acknowledgments will be received.

I understand Mr. Cadieux has forwarded his direct to you, and the one for Mr. Ritchie has not yet been delivered owing to his absence in Canada.

I also attach election forms duly completed by Miss McLoughlin, Miss Payter and Mrs. Spawforth. In the cases of Miss Payter and Mrs. Spawforth, before deciding definitely to pay for their past service, they wish to know if it will be in order for them to pay part of the arrears in a lump sum and the balance in instalments. I have told them no doubt this could be arranged, but I should like to have your confirmation on this point. Miss McLoughlin is going to pay her arrears in one sum and the necessary forms will be forwarded in due course.

In order to avoid possible difficulties which might arise owing to the Finance Control Regulations for the staff to transfer these funds, would it be in order for me to pay the amounts to the credit of the Receiver General's account in London?

Yours sincerely,

PERSONAL AND CONFIDENTIAL

MEMORANDUM FOR MR. MATTHEWS

Major Benoit, who has just come back from London, mentioned to me privately that he was concerned over the conditions in which Cadieux was living. Everyone is agreed that Cadieux is doing very good work and he is not a person who complains. Benoit said that he was sharing a single room with a Naval officer and was reluctant to accept what hospitality was offered to him because of his inability to return it. He thought his total remuneration amounted to £61 a month which went a very short distance in London in present conditions. He is a retiring young man and I was concerned when he went to London about the way in which he would be able to arrange his life outside office hours, partly because of his handicap as the sole French-Canadian at Canada House and partly because of his complete lack of experience abroad. He has done remarkably well in the office but Benoit went so far as to say that he was miserable.

I wonder if the time has come when we could make him an acting Second Secretary and give him the benefit of larger allowances. It may be that in any case we should look at the London allowances at once. Hudd will probably have something to say when he gets here on his trip.

P.S. Ignatiff got a cost of living bonus, for a time, he tells me.

Ottawa, 10th April, 1944.

Personal

Dear Mr. Cadieux:

I was sorry to hear by your letter of March 18th that you had not yet received your trunks which were forwarded by freight in error. We will do our best to see that the same mistake does not occur when we send other people on their way to England.

The difficulties that you say you are experiencing as a result of the high cost of living in London are being experienced by our staff in almost all of our offices abroad owing to the world-wide increase of prices. I can assure you that this is not a matter that has been lost sight of here and we hope shortly to be able to review scales of allowances at all posts. Undoubtedly, however, from your experience in Ottawa you realize that progress can only be made slowly in these matters. But I want you to know that the difficulties that everyone abroad is facing are not being forgotten.

I hope that you are finding life in London pleasant if somewhat exciting and that everything is going well.

Yours truly,

Marcel Cadieux, Esquire,
Office of the High Commissioner for Canada,
London, England.

London, March 18th, 1964

Dear Mr. Matthews

Your letter of February 4th warned me that since my personal effects had been sent by freight instead of by express, I might experience some delay in receiving them. That was a prophetic warning. Nothing has reached me yet and I have to live on the forty pounds of clothing I was allowed to bring by plane.

This is not a complaint since you are not responsible but the results of the mistakes are so embarrassing (and incidentally so costly) to me that it would perhaps be in order to find out exactly how this happened and to warn Guy Tombs Limited that someone in the U.K. thinks their name is much.

you will receive from my father to whom I have referred it for completion income tax return for the year 1943: all my receipts are in Montreal and he alone can straighten the thing up for me.

I don't suppose I will have any success given our respective positions in the service but I still feel like suggesting that salaries and allowances for personnel serving abroad should be related to the cost of living in the country where they are posted and adjusted at intervals in accordance with the fluctuations of that cost of living.

Conditions being what they are now in London. I can assure you that even though I have an allowance and pay no taxes(!) I am much worse off than I was in Ottawa. But of course, External being a policy making department such details are probably too too shocking for the refined gentlemen who are engrossed with shaping the destiny of the world.

MEMORANDUM FOR MR. MATTHEWS:

Re: Salary and bonus payments for those transferred to London.

I find upon checking that the estimates for London-balances not required-that we have over $14,000 to spare covering salaries, bonuses and allowances. As Mr. Bell's cheques for February and March plus a part of January will run approximately to $800-salary of $210 per month, allowance at $96.25 per month, we should have more than enough money in Vote to cover.

We may not cover by Pay Certificates under the London Vote until we have the authorization of the Civil Service Commission for Cadieux and Bell, also we shall not pay Scott from the War Appropriation Representation Abroad-London until the Order in Council has been passed authorizing both his salary and allowances as under the London office. Mr. Coleman is dubious as to whether we will have enough under "War" to cover Scott-approximately $1400. If we have not, would you prefer us to over-charge the Vote and add a supplementary later, or to charge Scott to the Vote for Representation Abroad, London, we shall have ample money for this Vote.

The salaries for Cadieux, Ignatieff are $210 and $220 respectively. Cadieux's allowances will be at a lower rate than Ignatieff's which was paid to him under the local rank of 2nd Secretary.

LONDON, January 6th, 1944.

No. 48, Following for Stone from Ignatieff, Begins:

Regret it is impossible for me to provide accommodation for Cadieux as I have been living with my brother and his family. However, arrangements will be made by Canada House for temporary accommodation for Scott, Cadieux and Bell as soon as firm date of their arrival is notified by cable. When they have had an opportunity of looking for suitable quarters the office will help to find something more permanent, best suited to their individual requirements. Incidentally I should be glad of an opportunity to take over any accommodation vacated in Ottawa as a result of these transfers.

High Commissioner has no official advice so far regarding the new appointments.

Re: Mr. Marcel Cadieux

Dear Sir:

Mr. Cadieux was examined at this office this morning. He had his appendix removed some eight weeks ago and the external scar is just slightly tender still. I find he has a moderate elevation of blood pressure, although, I did not feel it necessary to comment on this. I suppose, therefore, he has a potential arterial hypertension, but it likely would be some years before any worsening as to this takes place.

I would believe that he could take up duties in England.

if you regard him as suitable, bearing in mind that his duties would bring him into contact with would combine with private secretarial duties. I note that you suggest possibility of sending both

3. You have had an excellent team in London, compact and companionable, and I have hesitated to suggest any substitutions in it. In view of the foregoing considerations, however, I should, with your concurrence, like to make the following recommendations to the Prime Minister:

(d) Transfer Marcel Cadieux, Third Secretary, from the Department to London. Wrong and Stone, with whom he has worked very closely, think highly of him and believe you would like him as your immediate assistant.

(e) As alternative to (d) or additionally, we could send Andrew Bell, Third Secretary, to London. Bell, who is the son of Mrs. Mackintosh Bell, has been in the Legal Division of the Department for the past year and is very well recommended by Read. Bell and Cadieux are both single, would appreciate and benefit from service nearer the front before the war ends, and would be very useful additions to the strength of Canada House staff. As we have I think already agreed, it would be desirable to have a French Canadian on your staff.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRIME MINISTER

I am attaching, for your signature, Recommendations to Council setting up the New York Consulate General and authorizing Canadian diplomatic and consular representatives to exercise the functions in relation to Canadian interests outside of Canada which are now performed by British consular and diplomatic officers.

The appointing Minute names Hugh Scully as Consul General, D.S. Cole, the present Senior Trade Commissioner, and Miss McCloskey as Consuls and Ausman, Assistant Trade Commissioner, as Vice Consul. It does not include a French Canadian member on the staff, but I have been trying desperately to find a suitable person. I had thought of assigning Cadieux from the Department, and the attached statement, which should be given in the House tomorrow, includes Cadieux as Vice Consul. At the moment he is not available for transfer from the Department, but in the circumstances it might be advisable to name him now to the Consulate General Staff in the expectation that he could be sent down in two or three months. I should be grateful if these Orders-in-Council could be signed today.

* I have been talking to Power this morning about assigning a returned French flying officer to New York.

Mr. Cadieux:

I spoke to Mr. Robertson this morning and he has informed me that the period that you and Mr. Tremblay were away from office from July 13th, was considered Statutory Leave.

By such arrangement you have still 5 days of Statutory Leave for the year 1942-43.

NOTE.—Eligibility will not be continued unless in the opinion of the Commission the reasons are good and sufficient. Refusal of a relief position or short period employment, however, does not affect eligibility for a position of a continuous nature until list has lapsed.

Avis:— L'éligibilité sera maintenue si, dans l'opinion de la Commission, les raisons sont bonnes et suffisantes. Le refus d'un emploi à titre de remplaçant ou d'un emploi de courte durée ne nuit pas à l'éligibilité pour un emploi de nature continue tant que la liste est en vigueur.

Civil Service Act, Sec. 24. (1) The deputy head may at any time before the expiration of six months reject any person assigned or appointed to any position under his control or direction, or he may extend the period of probation, within which such person may be rejected for another six months; and the cause of rejection, or the reason for extending the period of probation shall be reported by the deputy head to the Commission.

(2) Where a person is rejected the Commission shall thereupon select another person to take the place of the one rejected.

(3) The Commission shall, after investigation, decide whether the name of a rejected person shall be struck off the list as unfit for the service generally or whether he shall be allowed a trial in some other position for which he may be eligible.

Sec. 25. After a person has served in a position for the probationary term of six or twelve months, as the case may be, he shall be deemed to be appointed to such position.

Sec. 43. (1) Every deputy head, officer, clerk and employee hereafter appointed to any permanent position, before any salary is paid him shall take and subscribe the oath of allegiance and also the oath contained in schedule A to this Act, or such other oath as is provided by any other Act, in that behalf.

(4) In the case of persons residing or coming to reside at the City of Ottawa, the oaths shall be taken and subscribed before the Clerk of the Privy Council.

(5) In other cases the oaths may be taken and subscribed before a Justice of the peace or other proper authority, who shall forward the same to the Clerk of the Privy Council.

Sec. 54. An employee holding a permanent position that is to be abolished, or which is no longer required, shall be laid off and his salary discontinued but his name shall be placed, in the order provided by the regulations of the Commission, on the eligible list for the class position from which he was laid off or for any other position for which he may have qualified (1919, 2 Sess., c. 10)

Loi du service civil, article 24. Le sous-ministre peut, en tout temps avant l'expiration de six mois, renvoyer toute personne assignée ou nommée à un emploi sous sa surveillance ou direction, ou il peut prolonger de six autres mois la période de stage pendant laquelle cette personne peut être renvoyée; et le sous-ministre doit rapporter à la Commission la cause du renvoi ou la raison pour laquelle la période de stage est prolongée.

(2) Quand une personne est renvoyée, la Commission peut alors choisir une autre personne pour remplacer celle qui est renvoyée.

(3) La Commission doit, après enquête, décider si le nom d'une personne renvoyée doit être rayé de la liste comme impropre au service en général, ou si elle peut être mise à l'essai pour toute autre charge à laquelle elle peut être éligible.

25. Après qu'une personne a accompli un stage de six ou douze mois, selon le cas, elle est censée être nommée à cet emploi.

43. Avant de toucher un traitement, tout sous-ministre, fonctionnaire, commis et employé à titre permanent dans le civil doit prêter et souscrire le serment d'allégeance ainsi que le serment contenu en l'annexe A de la présente loi, ou tel autre serment prescrit par quelque autre loi, à cet égard.

(4) A l'égard des personnes demeurant ou appelées à demeurer en la cité d'Ottawa, les serments doivent être prêtés et souscrits devant le Greffier du Conseil privé.

(5) Dans les autres cas, les serments peuvent être prêtés et souscrits devant un juge de paix ou devant quelque autre autorité compétente, qui doit les transmettre au greffier du Conseil privé.

54. Un employé exerçant un emploi permanent qui doit être aboli, ou dont la nécessité a cessé, doit être mis en disponibilité et son traitement discontinué, mais son nom doit être placé, dans l'ordre établi par les règlements de la Commission, sur la liste des personnes éligibles à la classe d'emplois dont il a été démis temporairement ou à tout autre emploi pour lequel il peut avoir été reconnu apte à remplir.

MEMORANDUM

Re Third Secretaries

Mr. Sicotte/

Mr. Sicotte reported to the Department this morning, and I advised him that he was likely to be sent to Buenos Aires in 7 or 8 weeks. I advised him that, meanwhile, he would have to become conversant with the method of coding and decoding, passport matters and such other matters as time would permit him to learn before he leaves. He has been in touch with Mr. Kirkwood, who will be in a position to suggest certain lines of work before leaving for Buenos Aires. I also arranged with Mr. Pearson that if Mr. Sicotte becomes available at any time for other work he might report to Mr. Pearson, who will be in a position to give him certain matters to deal with.

✓ Mr. Cadieux.

Mr. Cadieux reported to the Department this afternoon, and I advised him that he would have to familiarize himself first with the method of coding and decoding, the filing system, etc., and that, as Mr. Ford was leaving shortly, he might, for the time being, take his place and deal with the matters thus far assigned to him. Mr. Cadieux, therefore, and Mr. Beaulieu will be collaborating with Mr. MacDonald and me.

Mr. Baldwin.

After the receipt of Mr. Keenleyside's telegram to the effect that Mr. Baldwin would not accept the appointment of Third Secretary, it was decided by the Personnel Board that Mr. Ford would go to Rio, and that I should advise him to that effect. I informed Mr. Ford of this decision in order that the necessary arrangements for his departure with Mr. Desy might be made.

Mr. Dumas.

Mr. Dumas called me up during the luncheon hour to say that, after seeing Mr. Desy, he thought he might come up to Ottawa. It was finally arranged, through Mr. Desy, that Mr. Dumas might come to Ottawa towards the beginning of next week. He was informed, however, that the necessary arrangements for his trip were being made.

Ottawa, 16th August, 1941.

Dear Madam:

Your File No. M 87849

May I refer to our letter of the 2nd August, with regard to the appointment of Third Secretaries to the staff of the Department of External Affairs. What is desired is the temporary appointment of Messrs. A. R. Menzies, Marcel Cadieux and I. M. MacKeigan as Third Secretaries.

With regard to Mr. E. H. Norman, we have to request that he be appointed temporarily as a full Third Secretary at $2520 from the 1st July, 1941. We shall write you at a later date with regard to his permanent appointment, but I would ask you to take no action on such appointment for the moment.

Yours very truly,

K. A. McCloskey, Accountant.

Final
Dear Mr. Cadieux,

...
As you know, Appraisal Review Committees meet every February to examine officers' performance over the preceding year and in the case of Foreign Service Officers to take the final overall performance pay decision. The FS-5's were also reviewed for this purpose and I am enclosing herewith the results in your case as recorded on the regular form designed for that purpose.

The categories used as the basis of performance pay throughout the FS system vary of course in their financial meaningfulness, depending largely on the size of the various ranges. At the FS-5 level the relatively short range - which, as you know, is set unilaterally by Treasury Board - would not normally permit the full application of the system after the first year or two. However, if the ranges themselves are raised by the Treasury Board, performance pay awards can be made, at least to some degree. The extent of such awards in terms of maximum percentages will be decided in due course, and officers informed accordingly.

At all events, even if the tangible benefits are not as important as one would hope, I want to take this opportunity to let you know of the high regard we have for you and to add my own word of thanks for your contribution, which has been an important one.

Yours sincerely,

A. E. RITCHIE

Mr. Blouin:

We discussed the matter of Mr. Tremblay's rank in connection with Mr. Marcel Cadieux' appraisal. You will remember that according to the file Mr. Tremblay is apparently an SX-4 while in his present position. In that capacity he should be able to sign Mr. Collins' report.

Over and beyond that I think that in practical terms a signature becomes in effect "illegal" when you use it for something. In this case we would not be using it for promotion purposes and hence there is no appeal. We would be using it for performance pay purposes but there is no appeal there.

From the point of view of departmental management and the hierarchy, I personally think Mr. Tremblay, as Associate Under-Secretary, should be asked to sign. The only alternative would be for Mr. Ritchie to do it, but he is supposed to chair the Appraisal Review Committee so this wouldn't be any better. I'm sure Mr. Ritchie has seen the report.

My conclusion: If Mr. Tremblay felt able to do it, I suggest we leave it as is.

DISTRIBUTION

On taking up his assignment in Washington, Mr. Cadieux reverts to his substantive level in the Foreign Service Officer group which is level 9. However, from July 2, 1960 to May 6, 1964, during his tenure of office as Deputy Under-Secretary, Mr. Cadieux was in receipt of acting pay in the F.S.O. 10 range.

2. As you are aware, career officers at the senior levels are promoted on the recommendation of the Senior Promotion Board; given the special circumstances surrounding the present deployment and release exercises, the next Board will probably not meet for a few weeks. As a transitional measure, and assuming that you agree to Mr. Cadieux receiving pay at the establishment level of his position in Washington, would you authorize us to pay him acting pay in the F.S.O. 10 range with effect from January 31, 1970. This procedure is provided for in Section 83 of the Public Service Terms and Conditions of Employment Regulations.

When I was speaking this morning to Ed Ritchie, I informed him of paragraph 1 of Paul Tremblay's telegram, attached.

2. I gather from Mr. Ritchie that he is thinking in terms of leaving Washington and coming here at some time between January 20 and the end of that month. I mentioned to him that I believed you had somewhat earlier dates in mind.

3. I also mentioned to Ed your interest in going to Washington perhaps around November 21 or 22. He or Mrs. Ritchie will shortly be in touch -- I got the impression that that particular week-end may be difficult for them. Then perhaps a later one/le

4. In the meantime, I am delaying a request to National Defence for an aircraft, although I am told that regular flights go on Wednesdays (a Dakota) and Mondays (a Falcon).

MEMORANDUM FOR MR. TOVELL

Senior Diplomatic Appointments

I attach the original of the memorandum dated October 20 concerning the appointment of Mr. Cadieux as Canadian Ambassador in Washington and Mr. Ritchie as his successor as Under-Secretary of State for External Affairs. You will see that the Minister has indicated that Cabinet agreed today to these appointments. You will also note that the Minister did not raise the question of Mr. Tremblay's appointment as Associate Under-Secretary, and I suggest that we will have to prepare a further memorandum on this score, asking him to raise it in Cabinet at an early opportunity since I understood it was the Prime Minister's intention to deal with all three appointments at the same time. In the meantime I think we can now proceed at once to obtain The Queen's informal approval and the agrément of the United States Government to Mr. Cadieux' appointment.

NOTE. I spoke to Mr. Berlin & telephone to ask him to take action on appointment for Mr. Cadieux. Added no memo with a note to ensure meeting.

John Starnes.

*On matter of Mr. Tremblay's appointment, Mr. Warner told me this a.m. (Oct 22) that Minister does not think it necessary to take appointment to Cabinet, that PM's agreement is sufficient. He should therefore announce at a later date, close to his assumption of duties as Ambassador USSEA. I suggested to Mr. Warner that USSEA should be well advised to "cover him" with John Carson about his plan to announce (but not "too soon") as A&EX might claim a right to be told, it not committed. It was near

Senior Diplomatic Appointments

You may wish to seek early Cabinet approval for my appointment as Canadian Ambassador to the United States, in succession to Mr. A.E. Ritchie whose appointment as Under-Secretary of State for External Affairs recently was approved by the Prime Minister. At the same time you may wish to seek approval of Mr. Tremblay's appointment as Associate Under-Secretary of State for External Affairs. I understand that you and the Prime Minister agreed that these appointments should be announced shortly. Mr. Ritchie's appointment and mine would become effective during the month of January 1970 and that of Mr. Tremblay in late February or March 1970. As soon as we have Cabinet approval we shall, of course, have to obtain The Queen's informal approval for my appointment and the agrément of the United States Government, which it should be possible to arrange quite quickly. Biographical notes are attached.

USSEA
Cabinet agreed today on your appointment as Ambassador to Washington and Ritchie as USSEA.
We did not deal with Tremblay, although
I do not anticipate any difficulty

Un diplomate populaire

M. Marcel Cadieux est un diplomate canadien-français dont la popularité ne cesse de croître aux Nations-Unies. On en a eu encore une preuve tout dernièrement alors que le Canada décidait, pour la première fois, de présenter comme candidat à un poste de la Commission de droit international de l'O.N.U. nul autre que notre sous-ministre suppléant aux Affaires extérieures: M. Marcel Cadieux. Or savez-vous que ce dernier a décroché plus de votes que les candidats de pays aussi puissants que la Grande-Bretagne et la France? Fait significatif qui démontre bien la popularité du Canada dans le concert des nations.

Le Monsieur m'a dit...

M. Marcel Cadieux, sous-ministre suppléant aux Affaires extérieures, à Ottawa, m'assure qu'il n'a aucune objection, à ce qu'on lui cherche un successeur (C. de C. il, deg.), mais qu'il croit plus charitable d'avertir le successeur éventuel qu'il lui faudra attendre un certain nombre d'années avant de lui prendre sa place.

M. Cadieux, dont je laissais prévoir sans raison valable la retraite, conserve son poste de sous-ministre suppléant même s'il est nommé à la Commission internationale du Droit, fonctions qui lui feront passer deux mois par année à Genève ou ailleurs, pendant cinq ans.

M. Cadieux a été heureux de me donner d'excellentes nouvelles de sa santé, et de me promettre qu'il prendra sa retraite à 65 ans, comme tout le monde, tout en s'excusant poliment du fait qu'étant encore dans la quarantaine, ne sera pas pour tout de suite, certain-ement.

DAMAS. — La Syrie a voté "à droite". Les résultats presque complets de l'élection générale tenue vendredi et samedi (155 sièges sur 172) indiquent en effet que dans l'ensemble les candidats de tendance conservatrice ou traditionaliste arrivent largement en première place, avec 86 sièges. Les indépendants, les chefs coutumiers et les candidats sans tendance reconnue ont enlevé 53 sièges cependant que les candidats de la gauche modérée remportent 16 sièges.

Les anciennes formations politiques (qui ne contestaient ouvertement qu'une partie des 172 sièges), c'est le parti chaabî, qui a fait la meilleure figure: ce parti de droite modéré a en effet obtenu 25 sièges. Un petit groupe de droite, nationaliste, a remporté 15 sièges et les conservateurs sans affiliation précise ont obtenu 37 sièges. Les observateurs soulignent aussi la réapparition du mouvement des "Frères musulmans", qui a rapporté sept sièges.

E.-U. : contrôle de l'espace par l'ONU

NATIONS UNIES — Les Etats-Unis vont présenter à l'Assemblée générale des Nations Unies une résolution accordant à l'organisme mondial des pouvoirs accrus sur le contrôle de l'espace.

La résolution comprendrait une convention internationale sous le contrôle des Nations Unies qui empêcherait tout pays de se proclamer propriétaire de l'espace ou d'une partie de l'espace, de sorte que la liberté des explorations serait acquise à tous les pays. D'après la résolution, le secrétaire U Thant devra tenir un registre de tous les lancements de véhicules spatiaux. Les nations membres ainsi que l'organisation météorologique du monde seraient invitées à utiliser les satellites pour leurs observations. On croit que le sort de la résolution se trouve entre les mains des Etats-Unis et de l'URSS. Si les deux pays se mettent d'accord, la résolution sera certainement endossée par les autres pays membres.

Document divulgué en O'Brien était arrivé à New-York le mois dernier pour consultations, laissant à Elisabethville pour diriger la mission ONU, son adjoint G. I. Smith (qui a d'ailleurs été passé à tabac mardi dernier par des soldats katangais).

Londres et Paris dénoncées

Les journalistes ont été dans l'impossibilité d'obtenir au cours de la fin de semaine une déclaration du diplomate irlandais mais celui-ci a fait au cours d'une longue conversation téléphonique avec Dublin, une déclaration dans laquelle il a dit avoir démissionné "afin de retrouver ma liberté de parole et d'action". Il a en même temps accusé les gouvernements britannique et français d'avoir adopté une attitude déloyale envers les activités de l'ONU au Congo. Il a notamment affirmé que ces deux gouvernements ont tout fait pour empêcher l'application effective de la résolution adoptée le 21 février dernier par le Conseil de sécurité et ordonnant aux représentants de l'ONU d'expulser du Katanga les "mercenaires" étrangers et les conseillers militaires étrangers, ainsi que les conseillers politiques étrangers.

Stevenson env quitter le cabinet de Kennedy

WASHINGTON — M. Adlai Stevenson s'est entretenu hier, avec le président Kennedy, de l'intention qu'il aurait de quitter le cabinet pour se présenter candidat démocrate lors de la prochaine élection sénatoriale dans l'Illinois, en 1962.

M. Stevenson a déclaré qu'il avait jusqu'au premier janvier pour prendre une décision finale et résigner ses fonctions d'ambassadeur américain aux Nations Unies. M. Stevenson, qui a rang de ministre dans le cabinet Kennedy, ferait alors la lutte au sénateur Everett Dirksen qui sollicite un troisième mandat.

Selon les amis de M. Stevenson, il semble que celui-ci trouve que le rôle qu'on lui a confié aux Nations Unies est trop limité et ne lui permet pas de faire valoir suffisamment ses opinions personnelles, surtout en

Marcel Cadieux reçoit un témoignage éclatant

Par Clément Brown

OTTAWA. — Discret et efficace, M. Marcel Cadieux est, ministre des affaires extérieures, le fonctionnaire numéro deux. Et même un peu plus. Il vient immédiatement après le "Norman Robertson", sous-ministre, et, protocolairement, il est même "à pied" que lui et porte le titre de sous-ministre "pléin". Il est "deputy under-secretary" et se place au-dessus des "assistant undersecretaries". La traduction française de son titre n'est pas facile parce que M. Cadieux n'est pas le sous-ministre en titre mais plus que son subordonné, sans être son associé. Il n'y a que les diplomates pour inventer de telles subtilités.

M. Cadieux vient d'être élu membre de la Commission du droit international par l'Assemblée générale des Nations Unies. Fait insigne, M. Cadieux a reçu l'appui de 89 pays sur un total de 103. Il a reçu deux votes de plus que le délégué britannique, sir Humphrey Waldo. Tous les correspondants à l'ONU ont signalé l'événement comme étant de caractère exceptionnel.

Pour ce qui est de sa carrière au ministère, M. Cadieux devrait normalement devenir sous-ministre en titre lorsque le mandat de M. Robertson sera terminé. Dans notre diplomatie, ce mandat est habituellement de trois ans puisque c'est la coutume d'appeler des ambassadeurs à la direction du ministère des affaires extérieures et de les renvoyer ensuite dans des missions diplomatiques. (Ainsi, M. Lester-B. Pearson fut ambassadeur à Washington avant de devenir sous-ministre). Nous n'avons pas de précisions sur les prochains mouvements diplomatiques et sur les permutations envisagées à la direction des affaires extérieures mais ils devraient se faire dans un avenir pas trop lointain.

Nous n'avons jamais reçu de confidences et n'en avons d'ailleurs jamais sollicité de la part de M. Cadieux sur son rôle exact dans l'administration des affaires extérieures. Nous savons par des renseignements épars, qu'il se préoccupe au plus haut point de maintenir des Canadiens français dans toutes les missions où la chose est possible. Le problème n'est pas facile. Bien que notre situation numérique soit assez favorable, puisqu'on compte environ 25 à 30 pour cent de Canadiens français aux affaires extérieures, en général nos diplomates sont entrés assez tard dans les cadres. Le recrutement n'est d'ailleurs pas aisé, devant l'absence de facultés spécialisées en diplomatie dans nos universités. L'intérêt pour la politique internationale est relativement récent dans notre milieu.

Tschombé cherche un accord avec le gouvernement central du Congo

PARIS. — Le président Moïse Tschombé, du Katanga, est arrivé hier à Paris par avion, venant de Brazzaville, et a aussitôt quitté l'aéroport en voiture sous une forte escorte de police. Les journalistes et les photographes ont été tenus à bonne distance par les agents : le président avait demandé lui-même de n'être pas en contact avec la presse en affirmant qu'il s'agit d'un voyage de caractère strictement personnel. A un correspondant de Reuter qui se trouvait à bord du long-courrier Brazza-Paris, le président aurait déclaré qu'il se rendait voir son fils actuellement hospitalisé à Paris. Il a ajouté qu'il passera au moins vingt-quatre heures, peut-être davantage, à Paris.

BRAZZAVILLE. — Le président Tschombé est parti hier matin pour Paris après avoir eu pendant deux jours, dans la capitale du Congo ex-français, des entretiens secrets sur les moyens d'en arriver à une entente avec le gouvernement central et de mettre ainsi fin une fois pour toutes à l'impasse qui subsiste depuis plus d'un an.

Selon des sources habituellement dignes de foi, le président Tschombé après avoir conféré avec le président Fulbert You-lou, se serait entretenu avec des représentants du gouvernement central de Léopoldville. Certains observateurs croient que Tschombé tente d'amener le président Youlou à servir d'intermédiaire entre lui et le premier ministre Adoula et à convaincre ce dernier d'accepter de participer à une conférence "en terrain neutre", c'est-à-dire en France ou en Suisse. Depuis son arrestation par les hommes de Léopoldville en avril, au cours de la conférence de Coquilhatville et sa détention pendant plusieurs semaines, Tschombé refuse de rencontrer les dirigeants congolais ailleurs qu'en territoire neutre.

Renseignements contradictoires

Selon d'autres sources, Tschombé aurait invité le premier ministre Adoula à venir le rencontrer à Brazzaville ou à conférer sur un bateau au milieu du fleuve Congo. Mais le chef du gouvernement de Léopoldville aurait catégoriquement rejeté cette invitation, transmise par le président Youlou, en déclarant que Tschombé n'avait qu'à venir le rencontrer dans la capitale du Congo. Adoula aurait proposé que Tschombé se fasse accompagner de deux ministres du Congo-Brazzaville. Par la suite, cependant, le gouvernement Adoula aurait accepté d'envoyer à Brazzaville deux émissaires secrets (hauts fonctionnaires ou ministres) pour amorcer les pourparlers.

Enfin, des rumeurs veulent que Tschombé attende quelques jours à Paris la suite de cette première rencontre. Si le gouvernement Adoula acceptait de participer à une conférence en territoire neutre, Tschombé renoncerait alors à se rendre à Rio où il devait assister à la conférence du Réarmement moral.

Selon d'autres sources enfin, ce ne sont pas deux ministres du gouvernement Adoula

C. O'BRIEN DEMISSIONNE ET DENONCE

L'ancien représentant de l'ONU au Katanga accuse Londres et Paris de sabotage de l'oeuvre des N. Unies NATIONS UNIES, N.-Y. — Coup de théâtre, samedi. Le diplomate irlandais Connor O'Brien, jusqu'à récemment chef de la mission de l'Organisation des Nations Unies au Katanga, a quitté le service diplomatique de son pays et a accusé la Grande-Bretagne et la France d'avoir torpillé systématiquement son activité comme haut fonctionnaire de l'ONU.

Vendredi dernier, le diplomate irlandais était relevé, à sa demande, de son poste de représentant supérieur de l'ONU au Katanga en invoquant le fait que son gouvernement le rappelait à Dublin. (Il avait été prêté à l'ONU par l'Irlande en mai dernier et envoyé au Katanga en juillet). Mais dès le lendemain, O'Brien décidait d'abandonner la carrière diplomatique, où il a déjà passé dix-neuf ans. Il a adressé une lettre en ce sens au ministre irlandais des affaires étrangères, Frank Aiken, qui se trouve actuellement à New-York pour diriger la délégation irlandaise à l'Assemblée générale des Nations Unies.

O'Brien était arrivé à New-York le mois dernier pour consultations, laissant à Elisabethville pour diriger la mission

LA HAVANE. — Cuba aura désormais un nouveau parti politique, une grande formation rassemblant tous les éléments de la nation, un parti unique nommé "Parti uni de la révolution socialiste". L'URSS menace de reprendre les explosions

LONDRES. — "Si les puissances occidentales continuent à faire des expériences nucléaires, y compris des expériences souterraines, l'URSS se verra forcée, pour sa sécurité, de procéder aux expériences nucléaires qu'elle juge indispensables à sa défense".

Tel est le texte d'un communiqué publié hier par l'agence Tass.

Les observateurs prévoient que l'URSS va reprendre ses essais nucléaires puisque les Etats-Unis ont procédé hier à des essais thermo-nucléaires de faible portée, selon la Commission américaine de l'énergie atomique.

De son côté, le sénateur démocrate de la Caroline du sud, M. Strom Thurmond a déclaré que ce serait une catastrophe si le gouvernement américain remettait aux Nations Unies le contrôle des armes nucléaires. Le peuple américain, a-t-il affirmé devant la Légion américaine, ne devrait pas accepter une telle soumission.

Stevenson envisage de quitter le cabinet de Kennedy

WASHINGTON — M. Adlai Stevenson s'est entretenu hier, avec le président Kennedy, de l'intention qu'il aurait de quitter le cabinet pour se présenter candidat démocrate lors de la prochaine élection sénatoriale dans l'Illinois, en 1962.

M. Stevenson a déclaré qu'il avait jusqu'au premier janvier pour prendre une décision finale et résigner ses fonctions d'ambassadeur américain aux Nations Unies. M. Voilà de qu'a annoncé samedi soir le premier ministre Fidel Castro au cours d'une allocution télévisée qui a duré plus de cinq heures, dans laquelle il a fait pour la première fois, profession officielle de "foi marxiste-léniniste" et a annoncé qu'il allait engager, avec le nouveau parti, Cuba sur la voie du socialisme intégral, ajoutant que le monde entier "est sur la route du communisme".

"Dictature du prolétariat"

Jamais encore, le premier ministre cubain n'avait exprimé aussi ouvertement et avec une telle ferveur ses convictions marxistes ni lié aussi étroitement l'avenir de son pays à celui du camp socialiste. Il a déclaré que le nouveau parti uni de la révolution sera l'unique formation politique et aura pour rôle principal de conduire Cuba, par la voie du socialisme, vers "le statut de démocratie populaire ou dictature du prolétariat". Il a précisé que le nouveau parti ne sera pas pour autant un mouvement de masse, car "l'accent sera placé sur la qualité des adhérents et non sur leur quantité." Les membres viendront de la classe ouvrière, du milieu étudiant, du groupe des intellectuels, de la classe agricole et même de la petite bourgeoisie.

Marxiste convaincu

"Le programme du parti s'inspirera du marxisme-léninisme mais en adaptant évidemment celui-ci à nos besoins particuliers... Je suis moi-même un adepte convaincu du marxisme-léninisme et le resterai jusqu'à ma mort" s'est écrié Castro.

Il a prononcé son discours fleuve à l'occasion du cinquième anniversaire de son deuxième débarquement clandestin sur les côtes cubaines, entreprise qui devait marquer le début de la révolution finalement victorieuse, le 1er janvier 1959, de la dictature de Batista. Les rares survivants du groupe de 80 hommes qui accompagnaient Castro le 2 décembre 1956 comprennent notamment son frère, Raul, ministre des armées et

Pierre Laporte lance une vaste offensive contre les ponts à péage

M. Pierre Laporte a invité hier soir, à Chambly, toute la population du comté de Chambly et de la rive sud à entreprendre une nouvelle offensive contre le péage des ponts Jacques-Cartier et Victoria.

"C'est une injustice, pour trois raisons", a affirmé le candidat libéral du comté devant une foule de partisans, à l'école Saint-Joseph de Chambly et en présence de M. Gérard Cournoyer, ministre des transports et communications.

"Une injustice parce qu'à certains endroits on ne paie pas (pont Mercier ou pont de Québec); parce que cela constitue pour les automobilistes de la rive sud une taxe additionnelle d'au moins $50 par année; et parce que c'est un obstacle certain à la venue d'industries nouvelles dans le comté de Chambly.

"Que ce soit un problème fédéral, provincial ou municipal peu importe pour la population de la rive sud qui ne veut plus être victime de semblables problèmes de juridiction!

"Je lance avec vous une nouvelle offensive. Il faudra qu'elle ait des échos dans tout le comté, dans toute la région et qu'elle se continue jusqu'à la victoire complète".

M. Cadieux vient d'être élu membre de la Commission du droit international par l'Assemblée générale des Nations Unies. Fait insigne, M. Cadieux a reçu l'appui de 89 pays sur un total de 103. Il a reçu deux votes de plus que le délégué britannique, sir Humphrey Waldock. Tous les correspondants à l'ONU ont signalé l'événement comme étant de caractère exceptionnel.

Pour ce qui est de sa carrière au ministère, M. Cadieux devrait normalement devenir sous-ministre en titre lorsque le mandat de M. Robertson sera terminé. Dans notre diplomatie, ce mandat est habituellement de trois ans puisque c'est la coutume d'appeler des ambassadeurs à la direction du ministère des affaires extérieures et de les renvoyer ensuite dans des missions diplomatiques. (Ainsi, M. Lester-B. Pearson fut ambassadeur à Washington avant de devenir sous-ministre). Nous n'avons pas de précisions sur les prochains mouvements diplomatiques et sur les spéculations envisagées à la direction des affaires extérieures mais ils devraient se faire dans un avenir pas trop lointain.

Nous n'avons jamais reçu de confidences et n'en avons d'ailleurs jamais sollicité de la part de M. Cadieux sur son rôle exact dans l'administration des affaires extérieures. Nous savons par des renseignements épars, qu'il se préoccupe au plus haut point de maintenir des Canadiens français dans toutes les missions où la chose est possible. Le problème n'est pas facile. Bien que notre situation numérique soit assez favorable, puisqu'on compte environ 25 à 30 pour cent de Canadiens français aux affaires extérieures, en général nos diplomates sont entrés assez tard dans les cadres. Le recrutement n'est d'ailleurs pas aisé, devant l'absence de facultés spécialisées en diplomatie dans nos universités. L'intérêt pour la politique internationale est relativement récent dans notre milieu.

Après ses entretiens avec le président Kennedy, M. Stevenson a refusé de divulguer la teneur des propos échangés, disant simplement qu'il avait parlé avec le président de la possibilité de sa démission.

La Maison Blanche et le secrétariat d'Etat américain, rapporte-t-on par ailleurs, n'ont jamais eu à se plaindre de la manière dont M. Stevenson remplissait ses fonctions aux Nations Unies. Tout au contraire; et on se demande qui pourrait

Le bouclage de Berlin-Est est complété

BERLIN. — Le commandant de la garnison américaine de Berlin a élevé hier une vigoureuse protestation auprès de son collègue soviétique contre les travaux entrepris par les autorités de l'Allemagne orientale afin de consolider les barrières aux sept lieux de passage encore ouverts entre les deux secteurs de Berlin. Des centaines d'ouvriers s'emploient à cette tâche sous la protection d'un millier de miliciens de la RDA.

Le général américain Watson a déclaré que ce renforcement du "mur" de Berlin était un acte illégal et a affirmé que les motifs invoqués pour le justifier "sont tout simplement ridicules". Il a également demandé l'assurance que rien n'entravera le mouvement normal du personnel militaire et civil allié entre les deux secteurs de Berlin.

Dès que les travaux ont commencé, les garnisons alliées ont pris des mesures de précaution. Dans le secteur américain, un détachement a pris position et des mitrailleuses ainsi que des canons anti-tanks ont été mis en place; dans le secteur français, comme dans le britannique, des troupes ont été dépêchées à la ligne de démarcation.

Le gouvernement de la RDA a promis hier que la circulation entre les deux secteurs par les sept lieux de passage encore ouverts ne sera pas entravée mais on a dit que les travaux prendront un certain temps. En réalité, le gouvernement communiste allemand érige à ces sept endroits des murs à l'épreuve des tanks, fait creuser des tranchées et placer des barbelés comme il a fait précédemment à la porte de Brandebourg. Ainsi, le "mur" de Berlin sera achevé: seuls les membres dûment identifiés du personnel allié, civil et militaire, pourront continuer à passer à Berlin-est et à en revenir. Autrement, le mur sera infranchissable.

CONTROLE INTERNATIONAL, REFUSE

D'autre part, l'Allemagne orientale a repoussé samedi la proposition du président Kennedy relativement à "l'internationalisation" éventuelle de l'autoroute qui relie Berlin à l'Allemagne occidentale. W. Ulbricht, chef de l'Etat et du parti communiste, a en effet déclaré au cours d'une réunion de militants dans un district de Berlin-est que l'idée d'un contrôle international de l'autoroute longue de 110 milles était inadmissible et représenterait une violation flagrante de la souveraineté de la République démocratique allemande. "Cette autoroute appartient à la RDA et personne n'a le droit de l'utiliser sans l'autorisation de la RDA".

INVITE A ADENAUER

Pendant ce temps, le premier ministre Otto Grotewohl a invité officiellement le chancelier Adenauer à entamer des négociations "sur les mesures propres à assurer le maintien de la paix". Le chef du gouvernement de Pankow a exposé dans une lettre à Adenauer un plan en cinq points: neutralisation des deux Etats allemands, définition d'un modus vivendi, coopération dans les divers domaines, création d'un comité permanent de liaison, préparation de la réunification allemande sous forme d'une Confédération.

voulu en réalité lui forcer la main, l'amener à établir immédiatement une dictature militaire à quoi lui, Echavarría, s'opposerait. Le commandant en chef a conféré avec le président Balaguer au cours de la journée. De leur côté, les officiers démissionnaires ont publié une déclaration dans laquelle ils accusent le chef des forces armées d'avoir trahi "les idéaux patriotiques de l'armée et la soif légitime de liberté des masses populaires".

On sait que le président Balaguer s'est rallié à un projet de Echavarría en vertu duquel serait formée sous son contrôle nominal une junte provisoire comprenant en majorité des officiers supérieurs, pour la durée de la crise et de la période transitoire. Les partis de l'opposition ont repoussé ce plan. Pendant ce temps, la grève générale est entrée dans sa sixième journée et rien n'indique qu'elle doive cesser bientôt encore que la lassitude se manifeste chez un nombre croissant de citoyens. Les officiers démissionnaires ont tenu hier une conférence de presse au cours de laquelle ils ont répété que l'intérêt du pays exige que les chefs militaires cessent de s'occuper de politique.

Ce dernier souhaiterait sincèrement en arriver à un arrangement avec le gouvernement Adoula.

Graves incidents à Elisabethville

ELISABETHVILLE — Onze membres du contingent des Nations Unies étaient portés disparus hier au Katanga et on les croyait entre les mains des troupes katangaises après que différents accrochages eurent lieu dans la capitale de la province sécessionniste.

L'ONU a évacué son personnel civil des maisons qu'il occupe dans la ville pour le placer sous la protection des "casques bleus" dans les camps militaires.

Le gouvernement katangais, pour sa part, prétend que 20 soldats de son armée sont également portés disparus à la suite d'une bagarre avec des soldats de l'ONU à l'aéroport d'Elisabethville, samedi soir. Les casques bleus ont dit que l'incident a pris naissance quand ils sont intervenus pour apaiser des soldats katangais, en état d'ébriété, qui molestaient une femme indigène.

Le ministre de l'Intérieur, Evariste Kimba, a maintenu hier "l'état d'alerte" dans le territoire et les troupes katangaises ont établi des barrages

UNION SUD-AFRICAIN : ce pays est devenu officiellement "étranger" au Royaume-Uni

LONDRES. — Un diplomate de l'Union sud-africaine a rendu jeudi sa dernière visite de courtoisie au ministère des relations avec les pays du Commonwealth, consacrant par là la rupture du lien établi voici 51 ans entre la Gde-Bretagne et l'Union au sein du Commonwealth. Hier, la responsabilité des relations avec l'Union est passée du ministère du Commonwealth à celui des affaires étrangères. On sait que l'Union sud-africaine décidait voici treize mois de devenir Etat républicain et que le printemps dernier, la conférence des premiers ministres du Commonwealth refusait de réadmettre l'Union au sein de la communauté britannique. Désormais, l'ambassade de l'Union sud-africaine n'entreprendra de rapports qu'avec le Foreign Office, comme font tous les pays étrangers alors que les membres du Commonwealth sont en relation avec un ministère spécialement créé à cette fin.

On considère qu'il faut dix à quinze ans à un diplomate pour se préparer aux fonctions réellement importantes et représentatives. M. Cadieux veille avec soin à la promotion des nôtres. Le problème, pour lui, est une distribution stratégique de ses "voix françaises" à travers nos quelque cinquante ambassades, notre représentation auprès des nouvelles nations africaines de culture française est un des sujets qui lui tient à cœur mais, la comme ailleurs, — et dans les deux groupes ethniques — les cadres font défaut.

D'autre part, M. Cadieux juge essentiel de ne pas dégarner nos ambassades actuelles de présences françaises. S'il est des endroits où les Canadiens français devraient normalement être plus nombreux, — Paris, Bruxelles, Madrid, Rome, etc. — il arrive aussi qu'il est avantageux d'y poster des anglophones pour les familiariser avec les problèmes des pays latins. (Incidentement, au Japon et en Afrique, nous avons été surpris du nombre d'anglophones bilingues que nous avons rencontrés.

M. Cadieux doit éprouver souvent de nombreux maux de tête lorsqu'il s'agit de calculer la réaction à chaîne des déplacements de nos diplomates d'expression française. Autre raison de cette politique: M. Cadieux veut, par l'intermédiaire de ses fonctionnaires francophones, rappeler partout l'existence de deux groupes ethniques dans notre pays.

Nous sommes bien loin, ici, évidemment, de la commission du droit international des Nations unies. Mais l'élection avec tant d'éclat de M. Cadieux au poste de commissaire de cet organisme nous est une occasion de parler de son rôle au ministère des affaires extérieures. Il exige du doigté, de la fermeté, de la clairvoyance. Nous avons l'impression que M. Cadieux travaille dans un milieu où les rivalités sont nombreuses et normales mais d'où l'aigreur — quelle qu'en soit la cause — est normalement bannie. (Nous disons "normalement" et nous avons parlé d'"impression").

bien remplir ce poste, advenant la démission de l'homme qui par deux fois a dirigé la campagne démocrate — en 1952 et en 1956 —, qui est considéré comme un esprit clairvoyant, réaliste et dont les propos sont fort écoutés par les intellectuels américains.

Dans les milieux officiels, on affirme d'autre part que le président Kennedy subit actuellement de fortes pressions de la part de l'organisation du parti démocrate qui réclame des personnalités d'un calibre national pour la campagne électorale de l'an prochain, alors que le tiers du Sénat et toute la Chambre des représentants seront en jeu.

Le parti socialiste-national Baath, — gauche modérée — a remporté une quinzaine de sièges mais en général la gauche a fait piètre figure, même dans les centres industriels: ainsi, à Homs, jadis forteresse de la gauche, dix des onze sièges sont allés à des candidats de centre-droite.

L'élection générale a eu lieu deux mois après que la Syrie, à la suite d'un coup d'Etat d'un groupe d'officiers contre Nasser, se fut retirée de la République arabe unie et eut repris sa liberté. La nouvelle Assemblée nationale est élue pour six mois: elle devra désigner un gouvernement provisoire et préparer une constitution définitive.

Castro proclame...

Ernesto Che Guevara, ministre des industries.

"Préjugés" dominés

Le chef du gouvernement a encore déclaré, samedi soir: "Quand j'étais encore étudiant, je ne comprenais pas réellement la signification du marxisme comme je la comprends aujourd'hui... Je subissais l'influence de la propagande des milieux réactionnaires et impérialistes contre le communisme et j'avais de par ma famille des préjugés petits-bourgeois... Et le "mouvement du 26 juillet" lui-même avait subi cette influence, avec le résultat que lors de sa prise du pouvoir, le 1er janvier 1959, il n'était pas vraiment un mouvement révolutionnaire mais un mouvement pré-révolutionnaire".

Impossible neutralisme

Fidel Castro a rejeté d'autre part le neutralisme en affirmant: "Il n'existe pas de moyen terme entre le socialisme et l'impérialisme. Quiconque se veut neutraliste dans cette lutte aux dimensions du monde fait en réalité le jeu de l'impérialisme... La révolution cubaine a adopté la seule attitude honnêtement possible: elle a choisi la voie de la révolution socialiste et anti-impérialiste".

Dénouant ensuite le culte de la personnalité, Castro a déclaré qu'il serait folie qu'un seul homme assume toutes les responsabilités et prenne lui-même toutes les décisions: "Je crois profondément dans la direction collégiale du gouvernement; je n'ai jamais voulu être un quelconque César". Enfin, rappelant que même en URSS, on estime que la société communiste véritable ne sera possible que dans vingt ans, Castro a déclaré: "Pour nous, c'est l'heure de bâtir la société socialiste... Il n'y aura pas de communisme à Cuba avant une trentaine d'années".

Que décidera l'OEA?

Washington — C'est aujourd'hui que le Conseil permanent de l'OEA (Organisation des Etats américains) doit prendre une décision sur la proposition de la Colombie et du Pérou réclamant la convocation d'une conférence extraordinaire des ministres des affaires étrangères de l'OEA pour adopter une politique commune à l'endroit de Cuba. Cependant, s'il est probable que les délégués approuvent le principe d'une telle conférence, il est improbable qu'ils en fixent dès maintenant la date et le lieu. Les observateurs estiment toutefois que le discours prononcé samedi par le premier ministre Castro peut modifier l'attitude de pays comme l'Argentine et le Mexique et les amener à accepter la tenue d'une conférence prochaine qui déciderait s'il y a lieu de prendre des mesures d'ordre économique ou diplomatique contre Cuba.

En terminant, M. Pierre Laporte a annoncé la construction prochaine d'un hôpital dans le comté, hôpital que promettait l'Union nationale depuis 16 ans. Il a souligné la nécessité de nouvelles industries qui viendront se greffer à la sidérurgie et qui atténueront le chômage dans la région. Enfin il a rappelé que l'éducation était encore la meilleure arme pour que les jeunes puissent faire face au monde dans lequel ils vivront.

A partir du 13 septembre (au moment du conflit armé entre les "casques bleus" et l'armée katan-gaise), les pressions exercées pour obtenir mon départ se sont accrues et transformées en une véritable campagne. La délégation britannique à l'ONU a été particulièrement active à cet égard et peu scrupuleuse quant aux moyens utilisés.

Il convient de rappeler que selon certaines sources, O'Brien avait déclenché l'opération armée contre le Katanga le 13 septembre, de sa propre initiative et sans consulter Hammarskjöld. Cette affaire n'a jamais été éclaircie.

Mr. Cadieux has been Assistant Under-Secretary of State for External Affairs and Legal Adviser to the Department since December 1, 1956.

Mr. Cadieux was born in Montreal on June 17, 1915. He was educated at Grassett College, Montreal, and the University of Montreal, and took post graduate studies at McGill University. Mr. Cadieux joined the Department of External Affairs in 1941 and was appointed Third Secretary in London in 1944. In 1945 he became Second Secretary at Brussels and after returning to Ottawa for a time became First Secretary at the Canadian Embassy in Paris in 1951. During that year he attended the NATO Defence College in Paris. He was appointed Counsellor to the Canadian Delegation to the North Atlantic Council and the OEEC in 1952, and in 1954 became Adviser to the Canadian Commissioner, International Supervisory Commission, Vietnam, returning to Ottawa in the spring of 1955.

Mr. Cadieux has attended many international conferences. He is a member of the National Film Board and of the Executive Committee of the UNESCO National Commission and has been Professor of Public International Law, Faculty of Law, University of Ottawa, since 1956. Since Mr. Cadieux is covering off an FSO 9 position his promotion from FSO 7 to FSO 8 will not affect the one possible promotion from FSO 7 to FSO 8 listed in my memorandum of June 2.

2. As I also mentioned in my memorandum of June 2 promotion possibilities are affected by the departure of Mr. LePan and will be affected by the departure of Mr. Macdonnell, depending on the persons selected as Deputy and Assistant Under-Secretary. When, for example, Mr. A.E. Ritchie is appointed to one of these positions, his appointment will leave vacant one FSO 8 position. This position must be reserved in the event of an Order in Council appointment to Head of Post. The one such vacancy which we had in reserve was used for Mr. Graham's appointment as Ambassador to Sweden, and there is not at present a vacant FSO 8 position.

3. I assume you wish me to proceed with the steps necessary to make the promotion from FSO 7 to FSO 8 of Mr. Cadieux, and from FSO 6 to FSO 7 of Messrs. Stephens, Starnes and McCordick, effective July 1.

Appointment of Deputy Under-Secretary

cc 11253-40

The position of Deputy Under-Secretary which is provided in the departmental establishment has been vacant since Mr. R.M. Macdonnell left in July 1959 to take up an appointment as Secretary General of the International Civil Aviation Association. In my previous discussions with you on this subject it was agreed that the position should be filled by promoting Mr. Marcel Cadieux from his present position of Assistant Under-Secretary.

The necessary preliminaries have been completed with the Civil Service Commission and the stage is now set to make this change. If you approve I shall send a letter to the Civil Service Commission recommending the appointment.

While it is not necessary for you to submit this matter to Cabinet, it occurs to me that you may wish to inform your colleagues and with that possibility in mind I am attaching a biographical sketch on Mr. Cadieux.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE UNDER-SECRETARY

Marcel Cadieux

I think it is important that we reach an early decision as to whether Marcel Cadieux should remain in Ottawa for another year or whether he is to be posted to Geneva as replacement for Max Wershof. One reason for urgency is that it will make it easier for us to consider a number of related moves.

2. There is much to be said for asking Marcel Cadieux to remain here for another year and, in addition to the obvious advantages, it would provide good French speaking continuity in the Under-Secretary's office as we could consider either Jean Chapdelaine or Paul Tremblay as replacements in 1961. Mr. Cadieux is agreeable to staying on for another year on the understanding that he could take a month's leave with his wife sometime between the end of the Law of the Sea Conference and mid-summer.

3. At the Geneva end we have authorized Max Wershof to take home leave during the coming summer and I do not think that a reversal of our original plan to bring him home should affect that. He would probably not resist it too much if he were asked to return to Geneva for another year after his leave.

4. I suggest that we discuss this once more with the Minister and if the Minister is neutral we should proceed with the original plan. If, however, the Minister expresses himself strongly in favour of retaining Mr. Cadieux in Ottawa we agree on the understanding that the extension be limited to one year.

5. In the event of Mr. Cadieux remaining on here until 1961 you may wish to consider appointing him Deputy Under-Secretary.

During a discussion on senior appointments with the Under-Secretary yesterday, he gave an indication that he considered A.E. Ritchie and Marcel Cadieux as potential heads of this Department, in succession to himself. At the same time he asked Personnel Division to look into the question of Cadieux's promotion from Grade 7 to 8.

In the longer term he also looked upon Basil Robinson as a possible candidate for the Under-Secretaryship. He did not give the impression that this possibility should weigh at this time in considering Robinson's grade or appointment.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE MINISTER

Subject: Acting Promotion of Mr. M. Cadieux

cc Lepan DU.
cc Macdonnell RN
cc 47.

Attached is a letter to the Secretary of the Civil Service Commission requesting the acting promotion of Mr. Cadieux.

The change, which results from the sudden need for Mr. Macdonnell's services abroad, is complicated by the fact it was necessary to place Mr. Lepan in an Assistant Under-Secretary position as an F.S.O. 7 effective April 1, 1957 in order not to hold up a promotion at the F.S.O. 7 level in April. The Civil Service Commission agreed orally to the latter move and have also indicated their willingness to agree to the proposed one.

Dear Dr. Davey,

Re: Marcel Cadieux

Thank you for your letter of October 21 drawing to our attention the fact that Mr. Cadieux was allowed to proceed to Indochina without a medical clearance from your division.

I regret to say that the decision to send Mr. Cadieux to Indochina without your formal clearance was the result of a misunderstanding of the arrangements by which Mr. Cadieux was examined by Dr. Paul Dontigny in Montreal. As you will recall, Mr. Cadieux's departure for Indochina was a matter of considerable urgency and it was my understanding at the time that you had agreed to his taking further tests in Montreal which, if satisfactory, would permit his posting. There was obviously a misunderstanding on our part of the arrangements and I am sorry that the proper procedure was not carried out. I can assure you that it was not our intention to change the very effective and satisfactory arrangements which we have with you for pre-posting medical clearances.

When we received your medical report after Mr. Cadieux's departure, we immediately asked him to request his doctor in Montreal to provide a suitable report in order to keep the records straight. I agree that, under the circumstances explained in your letter, Dr. Dontigny's report does not contain sufficient information. Since I would like to clear up any misunderstanding concerning Mr. Cadieux's fitness for his present assignment, I wonder whether you would think it appropriate to ask Dr. Dontigny for the supplementary information you require in order to arrive at a final decision?

EXTERNAL AFFAIRS RECORDS

Sub.	80 Chron. 46 Filed...

Dear Sir:

This will acknowledge receipt of your letter of the 13th of October, 1954, in connection with the posting of the above-mentioned Foreign Service Officer to Indochina.

Mr. Cadieux was examined at this Health Centre by Dr. B. B. McEwen of this division on the 9th of August, 1954. As a result of certain findings disclosed at the time of the examination, it was the opinion of this division that Mr. Cadieux's posting to Indochina should be withheld pending further medical investigation. Following the examination Mr. Cadieux, presumably, went to Montreal and was not available for further investigation by this division. He submitted a certificate dated the 6th of October, 1954, signed by Dr. Paul Dontigny who recommended that Mr. Cadieux was fit for posting to Indochina provided he followed his physician's instructions.

It has been the understanding of this division that the Department of External Affairs would not post F.S.O.'s and other employees abroad until they had received complete medical clearance from this division. Indochina is a particularly unhealthy post and it is considered inadvisable to send personnel abroad to such posts unless they are completely physically fit. It is felt that before Mr. Cadieux was permitted to proceed abroad further medical investigation should have been carried out either by this division or at our direction. In this case the results of Dr. Dontigny's investigation should have been available to this division, as well as his instructions to Mr. Cadieux, in order that we could come to a final decision and so notify the Department of External Affairs.

It is not considered that the certificate submitted by Dr. Dontigny contains sufficient information to warrant this man's posting abroad.

I would appreciate your comments in this case, and on similar cases which may occur in the future.

Yours very truly,

Dear Llyn:

I have your letter of August 31 (P-8), and am writing today to my doctor in Montreal suggesting that he provide you with the report you have in mind. While I was anxious to come to Hanoi, as you can imagine I would not have left Canada unless the doctors were prepared to say that I was fit for a posting of this kind.

The delegation is not yet organized, and there are many administrative problems to solve every day, but I am sure that this will be an interesting assignment. So far as health is concerned, I take every precaution; I swallow innumerable pills but I have never felt better.

Yours sincerely,

Dear Marcel,

We have just received a copy of your medical report from the Department of National Health and Welfare which declares you not fit for posting to Indochina. Your subsequent medical examinations in Montreal proved you fit for the posting but we have no record of this on file.

In order to keep our records straight would you be good enough to authorize your doctor in Montreal to provide us with a suitable medical report? In case (and God forbid) anything goes wrong with your health we would be in a better position to ask Treasury Board for special consideration if we had evidence that you were medically approved before you left. Sorry to be a nuisance.

I hope that all is going well with your new assignment. With kindest personal regards.

MEMORANDUM FOR MR. MATTHEWS.

With respect to your memorandum of May 12th concerning the appointment of Mr. Cadieux and Mr. Menzies as permanent Third Secretaries, I wish to recommend that both appointments should be made.

Mr. Cadieux has now served in the Department for nearly two years and he has for some time been engaged mainly in assisting Mr. Stone in handling censorship questions. I have given him other work to do from time to time and he has shown laudable discretion and judgment in the performance of his duties. He is already a very useful member of the Service and I have been particularly encouraged by the progress he has shown in dealing with questions of considerable importance.

I am not so intimately acquainted with the work of Mr. Menzies as he has been detached for some months from this Division to work in the Examination Unit. My impression of the quality of his work, however, is that he definitely merits a permanent appointment. He is industrious and diligent in the discharge of his duties and has displayed promising qualities of initiative. At times he has been rather indiscriminating but this is a matter which, I think, will tend to disappear with greater experience. He also has served in a temporary capacity for nearly two years. It is desirable that his status should be made permanent as soon as possible.

(Sgd.) H. Wrong.

MEMORANDUM FOR MR. WRONG

Mr. Robertson wishes to consider the desirability of appointing the present temporary Third Secretaries to the position of permanent Third Secretaries. He wishes to have a report from the head of the Division in which the temporary Third Secretaries are at present working.

Will you please advise me whether you think the following warrant appointment to the position of permanent Third Secretary:-

- M. Cadieux - joined the Department as a probationary Third Secretary on 21st August, 1941. Was granted the position of temporary Third Secretary with full salary on 1st July, 1942.
- A.R. Menzies - joined the Department as a probationary Third Secretary on 16th July, 1941. Was granted the position of temporary Third Secretary with full salary on 1st July, 1942.

SUBJECT: Posting of Counsellor to Tokyo

Date
File No. Cadieux, M
✓	✓	27

With the cancellation of Mr. Cadieux' posting to Tokyo it becomes urgently necessary to find someone else suitable for the job.

2. The Ambassador has left and his successor will not arrive till late October. Mr. Rettie, an experienced (and the only Japanese-speaking) officer will be back in Canada for the later Fall and early winter months. The load of Ambassador, Counsellor and First Secretary is now on the shoulders of Louis Rogers, PSO 3 and First Secretary (local rank). I think this is too much. The situation is not good for our relations with the Japanese. The reporting the Department hopes to get on Korea has come to a standstill. I think, therefore, a high priority must be given to Tokyo.

3. The possible candidates:

Ben Rogers. This would leave a bad gap in D.L. (1) but perhaps Arnold Smith could fill it.

Ted Newton. I think, perhaps, some other future is in mind for him but I don't know.

Ralph Collins. This would be pretty dislocating for him and for Canada House.

Saul Rae. He would not be keen and this is a bad time to change horses in U.N. Division.

Arnold Smith. He is building a house and has not been back for long. But perhaps this is a serious possibility.

Chris Eberts. This would be a pity as he has just nicely worked into San Francisco and is doing a good job. But thinkable.

Alfred Pick. Same objection as in the case of Collins and Eberts.

Lionel Roy. If he is not to stay in European Division (and this would be best), I think his only alternative destination, since he is invaluable unmarried, should be Indochina.

4. I really do not see any other working possibilities. Perhaps the suggestion of Arnold Smith is the best one to explore immediately. Will you let me know of any views you may come to hold?

EXCERPT

Replacement for Cadieux at NATO Delegation

Dr. MacKay showed me a copy of a letter which he had sent to Mr. Wilgress concerning a replacement for Mr. Cadieux. He indicated that the Minister had now agreed on Mr. Tremblay from The Hague and that telegrams should be prepared for his authorization to both Mr. Stone and Mr. Wilgress confirming this arrangement. Mr. MacKay decided, however that the question of a replacement for Mr. Tremblay should be left in abeyance for the time being.

Thank you for your letter P.484 in which you informed me that approval has been given for the posting to Tokyo as a replacement for Mr. Morley Scott of Mr. Marcel Cadieux. From the description which you give of Mr. Cadieux in your letter I think that he sounds eminently suitable for the work you wish him to undertake. I should think that his course at the NATO Defence College in Paris would stand him in good stead in his dealings with the military which will necessarily be extensive if he is to pursue Korean work actively in Korea.

2. I note that Mr. Cadieux is expected to arrive in Tokyo at the end of September. I would hope that this would be the latest date at which he would come because the External Affairs staff of the Embassy will at that time be stretched particularly thin and the work of the Embassy would suffer severely if the Embassy were under-staffed for too long.

3. In your letter you make no mention of Mr. Cadieux bringing a car. I assume that this is because planning has not gone far enough for you to deal with what must seem a relatively minor detail in connection with the posting. In view of our transportation commitments in Tokyo, however, and the lack of any promise of having another car added to our establishment, I think that I should point out to you that the Embassy cannot undertake to make transport generally available for Mr. Cadieux as was done for Mr. Scott. We managed to scrape through while Mr. Scott was here because our staff was smaller and our cars had no serious breakdowns. With the increase in our staff requiring the use of two vehicles four times a day for runs between the Embassy and the hotel where the administrative staff live this is a risk we can no longer take. I hope, therefore, you will urge upon Mr. Cadieux the need to provide himself with a car as all the other officers of the Embassy have provided themselves.

MEMORANDUM FOR MR. MACKAY

NATO Delegation - Paris

You asked me for a few points when talking to the Minister about Marcel Cadieux' replacement, and particularly the scope and importance of his work. The following might be talking points:

- 1) Mr. Wilgress and I both feel that it is absolutely essential that there be at least one senior French-speaking officer on the NATO Delegation. Experience has borne this out.
- 2) After talking to the officers of the European and Defence Liaison (1) Divisions, there is no doubt that the political reporting which has come from the NATO mission has been of the highest order and that it is not only most useful but essential for the efficient work of those divisions. Both divisions hope the same order of political reporting will continue.
- 3) Although Bruce Keith is a competent officer, I agree with Mr. Wilgress that I don't think he is equipped to do this particular job which Cadieux has been doing. He is a bit too junior and of course lacks a thorough knowledge of the French language which, in my opinion, is absolutely necessary for this particular type of work.
- 4) The principal political reporting which Cadieux has been doing has centered around the developments and trends in relation to the E.D.C., the Council of Europe, the Coal and Steel Community and of course the political developments in relation to the operation of NATO and O.E.E.C., together with a great maze of committees established under those two organizations.

- 5) Mr. Wilgress I think has relied very greatly on Marcel's experience and ability in connection with the cultural side of NATO which, as you know, is of very direct interest to Canada, as we have publicly announced on several occasions our views in relation to this side of NATO's operation.
- 6) According to Mr. Wilgress, the volume and importance of NATO work is by no means diminishing. In fact in some respects it is increasing and this trend is likely to continue for the next couple of years.
- 7) I think either one of the following officers would be a suitable replacement for Mr. Cadieux: Paul Tremblay, Ernest Côté, Jean Fournier or Gilles Sicotte.

secret filed

I understand that at the moment it will be difficult to release Côté, but probably next fall it may be possible, if Mr. Wilgress is willing to wait that long. I also understand it may be difficult now to obtain Fournier for the NATO mission. All the above officers, with whom I have worked and know well, I think, are well qualified to do this particular job and I am simply suggesting their names for your consideration.

briefing in the Department before proceeding to Japan and should also take some leave here, he should return to Canada as early as possible in July.

I realize that these various schedules do not allow for the highly desirable procedure of overlaps and effective taking-over; but, the personnel situation having improved little from what it has been for the last two or three years, I know you will understand that this is probably the best arrangement possible in the circumstances.

Yours sincerely,

R. A. MacKay

P.S. The above letter was signed and ready to go out when your letter of June 8 arrived on my desk. I am sorry to say that we couldn't possibly extract Ernest Côté at the moment since he is the key officer on St. Lawrence Seaway and other related questions which are very lively at the moment. However, I think you will find Keith a very satisfactory officer. He is very quick, quicker indeed than the other man you mention, and I think has a better political sense even if he has not done NATO work. Since shifting over from Information to other work in the Department he has shown great adaptability and he has abundant energy which, I gather, is needed for a NATO job.

I hope you will have had an opportunity of talking with Ken Burbridge about the personnel requirements of this Mission. He and I are both worried about the likely deterioration in the quality of the work of the Mission when Marcel Cadieux leaves, because the chief political officer occupies such a key position and exerts such a great influence on our attitude towards so many aspects of the work.

Since talking to Ken, I have had second thoughts about Delisle, whom he knows so much better than I do. I fear that he could not discharge effectively the duties now being so well performed by Marcel Cadieux. If Henry Davis is not available for this Mission, I am wondering what the prospects would be of us securing Ernest Cote. I have a high opinion of his energy and ability and, while his judgment is not always sound, I feel he could fit in here very well.

I should appreciate any further thought you may be able to give to our personnel requirements.

With kindest regards,

Yours sincerely,

If this arrangement is not satisfactory to Burbridge, consideration may have to be given to some other replacement for Plumptre. I am confident that Henry Davis could discharge the duties effectively. In such a case Cadioux, until he is replaced, would be the next senior on the mission although his duties would remain the same. He would, however, take my place whenever I was unable to be present at a meeting of the Council. This suggestion is just thrown out in case personal factors make it impossible for Burbridge to come to Paris in April. Ends.

I am very grateful to you for your

If the idea is to give me wider

I am sure also that I would

Dear Marcel,

I have seen your handwritten letter of February 12 to Evan, who is now on a selection board tour to the West Coast.

You mention General Pope's story of the restaurant choice of steak and steak. Perhaps I might add another variety of steak. Would you be interested in Japan? Morley Scott went out there a few months ago as second Officer, with the special assignment of Korea. It may be that we shall want to post him elsewhere in the course of the next few months. I am not sure how senior an Officer we will want to put in his place, but it would be useful to know if you would be interested. Having dealt with Personnel yourself you will appreciate that there can be no commitments at the moment. For your very private information Tommy Davis has been picked as the next Head of Mission there, but there will be no announcement about this for some time. The change-over is likely to take place this summer. I mention this since it might be an important consideration to you.

Dear Evan,

Your letter of Feb. 3rd reminds me of one of General Pope's stories. A man was staying overnight at a modest country inn while he was not expecting an exciting menu. He sat down for dinner hoping that the fare would be appetizing and copious. The maid told him that there was steak... and steak! He could have his choice!

Of Warsaw or a frost in the Middle East must be the whole menu and I have a choice, on balance and after some hesitation I think that I should prefer the latter. A frosting to Israel or the Lebanon would leave, as you suggest, more intellectual interest for me. Warsaw may however

Dear Marcel,

Thank you very much for your complimentary remarks about the new Register. Coming from the source it did give Wilf Agnes and myself considerable satisfaction. I am sorry that we omitted the reference to your books and we will certainly pick this up in the next edition.

About this time of the year you and I usually exchange personal correspondence on the Department's plans for you. Recently Bert has written to Mr. Wilgress to outline to him some of the staff changes we are contemplating for our NATO Delegation, and as this may involve you I am writing you a personal note to give you a background and ask for your comments.

In the normal course of events I think it is reasonably safe to assume that you will, in due course, succeed Jean Chapdelaine as Assistant Under-Secretary. The timing of this event, if it does take place, is difficult to estimate now, but for planning purposes we might think of a period about two years hence. It seems to us, therefore, that it would be well to prepare for this development and to give you an opportunity to broaden your experience in the next two years. Three areas come to mind; Washington, Iron Curtain, Middle East. As you will recall, the previous plan was to shift you to Washington, but it is now considered important to have a recognized economist there to help Doug LePan in this field. The remaining alternatives are, therefore, Warsaw or one of the Middle East posts. On the former, Tom Carter is due to come out next summer and it would fit into Departmental plans very well to have you succeed him there for a period of up to two years. On the other hand, you might be reluctant, because of health or other personal considerations, to take on this post, and in these circumstances we would be prepared to consider the Middle East. Our plans for the Middle East are still somewhat nebulous, but broadly speaking it is the intention to establish late this year one post in the Arab States, probably in Lebanon, and one in Israel. The latter will probably be headed by our Ambassador to Greece who will be given double accreditation. It would certainly be helpful to us to have you as Chargé to the Israel post or as Counsellor to the Arab States post during the organizational phase, and I know that you would find much of intellectual interest from a sojourn in that part of the world.

Accordingly, Bert has authorized me to write you this personal note and sound you out on your preferences between these two alternatives. The main difficulty I see in arranging for your posting to the Middle East is that the time of opening is still unsettled, and conceivably you could remain where you are now until 1955. This might present a problem in seniority, a subject that Mr. Wilgress might discuss with you when he has received Bert's letter.

With kind regards,

Yours sincerely,

EXCERPT FROM LETTER TO L.D. WILGROSS, PARIS-NATO, FROM
R.A. MACKAY, DTD. FEBRUARY 1, 1954.

Admittedly, the posting of Burbridge raises a problem of seniority vis-a-vis Marcel Cadieux, but I hope that this can be resolved without too much difficulty, because if our plans for Marcel are carried out the overlap between these two officers will not be long. In the normal course of events, Marcel seems destined as successor to Jean Chapdelaine, and because of this should no doubt have the benefit of wider experience. Evan Gill is writing Marcel direct to sound him out about alternatives.

If and when Cadieux is withdrawn it is our plan to send you a French-speaking officer and, for your own information, we have Delisle in mind. As you know he is now in charge in Boston. He is a very sound, hard working if not brilliant officer and I think should be a very useful member of the delegation.

Mr. N. Cadieux

Departmental Experience and Present Duties

Mr. Cadieux joined the Department as Third Secretary in 1941. After some service in the Department, he was posted to the Office of our High Commissioner in London in 1944 and stayed there until the following year when he was transferred to our Embassy in Brussels. In 1947, he returned to the Department and from 1948 to 1950 he was Head of the Personnel Division. In 1950 Mr. Cadieux attended the NATO Defence College course in Paris and upon its completion, he was posted to our Permanent Delegation to the North Atlantic Treaty Organization in Paris where he is still serving. Mr. Cadieux' present duties are those of a senior officer in charge of political affairs. He is responsible for representing Canada on important NATO Committees.

Reasons for Promotion

Mr. Cadieux is continuing to live up to the high standards which he set as Personnel Officer of this Department. His present Ambassador writes that it is difficult not to praise this officer somewhat extravagantly. His work is of a very high order. He gets through an enormous quantity of tasks; he has marked initiative and increasing facility and maturity; he is energetic and of independent yet modest mind and of exceptional moral worth. He is an exceptionally responsible person.

Mr. Cadieux would carry higher rank with dignity and confidence and the Department has no doubt that he has a high future.

Because Mr. Cadieux is an outstanding officer, the Department has no hesitation in recommending that he be promoted from an FSO 5 to FSO 6.

I have had another discussion with Bert MacKey about your possible transfer to Washington in the light of our recent exchange of correspondence.

While we are anxious to proceed with your assignment to Washington, there is no doubt that we would have difficulty in finding a suitable replacement for you on the NATO Delegation just now. On balance, therefore, it has been decided that you should remain where you are for the time being and revise the idea of the Washington move next spring.

Thank you for your helpful letter indicating that whichever decision was taken it would be alright by you.

Dear Evan,

Thank you very much for your prompt reply.

I have discussed with Mr. Heeney the proposal in your letter No. P-13 and, needless to say, we agree that I should be prepared to fall in with any plans made by the Department.

From my personal point of view, and in particular that of my training in Departmental work, there is no doubt that it would be very useful for me to have the experience of a posting in Washington. From the point of view of the Mission, Mr. Heeney is of the opinion - which I share, that it might be better not to change the senior political officer here for perhaps another year, unless, of course, there are good reasons for doing otherwise.

You are of course in a better position to assess the relative weight of these considerations and whatever the decision, there will be no objections at this end.

dear Marcel:

Your letter of December 29 reached me shortly after a "posting" session with Bert MacKay when it had been agreed that I should write an informal letter either to you or Arnold Heeney to ascertain if there were any personal or other considerations which would interfere with your transfer next summer.

You will recall earlier plans to post you to Washington after a year or so in Europe. This idea has now been revised as there will be a vacancy for a senior officer at the Embassy there next summer, and from a departmental standpoint you would be the first choice to fill it.

We realize, of course, that the NATO Delegation is pretty hard-pressed and there will be difficulties in finding a suitable person to replace you (presumably he should be French-speaking). We have, however, some prospects in mind. The first stage is, however, to reach a decision in principle on whether you are available for the Washington assignment and if the answer is affirmative then we can work out stage two, which is your replacement, and communicate officially with Mr. Heeney.

Dear Evan,

By now, this will be an old and familiar story to you: my lease runs out on June 1st. I realize that it may be difficult for you to let me know immediately whether I am to remain in Paris after that date, but as you can imagine, it would be helpful to me if you could give me some notice of the Department's plans if they affect me.

If I am to be transferred about June 1st, I will not try to find other accommodation. On the other hand, if I am to stay here, could you let me know for how long approximately? I will move in any case about June 1st, but if I am to complete my tour of duty here, I will try to make more satisfactory arrangements than I have made so far, being under the impression that I would only be in Paris, first for six months, and then for a year only.

Incidentally, when I move and you have to think of my successor, I suggest that you select a married officer. The allowances for a single officer here are not adequate, in my opinion, to enable him to establish the contacts and do the job that is required. A married officer will have a better chance. (When you have an opportunity you may wish to compare the total remuneration for a bachelor and a married officer of my rank. You will get my point.)

Paris, April 30, 1952.

Dear Herb:

I found your letter of April 18th on my return from the fifteen-day NATO College Tour of Europe.

As soon as I know what our life will be at the College for the next couple of weeks, I shall try to see Mr. Heeney. This should certainly occur during this week. As he will be away for a month early in June, it would probably be best if I reported for duty shortly after May 15th, which is the date on which the course is supposed to end.

I presume I can take a few days early in June to drive my parents to Le Havre where they will embark, and I have no doubt that there will be opportunities later on for me to take some leave. Right now, after this trip, I feel very fit and I do not think that I could move to my duties at a more opportune moment, everything being considered.

The Prague assignment would have been interesting, but as you suspected quite rightly, I certainly prefer to remain in Paris. This job will give me a chance to do political work of, perhaps, a more satisfying nature than would have been possible in Prague. Furthermore, there is the important factor to bear in mind that I will be working under a chief whom I know already, and to whom, particularly on the Continent, I may be of some assistance.

As mentioned in a previous letter I have ordered some supplies from the Hudson's Bay Company. I have not cancelled the order because I thought that whoever was appointed to go to Prague would like to receive these supplies with as little delay as possible. I should be glad, therefore, if you would mention this to Ben's successor. I will send him the lists compiled at Ben's kind suggestions when the plan was for me to arrive in Prague early in June. The order is not a very large one, but it should make it possible for whoever goes to Prague to carry on for a couple of months.

Thank you for your letter of April 4, in which you suggest reporting to NATO for duty about June 6. You should obviously see your parents off on June 4 and we would not wish to interfere in any way with that plan. However, I think it would be helpful if you could report to Mr. Heeney as soon after the 4th as possible because he will be leaving in the middle of the following week to return to Canada for discussions with the Minister and officials here on some of the problems which will by then have emerged in connection with the operations of his Delegation. He will be gone for about a month and I know would very much like to see you and have a talk with you before his departure.

In these circumstances, I would suggest you try and report to him in Paris on the 5th, or if that is inconvenient, get there by June 6 at the latest.

Needless to say I am delighted that this appointment has materialized for you and I think that Mr. Heeney is fortunate in getting an officer with your energy and ability to help him in what is a most important and will unquestionably be a difficult assignment.

Best personal regards.

Yours sincerely,

Dear Marcel,

It has now been decided to post you to the Permanent Delegation of Canada to NATO instead of carrying out the earlier plan to appoint you as Charge d'Affaires at Prague in succession to Ben Rogers.

Herb Moran said that, with your experience in the Personnel Division, you would understand the necessity of making changes in plans. I hope that you will find this change agreeable. It will certainly solve some of the problems that you were faced with in taking your parents to Prague and I would judge from your letters that their reaction to the new proposal would be entirely favourable.

I will not, at this stage, go into great detail about the organization of the Permanent Delegation of Canada to NATO as Arnold Heeney plans to arrive in Paris on April 15 and you will no doubt have an opportunity to discuss this with him. In the meantime, you may be interested in knowing that the new mission will absorb the Canadian Delegation to OEEC and it will start to function in its new role in mid-April. There will be three External Affairs officers at the new mission in addition to the Ambassador and you will be third senior, covering off a Foreign Service Officer Grade 5 vacancy. In this position you will be responsible under the Ambassador for the political work.

Marcel Cadieux, Esq.,
Canadian Embassy,
PARIS, France.

Saul Rae will be loaned from Canada House to help in the organizational phase of the new mission. The length of time that he and the OEEC officers will remain will depend on how the work develops and our schedule of permanent appointments. It is hoped that you will be available to take over your new duties on June 15.

Please regard this as informal notification of the change. If there are no obstacles in the way of your accepting this appointment and reporting on the date indicated, then a formal letter regarding the appointment will be sent to the Paris Embassy.

I am today writing to Ben Rogers in Prague informing him of the change of plans.

Yours sincerely,

Dear Evan:-

Ben has just written that I might go to Prague in the first days of June and the earliest date by which it would be convenient for him to leave would be about June 15th. A limiting factor is that he proposes to give a few parties to repay social obligations after the end of the mourning period, on May 1st.

We seem to be in accord and I am writing at Ben's suggestion to confirm that the target date, as I had guessed, will be about June 1st.

I have now ordered some supplies from Hudson's Bay in Montreal and made my arrangements on the assumption that I shall not require accommodation here after the end of May. Should there be any change in plans - I can easily understand that such changes can become necessary - I would naturally appreciate as long a notice as possible. I suspect that the decision to set up a NATO delegation in Paris, and to effect transfers at high levels may have started a chain reaction which could affect the moves planned for the next few months. Thus is the curse of personnel work. You end up with the conviction that the only thing certain about the best devised schemes is that they can seldom be carried out.

Yours sincerely,

Marcel

The Under-Secretary has agreed that assignment dates of officers to the Canadian Permanent Delegation to NATO might be as follows:

- A.D.P. Heeney - to arrive April 15. With him will be Parkinson and Hooton of the O.E.E.C. staff and Rae, on loan from Canada House.
- D.H. Kirkwood - to arrive May 15. Hooton to be released for other employment about two weeks later.
- M. Cadieux - to arrive June 15. Rae will be released for return to Canada House as soon thereafter as is convenient to the Canadian Representative to NATO. His services may be required through most of July.
- A.F.W. Plumptre - to arrive July 1. Parkinson to be available shortly thereafter for posting to Canada House as Financial Counsellor.

Group Captain Newsome, National Defence, Guy Smith, Defence Production and Allan Hocken, Finance will also be members of the Canadian Delegation and their arrival date will be a decision for their respective departments.

Dear Evan:-

I have received your letter of March 10th, 1952, and I wish to tell you how much I appreciate you as well as Leslie's very understanding attitude to my request for the issuance of diplomatic passports to my parents. I had made that request on the assumption that there would be no difficulties. From your report I gather that such is not the case and for this reason I have decided not to proceed with this scheme. My parents will return to Canada when I leave for Prague. They understand the situation and, under the circumstances, they agree with me that it would be best not to request the Department to make arrangements which might establish precedents, or otherwise create difficulties with the Czechs. However, I must thank you very sincerely for the interest you have taken in this matter.

As to furniture, I am glad to hear that this can be sent to Canada at Government's expense. When the time comes for me to leave Paris, I will arrange through the Embassy for its crating in the usual fashion and, as you indicate, I will forward a list of the contents for Customs clearance.

The only thing which remains, I suppose, is to apply for a visa. I understand that this has to be done through Ottawa. I will then warn Duchatel of the Visa Section here, that in due course he may have to apply to the Czechoslovakian Embassy here for a visa. If we are expected to do anything more at this end, please let me know.

In accordance with the usual practice, I suppose that I shall be issued an administrative letter of instructions. Not that I am particularly worried about the money angle (from Paris figures for Czechoslovakia are quite meaningless), but I am anxious to familiarize myself with the main duties which I will have to perform on the administrative side when I reach Prague.

Yours sincerely,

Marcel
Marcel Cadieux.

There is another problem.

Within the next month, I will sell my car. The prospect is that by the middle of April, I will find myself with some $2000 to $3000 worth of French francs. As I will be leaving almost immediately for Prague, it will be impossible for me to use these francs and get. I will then have a need of working capital to buy groceries from Bin (between $500 and $1000) and to order other supplies. Would it be possible for the Department to relieve me of these francs, through the Embassy and to give me a credit in dollars which would serve to finance my transfer. I know that generally the Department does not favour such arrangements but circumstances are perhaps a bit special in this case. If I am stuck with this unusable balance of francs, financially, my transfer will create some difficulties for me. Can you help?

MEMORANDUM FOR THE UNDER-SECRETARY

... I attach a memorandum I have had from Mr. Gill which refers to the request of Mr. Marcel Cadieux that diplomatic passports should be issued to his parents who plan to accompany him to Prague next June.

2. P.C. 2492 of May 19, 1950 regulates the issuance of diplomatic and special passports and it gives authority for issuance at the discretion of the Minister of these types of passports to Canadian citizens within certain specifically defined categories. Among these categories are Officers of diplomatic rank which would of course include Mr. Cadieux. It also includes members of the immediate family who form part of the household of the Officer of diplomatic rank, travelling with them or proceeding to join them abroad.

3. Up to now we have adhered closely to the line that members of the immediate family are wives and children under 21 years of age. We refused for example to give a diplomatic passport to the mothers of Messrs. Warren and Chaput. We have just refused a diplomatic passport to Tom Pope, the son of the Ambassador in Belgium.

4. The Passport Officer is rightly concerned that we should not create a precedent in this case which might get us into subsequent difficulty and I share his anxiety in this respect. I am not, however, quite satisfied that we are being quite fair in this matter for what is "the immediate family" of a bachelor? It seems to me that there is a strong case for regarding the mother or sister or suitable relative of the Head of a post as being his "immediate family". It is not necessary to labour the fact that it is not easy to carry out the duties of Head of Mission without a suitable chatelaine.

5. I think, therefore, we would be on safe grounds if the Minister on his discretion decided that when a bachelor is taking over the headship of a post, as is Mr. Cadieux in this instance, it is proper to regard his mother, sister or other suitable relative as being a member of his immediate family. It is not so easy to make a case for a father as it is for a mother but I presume that in this instance Mrs. Cadieux would not go without her husband and there is the added fact that in this particular instance the seat of the Mission is behind the Iron Curtain. It would not in my view be very sensible to give a diplomatic passport to Mrs. Cadieux and not to her husband.

6. I have therefore come to the conclusion that as Mr. Marcel Cadieux is to be Head of post in Prague, that he is a bachelor and that his mother will be official hostess, the Ministerial discretion should be exercised in favour of giving her a diplomatic passport as a member of Marcel's immediate family. While I cannot make any case for the father, common sense seems to forbid a negative decision. I have therefore had typed on the bottom of the attached memorandum approval of issuance of diplomatic passports to both these people and would be glad if you would sign for the Minister.

I am writing with reference to our telephone conversation of this morning and to our recent exchange of correspondence on the question of issuing diplomatic passports to Marcel Cadieux's parents, who plan to accompany him to Prague, Czechoslovakia, next June.

It is my understanding that Mr. Cadieux's parents are at least partially dependent on him and that, during their stay in Prague, Mrs. Cadieux will act as his official hostess at the Legation. I am not at all sure how long they plan to remain there with him, but I think it is unlikely that they would stay for the full period of his tour.

I hope that, with this fuller explanation, it will prove feasible to authorize the issuance of diplomatic passports to Mr. and Mrs. Cadieux without establishing a precedent which might raise difficulties in the future. I have discussed this with the Under-Secretary and he is sympathetic.

This refers to our recent correspondence concerning my proposed transfer to Prague.

In this regard, I can report the usual incident: on receipt of your letter, both Ben and I wrote each other. Our letters crossed, and at the moment I do not know whether he agrees with me about the timing I had in mind. I have received, however, from him very good suggestions concerning books to read and the ordering of supplies. I suspect that he will agree with my suggestion: I propose to take a couple weeks leave at the end of the course, move to Czechoslovakia about the first of June, spend about a week with him and then return with him to Paris to collect my family. This can, of course, be altered to meet his convenience, but for planning, June 1st seems to be as good a date as any. The official letters could perhaps be drafted on that basis, if you are anxious to proceed with their issuance. Directly I hear from Ben, and I shall not fail to let you know the date on which we mutually agree.

In his letter Ben suggests that when the Department asks the Czechoslovakian Legation in Ottawa for a visa for me, it should also request visas for my father and mother, explaining that they live with me part of the time. He does not think that there should be any difficulty. This is based on the assumption, of course, that the issuance of diplomatic passports to my parents does not create any particular problem. Should there be any difficulty, my parents will return directly to Canada when I leave for Prague.

I sat on the Board in Paris last week. My impression is that the screening by the written test was quite effective. The calibre of the candidates was, in my opinion, unusually high. While the discussion of the Copperknife Community did not reveal anything which had not transpired during the first part of the examination, it provided useful confirmation. My only comment is that it is perhaps not necessary to prolong the discussion over half an hour, particularly if there are many candidates to interview. I am not thinking so much of the effect on the candidates as on the examiners.

Confidentially, I was a bit surprised that Dr. Ault did not come from London to attend the Board, and entrusted the Commission's interests to the D.V.A. representative. This is not a reflection on the individual concerned, but it seems to me that the interests of D.V.A. are now getting to be pretty remote in this kind of operation.

It was refreshing to see brother Charles, if only for a short day, and I hope that he will not report that the Paris atmosphere disagrees too much with me.

Jules has just told me that he is leaving for the usual trans-Canada search for candidates. I assume that you will be a member of the team, and I extend my very best wishes for success in your operations.

I should appreciate it very much if you would ask Miss Thompson to let me have a short biographical sketch on the various members of the staff in Prague, and also an indication of the time which they still have to serve at that post. I think I know most of them, but it would be useful if I could refresh my memory before reaching the post.

Kindest regards,

Marcel

Dear Marcel,

Between Oral Boards and Divisional duties (with which you are familiar) I have been trying to clear the two questions which you raised in your letter of February 12. My reports are as follows:

- a) Passports. Strictly speaking, there is no provision for granting diplomatic passports to your parents to visit Czechoslovakia other than by Ministerial instructions. I am loath to ask for Ministerial instruction, which I know would be forthcoming, because it might establish a precedent which would raise difficulties in the future. I have, however, arranged with Leslie Chance that I should ask that the diplomatic passports be issued on the understanding that your parents were dependents of yours and that while they were in Czechoslovakia your mother would act as official hostess at the Legation. I shall never know to what extent I have perjured myself in saying this, unless you are unkind enough to tell me. Leslie, on receipt of this note, will get the Under-Secretary's O.K. (he is sympathetic) and arrangements should proceed in a satisfactory manner. It would be well if we did not disclose at this time the fact that your parents are only likely to be with you for a short time. When this matter is cleared, the necessary instructions will be sent to the Paris Embassy and they will issue the passports. partial.
- b) Furniture. Jim Hurley tells me that there is no difficulty about your returning your personal furniture to Canada at Government expense. These should be addressed to External Affairs, Ottawa, with instructions for onward transmission to your father's house in Montreal. They will also require a list of the contents for customs clearance purposes.

I have the memorandum of February 25 sent to you by Mr. Gill, concerning Marcel Cadieux's request that we issue diplomatic passports to his parents.

The Minister may, of course, instruct that diplomatic passports be issued to these people but without his approval or express instruction, I know of no ground upon which we can consider Marcel's request. I am, of course, most anxious to assist him and I can see the reason which moves him to ask that they be given diplomatic passports. At the same time, I think it will be very difficult indeed to meet the request and in doing so, we should certainly be creating a precedent that will cause us difficulty in the future. After the trouble we had over the issuance of the passport gratis to Mr. Chaput's mother, I am most hesitant to risk the disapproval of the Auditor General on a similar venture. My feeling is that much as we may regret to adopt that position, we must say to Marcel that we cannot issue Diplomatic passports to his parents. After all, other Canadians are getting in and out of Czechoslovakia with ordinary passports and unless we are prepared to go to the length of according them diplomatic status formally, I doubt that the document would be of as much value as Marcel seems to think.

I have received a letter from Ben Rogers in which he mentioned, amongst other things, that he had not yet received word from you concerning your proposed date of arrival in Prague and the arrangements which you have in mind for taking over the mission.

In my reply to Ben, I said that I was writing you to suggest that you get in touch with him on these points. I assume that you will no doubt wish to raise several other matters concerning living conditions, etc.

I have informed Ben that his departure from Prague should be so timed as to provide not less than a two-week overlap with you. I believe that, in the circumstances, this time is sufficient to enable you to settle in with a minimum amount of personal inconvenience.

MEMORANDUM FOR CONSULAR DIVISION

Mr. Marcel Cadieux, who is being posted to Prague in June next to replace Mr. E.B. Rogers there, proposes that his parents should accompany him for a short stay and he enquires whether it would be possible to provide them with diplomatic passports. The following extract from Mr. Cadieux's letter refers to this:

"My reason for raising the question about my parents is that if they come with me, I would like them to be issued with a diplomatic passport. Would there be great objections to this? If they can not be provided with such a passport I feel that they should not come. I do not know the communists very well but I imagine that it will be easier to obtain a visa in the first place and then, the passport may give them some protection while they are in the country. I agree naturally that if they come there should be no additional charges on the public purse."

Mr. Cadieux's parents are at present with him in Paris where he is attending the NATO Defence College and I think he only wants them to have diplomatic passports for the trip from Paris to Czechoslovakia and return.

I would like to meet Mr. Cadieux's request in this matter if it can be done without departing from our established policy. Will you be good enough to give me a ruling on this.

Paris, February 12th 1952.

Dear Alan,

Your letter of Jan. 31st reached me only yesterday. We seem to be in full agreement. I shall write tomorrow to Ben Rogers and as soon as we agree upon a date I shall let you know. I propose to meet his convenience as he is the fellow who is coming out. I would not be adverse to taking some leave after the course but if Ben is anxious to get out I will cut it very short.

My reason for raising the question about my parents is that if they come with me, I would like them to be issued with a diplomatic passport. Would there be great objections to this? If they can not be provided with such a passport I feel that they should not come. I do not know the communists very well, but I imagine that it will be easier to obtain a visa in the first place and then the passport may give them some protection while they are in the country. I agree naturally that if they come there should be no additional charges on the public purse.

There is another problem about furniture. Since my arrival in Paris I have bought a few pieces of furniture, some souvenirs from the flea market (chinese masks, swords, an antique chair.) There is not very much but enough to compel me to enquire whether the whole lot should be taken with me to Prague (where I will be in a really completely furnished place) and thence to wherever I go later on or whether it would not be better to send everything to my father's residence in Canada when I leave Paris. If these things are shipped to Canada at government expense there will be no question later on about t55, sending them later to my next post. If authority can be given to their shipment now I should be glad to know how they should be addressed and what documentation will be needed by the properties and supply people to obtain their release through customs. The reason I raise the point is that Miss Dumas in Warsaw sent back to Canada some personal articles and my brother-in-law who is related to her has been unable to get them. I would therefore appreciate receiving clear instructions as to the whole operation assuming that the decision is in favour of sending them now. From the point of view of the Department it seems that the choice is really between these things go now or later via some other post.

I understand from the Commandant of the college that an official letter will go forward within the next few days to the military representatives about the next course. The present session is scheduled to end on the 15th of May. I cannot remember for the life of me whether the Commandant said that the next session would begin on the 1st or the 15th of June. The college is running fairly smoothly. It would be dishonest to pretend that I work as hard as in Ottawa but the truth is that I am working harder than I really expected we would. We have just concluded a series of lectures on the military position of the various Nato countries. We are completing the third problem which deals with the integration of forces. As this is the first session and as we expected one has sometimes the impression that there is a good deal of improvisation in the methods and in the arrangement ments but a very serious effort is being done. The problems, in particular, are now presented in a more sensible fashion and the students are getting more out of them. The main thing to remember, I think, is that the college is not a planning organization. I would like to be studying the items which will be on the agenda for the Lisbon meeting and from this point of view sometimes I have the impression that our work is too academic, not close enough to immediate realities. There is, I realize, something to be said for the academic approach which has a more enduring value. The main thing however, and I realize this more and more strongly is not so much what the students can pick up in the way of theoretical or practical knowledge although this is not negligible but what they can learn about each other and about the art of working efficiently together. There still, in fact, is little documentation available at the college to allow much more. Besides, given the multinational character of the students, I doubt how much classified material it would be possible or even advisable for the governments to put at their disposal without creating awkward situations. Such being the case, I am strongly of the opinion that the college would be far more effective if the students lived together all the time. Language remains one of the major obstacles. If there is any choice, I think that it will be worthwhile to send bilingual students. Not only will they get more out of the course but they are quite valuable in the work of the college itself.

In a way, the course will not be immediately as useful to me as if I had been sent to Washington but, then, nothing is lost if there is a prospect of my going next year. There were very good reasons for posting me there and after my year in Prague I hope that it may still be feasible to carry out this scheme. In fact, although I have no particular qualms about going to Prague for a year except in so far as my qualifications are involved, the idea that I will or let us say might be going to W. afterwards makes it somewhat easier for me. I appreciate the reasons which have induced you and the Undersecretary to suggest a shorter term in Prague and I take this as another proof of the extreme kindness and consideration that the Under-Secretary has always shown in considering my personal case. I shall do my very best not to disappoint you too much in this assignment.

There should be no difficulties about my going to London for a couple of days. I look forward to seeing Dr Ault and exchanging student's notes with him. Late February or early March would suit me very well.

Poor Langlois. I think with you that our competition was too much for him. I feel badly about this because I never really supposed that his hesitations were not attempts on his part to get in without undergoing the test. The lesson for me is that even on the basis of good evidence it is possible to be wrong. The difficulty is that the last time he appeared before an oral board he was so bad that I doubt very much whether he would have made the grade even if he had succeeded in the written part of the competition. He had very good reasons to worry.

Bruce and his mother passed through Paris last week. We visited the choice spots of Paris together: one evening we had the traditional bull session on life in the department. He seemed to be in good form. I got word from him to-day that he may have found an apartment. He liked the office. An unbelievable admission on the part of a hard boiled officer.

As you have realized long ago, I have no stenographers. I am typing this myself and I am having quite a time. You can console yourself at the thought that this is not half as bad, I hope, as my handwriting.

With kindest regards to you and the other members of your family.

Yours sincerely

M. Cadieux.

O t t a w a,
January 31, 1952.

P-51

Dear Marcel,

Thank you very much for your letter of January 12. I took the liberty of showing this to the Under-Secretary when the question of appointing a successor to Ben Rogers in Prague was discussed.

It was decided to ask you to become Charge d'Affaires on the understanding that it will be a shorter than normal tour, possibly terminating in the summer of 1953. One reason for this is that the Under-Secretary is very reluctant to give up the idea of your going to Washington. There is, however, no immediate need for your services there and, in these circumstances, it was felt that it was in the Departmental interest as well as your own, to do a short tour as Head of Mission in an Iron Curtain country before proceeding to Washington as originally planned.

On the specific points you raise, there is of course no immediate urgency to replace Ben Rogers because his tour of duty there does not end until next November. He has expressed a wish, however, to be transferred back to Ottawa in the summer months and, therefore, if you can arrange to take over from him some time in June or thereabouts it will fit in very nicely.

I am writing him a personal letter telling him of the proposed change and informing him that he will probably hear from you shortly regarding the date on which you will report to Prague. When I am informed of the outcome of your informal correspondence, I shall then write official letters to the Paris Embassy and to Prague regarding the move.

On the second point about your parents accompanying you to Prague for a short stay, I can see no objection to this provided, of course, that it does not involve any additional charges on the public purse. If it was your intention to have this matter explored from the financial standpoint, it would be better if you were to raise it in more specific terms that I could refer to the Finance Division for consideration.

I hope that you are happy about this projected move. Certainly there was no wish on anybody's part here to assign you to a difficult post following the NATO course and if you have a change of heart about going, please do not hesitate to write me.

When you write me again, will you be good enough to let me know the date that the first NATO course terminates and approximately when the second will begin. I have not made much headway yet in naming someone to attend the latter.

The latest reports from the Civil Service Commission are that about eighty-eight persons qualified for the Oral (on the basis of the 65 per cent pass mark). This figure does not include those who wrote from within the Department. I understand that twelve of those who qualify are in London and four are in Paris and that you are likely to be invited by the Civil Service Commission, along with Dr. Ault who is at the I.D.C. in London, to serve on the Oral Board, which will possibly be set up in London some time in late February or early March. I hope that you will find it convenient to arrange to take a couple of days off as it would be a great comfort to everyone here to know that you were serving on the Board.

You may possibly have heard that poor Langlois was found dead on the beach of Vancouver Island. He had been missing from Royal Roads for some time when he was found. I believe that the competition was too much for him.

By now you will probably have seen Bruce. If you see him again after receiving this letter, please give him my best regards and tell him we miss him.

With kindest regards.

Yours sincerely,

E.W.T. Gill

Dear Ivan,

Thank you for your very considerate letter. Jules has also written concerning the Prague appointment.

My first reaction was one of concern about conditions in Prague but now my answer is this: I am honored that you have considered me and if the Under Secretary, yourself and the others concerned feel that in my ignorance of central european and communist affairs in general I can be useful in Prague (more useful than in Washington after the course I am now following), I am most certainly interested in the appointment.

Should the U/S be prepared to consider me I have to raise two points

a) would it be possible to allow me to complete the course. This is not essential but having started on this thing, I have the natural desire of seeing it through.

b) my parents who are now with me are a bit concerned (this is an understatement) about my going to Prague. If I could take them with me for a month or so, they would return to Canada in a better state of mind and I would feel better knowing that they are less concerned.

Once the marking of the papers is over, the back of the competition is broken. The rest is more interesting and I am glad to learn that you and Jules will be available for the oral boards. One thing that occurs to me is that the method selected of marking papers does not always allow the examiners to get a picture of the candidate's values as a whole. You might find it profitable, in marginal cases to have some papers read by one or two examiners with the particular point in mind.

I look forward to seeing Bruce again. I have missed his cheerfulness and good counsel during these last months.

Many thanks again for your thoughtfulness and good luck in your present assignment.

Marcel

Dear Marcel,

I was delighted to get your interesting letter about the NATO Defence Course and I have given it limited circulation amongst your former colleagues here - Arnold, Bert and Bruce. They were all very interested to have your comments on the course.

Regarding your future, I cannot be very specific at this time but I can tell you that you are being considered for a posting, perhaps a short one, in Europe before proceeding to Washington.

One alternative is the NATO Delegation. As you may know, it has been decided in principle to separate the duties of NATO representation from Canada House and to establish a separate mission. At the moment, however, there does not seem to be a vacancy for one of your seniority and it looks as though nothing may come of this as far as you are concerned. However, I thought you would like to know confidentially that it is a possibility.

The other possibility is to have you replace Ben Rogers at Prague. Jules suggested that you might be interested in this and I have decided that I should ask you for your views before putting it up to the Under-Secretary. If it appeals to you, I should think that it could be arranged. If, on the other hand, it does not, then it need not go any further. Could you let me have some expression of opinion soon. I have in mind a short posting of a year to a year and a half.

Marcel Cadieux, Esq.,

PARIS, France.

The marking of the examination papers has gone quite well. About 250 have written and the work is nearly complete. The technique used this year was to have one officer mark the same question on all papers, e.g. Plumptre to mark the Economic question; Miss Ireland the Commonwealth question and so on. All high and borderline papers were selected for re-marking.

We expect to finish this part of the exercise by mid-January and steps are being taken to set up the Oral Boards. Present indications are that Jules and I will act throughout. The quality of the written papers is not above average - about 9 are over 80% and 39 are between 70% and 80%. Of the total about 43 papers are French.

Things are going well. Bruce is leaving shortly and we will miss him very much. In fact, I have some concern that we will be very short-handed in the Division in the next few weeks.

With kindest regards.

Yours sincerely,

To see & return

Paris, Dec. 26th. 1951.

My dear colleague,

As I did not wish to write about first impressions, I decided to wait until we had completed our first problem. We are now on leave until the 3rd Jan. and I feel that I am now in a better position to let you know how the course is developing.

The college is physically located in one of the landmarks of Paris the famous Ecole Militaire. Even now it houses all the staff courses of some description which are given by the French services. Our particular show is in the right wing and there is no space to spare. On the opening day all the arrangements had been completed. The walls had been painted, there was new green steel furniture everywhere, all the equipment was available. For the French administration this represents a sort of miracle and leads me to suspect that the commandant, Admiral Lemonnier has intervened energetically. In fact the sanitary facilities are brand new and in perfect working condition: I have not seen anything comparable anywhere in France. The mess is very nicely run: the meals are incredibly cheap and excellent. The silverware and the china have been provided by the French Admiralty from their special reserve: another proof of The Commandant's influence.

The whole complement of auditeurs has been divided into 9 committees each with an instructor. Each committee has 6 members of various nationality: there is a desk for each auditeur and a conference table in the committee room. Generally, in the morning there is a lecture at 9.30 which lasts an hour. There is a 10 minute break followed by a question period of an hour. Then, about noon, three committees form a discussion group where students argue various points which may have arisen in the course of the lecture or of the 600 question period. At one we adjourn for lunch in the mess. And committee work is resumed at 2 until 5. We are supposed to have lunch at the mess. In fact during the one hour break there is not much time to go anywhere.

So far we have had a very impressive list of lecturers. Three star generals or admirals have been the rule. We have thus heard Admiral Carney of the Sixth fleet, Général Sweeney (Lemay's assistant) Norstadt (in charge of the tactical air force) Juin who commands the land forces. We have also had the famous American expert on the U.S.S.R. Kennan who came from the states for the purpose. Spofford the chairman of the council of deputies, Air Marshall Saunders have also spoken their piece. The level of lectures has been very high as you can see. The discussion periods as well as the questions have been searching and most useful. (You can therefore understand my amazement when I was told by Ernest Cote that he had been given the task of speaking on Canada: I have nothing against Ernest but I feel most strongly that word must be sent to Mr Wilgress that under the circumstances ⁿthis appears to me like a clear mistake in tactics).

The first problem, I felt, was really one for a staff college. We were given the task of moving a number of divisions and air wings from the U.S.A, Canada, the U.K. to various points in Europe. We were told where these units were to be sent. The problem was to figure out what would be the most efficient way of moving them given the shipping available and to point out the political implications. The purpose of the exercise was I suppose to stimulate thought on the problems of transportation of large units and in particular to remind officers of the implications of such moves in fields other than their own. I am pleased to report that the solution recommended by my committee was the one selected for presentation and discussion after the Xmas holidays. The directing staff must have felt that given the preponderance of students from the services the first exercise should be presented in terms familiar to them. The next problem which will involve a discussion of the relative economic position of the Soviet bloc and of the Atlantic nations should be more stimulating. We are to have 6 in all e.g. about one a month.

You have already gathered, I am sure, that I am impressed by the admiral. Not only has he been most concerned about getting the college ready in time but he attends nearly every lecture and quite often he intervenes to thank the lecturer and to summarize the main points that seem to emerge from the discussion. I find that nearly always his remarks are illuminating and more useful than the lecture itself almost. He is a very congenial man and he has contributed in many ways to the good and friendly atmosphere which prevails in the college. We have had a number of staff parties at the college and we visit each other at home. The other members of the directing staff are distinguished but I have had less opportunity of making an opinion about their individual contribution. There is the French air force General Stelin who is directly involved in the negotiations concerning the European army; Commander Ross of the British navy has displayed the traditional sense of humor of his race; the American General Carroway behaves like the Prefet de discipline in our Quebec colleges but his interventions are always intelligent. All told, I have the impression that they take their assignment most seriously and that they are genuinely concerned about the purpose of the college. They are still feeling their way about but in a year or two the course should be quite efficient and useful.

My committee consisted of an Italian Colonel, a Norwegian air force Lt colonel, an American navy Captain and a French air force colonel. All the other committees are a similar mixture of nationality and experience. We have not been long enough together to have developed a team spirit or anything which could be characteristic of the college. In fact, in dealing with the first problem we all pretty well stuck to our own fields: the navy captain to the movement of ships, the air force colonels to the air wings and myself to the political, economic implications that I could see. We have got acquainted and in this lies perhaps the best advantage of the college, so far. I can see also that the course may have a broadening effect on both officers and the civilians in that we learn to appreciate each others problems and methods of work: this however would not be characteristic of the college. As a result of the first problem, we are all beginning to develop ideas on how such committees should be run, how work should be divided up, how the schedule should be drawn up. There is no doubt that gradually some lessons will emerge on how to get the best out of international teams. The chief of Staff of General Juin at Fontainebleau was telling us that this is a very hard nut to crack and that so far he had found that an international team is much less efficient than a national one just to mention one of the problems. Judging from what I have seen at the college I can well imagine how right he is.

The Canadians have been doing all right. There is Lt Col. Bennet who is a very smart young man. Commander Lucas has already created for himself a reputation of being full of common sense. Group Captain Carling Kelly who was formerly air attaché at the Embassy is really much better than he seems. He is keen and hard working. I am satisfied that our people are in every way just as capable and useful at the college than those of the other nations. The American lot does not seem too impressive to me in comparison with the British or the French teams. Of the smaller nations I am very favourably impressed by the Norwegians.

The college is finding some difficulty in solving the language problem. There are professional translators for the lectures and the question periods but none are available for the discussion groups and the committee work. Besides, the professional translators are not always very good particularly as they have to deal with somewhat technical language. I have been able to be of some assistance in doing translation work when the professionals are not available but there is no doubt that the work of the college would be simplified and each student would get more out of it if all were fully bilingual. I know how difficult it is to get bilingual personnel but if the experiment is worth anything it would seem that in NATO generally we would get an influence out of all proportion to our investment if we were to develop our supply of bilingual officers. In any case so far as the college is concerned, I think that we should send preferably officers with this qualification. What I have seen here confirms me in my conviction that we should encourage our foreign service officers to become bilingual when they first come to Ottawa and can expect to remain one year, one year and a half in a city where there are ample facilities for learning French.

In less than four months the course will have been completed. This means that fairly soon I will have to worry about the sale of my car and the termination of my lease. I assume that my destination is still Washington but I would like to receive confirmation before I make any move. I can well understand that I may be needed somewhere else and naturally would be prepared to go wherever I am told to go but I would like some notice.

You will soon have to give consideration to the selection of my successor at the college. Unless like myself he has been away from political stuff for a long while or he is being trained for a particular assignment, there would be no need for him to be of F.S.O. 5 caliber. A good 4 or a very smart 3 would be adequate considering the type of problems and the level of the students. There are no brigadiers like at the National defence college and judging by the nature of the work the most senior type of officers are not required. I myself think that this may be a mistake. At this stage the idea is to develop a Nato doctrine, more senior personnel should have been sent. Later on when all the senior people in each nato country have been indoctrinated it would have been possible to send less senior people. This is a point which might well be discussed at the deputies level when they consider the annual report from the commands.

I can well imagine the tremendous advantages to be gained from a college which would convene some of the very senior people in the nato countries for a six month seminar.

So far, the lecturers have dealt with the three services, combined operations, problems of organization and the like. The main problem which has emerged seems to have been that of dealing with a soviet push on land where our superior navy cannot help very much and when our air force will have more than enough to defend itself against the numerically superior Soviet air arm. I have the impression that the americain rely to a very large extent on the tactical use of atomic weapons. They are never really explicit on the point and I cannot help but feel that we are being explained a difficult game without being told all the rules. In any case I propose to enquire to what extent there will be lectures and discussions on atomic problems.

I was delighted to hear that Herb has finally been able to leave for his tour of our missions in Latin America. With his experience and keen eye he should gain a great deal from it and he is in the unique position of being able to do something himself on his return about the things he will find. This is the ideal solution to send on such tours the very persons who are responsible for implementing any recommendations.

By now you are concerned I suppose with the marking of the F.S.O papers. The few candidates over here who have spoken to me about it have been satisfied with it but they did not feel that it was easy. I hope that you like the job and that you have happily resumed your connexions with Ottawa.

With best personal regards,

Manuel

Dear Mr. Heeney,

Many thanks for your kind letter of October 4, 1951, enclosing copy of Mr. Bland's letter concerning my work as Personnel Officer. I have also seen the minutes of the meeting of the heads of division of September 24, 1951. I have retrospectively blushed my best purple.

You and Herb have been most considerate and generous in dealing with me. You have both guided, assisted and inspired me throughout my stay in the Personnel Division. It was a great privilege and pleasure to work with you and Herb. I could not wish for my successor better chiefs and for myself a better future than another opportunity of being associated with you.

I was particularly delighted to read Mr. Bland's letter. As you know, our relations with the Civil Service Commission have not always been too harmonious. I must say that over the last few years they have become indeed cooperative and helpful. I have come to regard the officials of the Commission as our friends and associates in a common undertaking rather than, as formerly, our arrant enemies. (I wish Herb could have persuaded me also that I should have adopted the same views about Treasury Board.)

My main concern will be to serve the Department to the best of my ability in the hope that I may not deceive the confidence that you and Herb have so generously placed in me.

Yours sincerely

Dear Marcel,

I am of course delighted to be able to forward to you, as I now do, a copy of a letter dated September 18, 1951 from the Chairman of the Civil Service Commission concerning your work as Head of the Personnel Division of the Department. It is, I am sure, a rare thing for the Commission to write in this way about a departmental personnel officer. The fact that they have done so in your case gives me more hope for the Commission!

It was good of you to leave with me a copy of Embruns which I had read in an earlier version. You threaten soon to have a whole shelf to your credit.

I hope you enjoy your term at the NATO Defence College. You will on your side, I know, make a real contribution there.

Once more my greetings. We shall not forget lightly your accomplishments and we shall miss you sorely.

Dear General Vanier,

The Under-Secretary has this morning sent you a telegram concerning Marcel Cadieux. It is our intention that he should be posted to the staff of the Paris Embassy and be accorded full diplomatic privileges. When the course at the NATO Defence College commences, which is tentatively scheduled for early November, Cadieux will be attached from your Embassy to the College and will remain there for the duration of the course.

We have two purposes in sending him to France several weeks in advance of the opening of the College. First, it will enable him to acquire some firsthand knowledge of current developments in France, through contacts with members of the French Foreign Office and through conversations with members of your staff and perusal of the Embassy files. This experience will undoubtedly assist him at the NATO Defence College. Our second reason is that the Under-Secretary is anxious that Cadieux have some time together with Evan Gill who, as you know, will replace Cadieux as Head of our Personnel Division. We have suggested to Gill that he go to Paris when he can be conveniently spared from Canada House to spend a week or two with Cadieux and also to visit one or two European missions in addition to your Embassy.

As Cadieux will be with you only little more than a month before he proceeds to the NATO Defence College and as he will have to devote some time during

I understand that Marcel Cadieux is leaving the Personnel Division for other duties. Before he goes I should like to pass on to you my impression that he has developed into one of the best Personnel Officers in the Government Service.

I know that he has stayed in this type of work with some reluctance, but in spite of this he has been able to make great progress in improving the personnel policies and practices of the Department. Subject.....Appointment of Mr. M. Cadieux as First Secretary.

I note with pleasure the appointment of Mr. M. Cadieux as First Secretary while attending the first course of NATO College in Paris. We shall be glad to have him on the Embassy staff even if only nominally.

2. As for any practical suggestions regarding this appointment, mentioned in your paragraph No. 4, I have none to offer at present. Presumably attendance at the NATO College will be, and it certainly should be, a full time occupation in which case no question arises about duties at the Embassy or (a much more difficult question) office accommodation. It may be that developments at the College will be of interest to the Embassy and the Department and that Mr. Cadieux should undertake some reporting. However, this and other possible additional duties can be worked out as we go along. The fundamental assumption should be, I think, that attending the NATO course will be a full time job. If this assumption proves to be wrong we will have no difficulty in assigning supplementary duties.

Value of car. $3400

When this information is received, I shall advise our agents who have a representative in Le Havre, in order that arrangements may be made with the customs authorities for the temporary clearance at Le Havre of your car. Under this temporary clearance arrangement, you will be granted a temporary licence for the car which contains a "WW" number valid for approximately ten days. Then when you arrive in Paris, we shall arrange for one of the chauffeurs of the Embassy to take the car to the customs authorities for final clearance and for the issue of the permanent licence plate. This is the normal arrangement for persons having diplomatic status for whom a CD licence is granted. Otherwise for persons not having diplomatic status, a "TT" licence is issued. In either event there should be little difficulty in making the arrangements for the importation of your car. Our agents in Le Havre will of course assist you with the question of having your car unloaded from the ship and seeing that it is processed through customs.

As you know, we have an arrangement for obtaining petrol at a reduced price in France and since I understand that Jean Fournier will be meeting you at Le Havre, I shall provide him with sufficient petrol coupons for the journey from Le Havre to Paris. It will probably be necessary for you to obtain a French driving licence and it will be helpful if you could bring with you an Ontario driving licence to present to the French authorities. It may be necessary to take a driving test.

Normally the procedure for persons with diplomatic status is that they are permitted to obtain an import licence in order to sell their car for francs after they have owned and operated it for one year in France. In addition a diplomat may obtain an import licence and dispose of the car on cessation of his diplomatic functions without observing the requirement of ownership of the car for the full year. This latter provision would apply in your case provided that you will have diplomatic status. Members of the diplomatic missions who are not diplomats, but who are nationals of the country they represent may dispose of their car and obtain an import licence at the discretion of the French authorities. No time limit is provided, but normally the French will issue an import licence after two years ownership of a car or on transfer of the employee to another country.

I hope these few notes will be of some assistance to you, but if there is any other problem which occurs to you, please let me know and I shall be glad to give you as much information as I can. In the meantime, I shall await the details of your car requested above.

Yours sincerely,

I thought you would be interested in learning that I overheard very favourable comments about your talk during my subsequent associations with the Syracuse University Group. Several of them mentioned it later in the day and pointed out that it had added depth to their previous studies of Canadian themes.

It was good of you to devote time to this event and your cooperation contributed greatly to the effectiveness of the "Canadian Affairs Workshop" in which the group of teachers was engaged.

MEMORANDUM FOR MR. MORAN

1. Phillips told me Monday that courses at the NATO College are now scheduled to begin on October 15th next. This was fortunate as I was on the point of giving notice to my landlord that I would vacate the apartment by the end of August. As it is now, I will keep it until the end of September.

2. Unless a miracle happens, I will probably have to cease functioning because of hay fever any time between now and the 15th of August. Then, depending on how hard I am hit, I may have to be away until the 10th of September. In any case, as soon as I am in working condition, I will come back.

3. The present plans call for my leaving Ottawa about the end of September: I would like to be in Paris about a week before the courses begin, particularly if I have to find accommodation. If board and lodging are provided at the College, I will take a few days' leave on arrival in Paris. Having renewed my acquaintance with France, I shall be able to concentrate on college work with a freer mind.

Cher monsieur Monette,

J'ai le grand plaisir de vous faire savoir que nous nous retrouverons à Paris cet automne. Le Ministère a décidé de m'envoyer comme élève au Collège NATO, dont les cours doivent commencer à Paris le ou vers le 15 octobre prochain. Je ne sais pas encore exactement où les cours seront donnés, ni à quelle date ils doivent commencer, mais je fais déjà mes préparatifs de départ.

Il se peut que nous soyons logés et nourris au Collège. Mais pour le cas où nous devrions nous trouver des appartements, il se peut que je doive plus tard recourir à vos bons offices. Peut-être, si nous ne sommes pas logés au Collège, et si vous devez venir au Canada à l'automne ou au début de l'hiver, envisageriez-vous la sous-location des locaux que vous occupez dans le moment? A tout événement, nous aurons sans doute un peu plus tard l'occasion de reparler de ces choses.

Je voulais tout simplement vous annoncer cette nouvelle et saisir cette occasion pour vous dire tout le plaisir que j'aurai de vous retrouver d'ici quelques mois. Normalement, je devrais être à Paris au tout début du mois d'octobre.

Quelqu'un me disait l'autre jour que Madame Monette ne va pas très bien et que, en fait, elle serait déjà revenue au Canada. J'espère qu'il n'en est rien, mais si tel était le cas, vous m'obligeriez en me donnant son adresse à Montréal, pour que je puisse aller la voir et lui présenter mes hommages, si elle reçoit des visiteurs.

Bien cordialement,

Monsieur Antoine Monette,
Ambassade du Canada,
Paris, France.

MEMORANDUM TO THE MINISTER OF EXTERNAL AFFAIRS AND THE TREASURY BOARD

Section 68 of P.C. 2/5162 of October 27, 1950 permits the deputy head to authorize an advance of $1000 to officers of this department appointed to a post abroad to assist them in purchasing clothing and other personal accessories. Mr. M. Cadieux, Foreign Service Officer Grade IV, is proceeding to Paris, France, on posting and has sought to obtain an additional loan of $500 to be repaid concurrently with the normal advance of $1000 over an 18-month period.

As in the case of several members of this department who have been posted abroad recently, Mr. Cadieux has found he is unable from his own resources to meet all the expenses he is called upon to incur as a result of his posting.

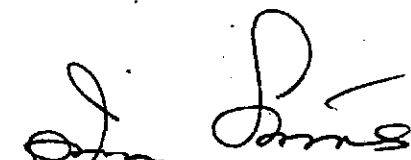

To purchase the articles considered essential to the performance of his duties in Paris, Mr. Cadieux has found it necessary to incur expenses in excess of $2500. Some of these expenses he has been able to finance privately. The attached submission, therefore, seeks authority to grant Mr. Cadieux an advance of $500 in addition to the advance which the department has authority to make to him under the provisions of P.C. 2/5162 of October 27, 1950.

CERTIFICATION AS TO AVAILABILITY OF FUNDS

This is to certify that there are sufficient funds available in departmental appropriations to cover the cost of the expenditure recommended in the attached submission.

RECOMMENDATION TO THE TREASURY BOARD

The undersigned recommends that an advance of $500 be made to Marcel Cadieux, Esquire, Foreign Service Officer Grade IV, who is proceeding to Paris, France on posting, such advance being in addition to and granted under the same conditions as the advance of $1000 which is normally provided to officers of this Department by Section 68 of P.C. 2/5162 of October 27, 1950.

MEMORANDUM FOR PROTOCOL DIVISION

I have been nominated as a student for the first course of NATO College which is scheduled to begin in Paris on or about September 1st. It has been decided by the Under-Secretary that this would be considered as a posting. The course is expected to last six months.

2. The question arises as to what will be my status while in France. It may be that I will merely be listed as another First Secretary on the staff of the Embassy. On the other hand, as the College is located in France, the French authorities may have different views as to the status of the career diplomats who may be appointed as civilian students on this course. I should be grateful if you would endeavour to clear up this matter, in consultation perhaps with Defence Liaison (Mr. Kidd), so that no particular problems will arise when I reach Paris. If the students are to receive food and accommodation from NATO authorities, it is not so important, in the case of career diplomats, that they should be entitled to diplomatic privileges. On the other hand, if students are required to fend for themselves, and to do some entertaining in their residence, it seems obvious to me that the question of whether or not they have diplomatic privileges is likely to have some importance.

3. It is expected that I will be leaving Ottawa not later than the middle of next month. In view of the short time remaining before my departure, I should be grateful if you would consider this problem at your early convenience.

JOHN STARNES

I find that the course at the NATO College is scheduled to begin on or about September 1, 1951. It is not clear from the files whether meals and lodging will be provided by the college: I think no because the financial arrangements approved for the college specify that the salary, allowances and subsistence of students will be provided in the national budgets.

2. I assume, therefore, that I will have to find accommodation in Paris. Such being the case, I think that I should plan on being in Paris about a week at least before the course begins, e.g. August 25th or 26th. I should appreciate receiving your approval for this tentative plan which will involve my leaving Ottawa about August 11th: sailings at that time are:

August 17th - Empress of Scotland: due Liverpool August 24th;
August 15th - Ascania: due Liverpool August 23rd;
August 18th - Mauretania (New York) due Le Havre, August 24th.

"Premières armes"

de Marcel Cadieux

"Premières Armes" sont les souvenirs d'un jeune diplomate canadien qui part pour Londres en pleine guerre, pour occuper ensuite un poste à l'ambassade du Canada à Bruxelles, et qui découvre les joies et les difficultés de sa profession.

M. Cadieux ne pouvait se permettre d'écrire des mémoires: il se serait alors exposé à des difficultés insurmontables pour un diplomate. Ou bien, en écrivant les mémoires, il aurait dû présenter les événements sans souci d'impartialité et faire oeuvre de pamphlétaire. Ou alors, il aurait édulcoré son ouvrage en se défendant d'interpréter, par souci exagéré de n'être qu'un témoin qui se refuse à juger.

M. Cadieux a su admirablement éviter ces deux écueils en présentant un ouvrage qui veut surtout faire connaître la profession à laquelle il s'est dévoué en illustrant par des anecdotes les principaux aspects de la vie et du travail des tropole pour entrer au ministère des Affaires extérieures.

A la suite d'un stage d'environ un an la Division du Protocole, sous la direction de M. Laurent Beaudry, Monsieur Cadieux est nommé secrétaire du Comité de la guerre psychologique. Il part pour l'Angleterre au début de 1944 pour prendre le poste de secrétaire au Haut-Commissariat du Canada à Londres. Au cours de l'été de la même année, il est nommé observateur canadien à la Conférence des ministres de l'Éducation des Gouvernements alliés, et représentant du Haut-Commissariat auprès de l'Organisation de l'Information des Nations Unies. M. Cadieux est transféré à Bruxelles au début de 1945, et, avant son retour au Canada en 1947, il assiste à la conférence de la Paix, à Paris, comme conseiller de la délégation du Canada.

Revenu à Ottawa en mars 1947, M. Cadieux est d'abord chargé de nos relations avec l'Unesco, dans la Division des Nations Unies. Après un court stage à la section américaine de la Division de l'Amérique et de l'Extrême-Orient, il devient adjoint exécutif du sous-ministre, en août 1947, et Secrétaire de la Commission du personnel et de l'organisation, ainsi que secrétaire du Comité consultatif de l'énergie atomique. En 1948, il passe à la Division du Personnel dont il est nommé Directeur en janvier de l'année suivante.

L'année dernière, M. Cadieux a publié un ouvrage intitulé: "Le Ministre des Affaires extérieures. Conseils aux étudiants qui se destinent à la carrière". Son dernier livre: "Premières Armes", que Le Cercle du Livre de France est heureux de présenter aux lecteurs canadiens, s'adresse à un public plus large qui s'intéresse à la vie et au travail de nos représentants à l'étranger.

diplomates qui vont en poste à l'étranger. Il nous offre un ouvrage vivant, bourré de faits et de renseignements qui seront d'une immense utilité à tous ceux que tente ou intéresse la carrière diplomatique.

Écrit dans une langue souple, rapide, nerveuse, ce volume d'impressions et d'anecdotes place M. Cadieux au tout premier rang des écrivains canadiens de sa génération.

Marcel Cadieux

Marcel Cadieux est né et a fait ses études à Montréal. En 1936 il obtient le grade de bachelier ès arts et de licencié en sciences sociales, politiques et économiques à l'Université de Montréal. Il poursuit ensuite ses études à la même université jusqu'au grade de licencié en droit, qu'il obtient en 1939.

Après une année d'études de spécialisation en droit constitutionnel à l'Université McGill, M. Cadieux devient membre du Barreau et pratique le droit à Montréal jusqu'en 1941, alors qu'il quitte la mé-

MEMORANDUM FOR THE UNDER-SECRETARY

Yesterday afternoon, Dr. Ault, Director of Personnel Selection in the Civil Service Commission, telephoned me to say that the plan and arrangements made by the Department of External Affairs for the reduction of staff pursuant to the Cabinet directive, were the tidiest of any Department in Ottawa.

MM

I had very little to do with this matter, apart from going over and approving the general plan and arrangements. Therefore, Ault's unsolicited statement is a tribute to the work of Cadieux and Williams. As the Minister is always interested in his Department's record vis-à-vis other Departments, you may think it appropriate to mention the work of these two officers to him on some occasion.

In another 36 hours we will be in Japan and will begin our new existence there. I'll try to find time to write you when we get settled & I have a chance to look 'round. Now, however, I am cleaning my slate of Christmas mail, & thought I had better send you a note now rather than rely on the indefinite future.

We have had a surprisingly good trip. We had been rather dreading it with two small children and ominous reports of rough weather. But things have turned out well. The President Lines gave us an extra adjoining cabin so that we have been able to put the children to sleep. That has made a world of difference on a 16 day trip. Then the sea has been reasonably well behaved, the sun has been bright many days and we have had congenial fellow passengers. Scotts drove us around in San Francisco and were kind. In Los Angeles and in Honolulu we rented Hertz Drive-yourself cars and saw all we wanted with the children.

Best wishes to you for 1951

Sincerely
Arthur.

MEMORANDUM FOR MR. MORAN

I have given some thought lately to a possible replacement for the officers who are now in the Personnel Division and I should like to have your views on some schemes that have occurred to me in this regard.

2. The first to go, I think, should be Mr. McIlwraith, who has had as yet no experience abroad. As a replacement I suggest Langley, a good officer, now in the European Division but due for a transfer at the end of November.

3. I suggest that Langley should come to the Personnel Division at the end of November and overlap for a couple of months with McIlwraith, until we complete the arrangements contemplated concerning the promotion policy for the clerical staff. Then McIlwraith should spend about a month in the U.N. Division, prior to his transfer to Geneva, where he could give badly needed assistance to Mr. Berlis. Mr. McIlwraith would prefer a posting in Europe and I think that he would be quite agreeable to Geneva.

4. The second to go should be Mr. Williams. As replacement, I suggest Jean Cote, on the grounds that he is of about the same seniority as Bruce, that he likes people, is hard working and likely to remain in Ottawa for two or three years. I take into account also the probability that I will be replaced by an English-speaking officer. Mr. Williams expects to complete the work on the whole establishment of the Department by late Spring. Cote could then come to the Division and replace Bruce, after a period of overlap. In September, 1951, both Mr. Warren and Mr. Stephens will be due for home leave. Mr. Williams would like both London and The Hague and in my opinion he would be suitable for either post. Depending on the decision made as to his destination, Mr. Williams should spend some time in the Commonwealth or in the European Division before leaving.

5. If and when a post becomes open for which I am considered suitable, I suggest that Mr. R.G. Robertson, now in the Privy Council, might be appointed in my place. Mr. Robertson would like to return to the Department and he might be persuaded to accept, for 12 to 18 months, an appointment at Headquarters as Chief of the Personnel Division. I think that he should be brought back at the F.S.O. 5 level because he has been promoted consistently with Jules Leger. Mr. Robertson, in my view, has many of the qualities of a good personnel officer and my only concern really is that he may be too senior for the job. I cannot find, however, a better person to suggest for this position and the advantage of this scheme, from the point of view of timing, is that the move need not take place until an opening develops for myself.

*Watkins

6. I wish to emphasize that I am not agitating for a posting. On the contrary, I am quite prepared to remain in Ottawa as long as the Department feels that I can do a good job, either in the Personnel or in any other Division. From the point of view of the Department, however, there is an advantage, I think, in not leaving an officer too long in Personnel work. His prejudices are bound to affect his decisions and to have a bad effect in the long run. Furthermore, personnel work is in no way connected with policy work and it is not good for an officer to be taken away from this more important work for too long a period.

*The most important policy work in the Dept.
in the past 2 months has been in the Personnel Division. This perhaps is a hypothesis for
work.*

7. My main reason for suggesting changes is that both McIlwraith and Williams, for different reasons, in their own interests, would be transferred abroad fairly soon at this stage in their career and changes affecting these officers are obviously related to the headship of the Division.

M. Cadieux
Personnel Division.

Dear Mr. Davis,

Thank you for your letter of September 21 in which you report on the visit of Mr. Cadieux. I have shown your letter to the Under-Secretary and, as we both hold Cadieux in the highest regard, we were happy to learn of the favourable impression which he has made upon you.

He is, of course, one of our most effective and conscientious officers and we are extremely fortunate to have his services for the Personnel Division at this time when new procedures and personnel policies are being developed and when the most strenuous efforts have to be put forward to obtain the staff increases which we think are needed for our service.

Yours sincerely,

BONN, September 21, 1950

Dear Mr. Moran,

Marcel Cadieux has come and gone and I am writing you my impressions both of him and the results of his visit.

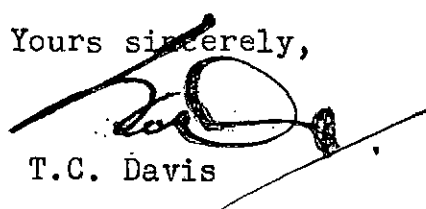

It is not necessary for me, I am sure, to recount to you the many excellent qualifications for his job exhibited by Mr. Cadieux. To say that we were thrilled with his visit is to put it mildly. He has an excellent conception of the organization of an office such as this and a splendid understanding of the functions of our setup in Germany.

He went to infinite trouble to have a personal chat with every member of the staff, discussing with them not only their work but their personal problems. He had a look at the living quarters of every member of the staff and his interest in their living conditions and in their personal problems made a very great contribution towards the building up of proper staff morale. I cannot commend him too highly for his whole approach to our problems.

As mentioned above, he gave every evidence of a wide knowledge of the functions and duties of a setup such as this and was most helpful to us. His discussions with us clarified our minds and clearly defined paths of activity which will be most helpful.

We are all very glad that he came and his trip was more than worth-while. I only hope that over the years to come, at appropriate intervals, either Mr. Cadieux or some day his successors in office, will make trips and contacts similar to those being made by him. I hope too that when he has a successor that he is as adequately fitted for the job as Mr. Cadieux gave every evidence of being. I trust that you will find these impressions helpful to you.

Yours sincerely,

T.C. Davis

MEMORANDUM FOR MR. CADIEUX

I am afraid this is the end of a beautiful story. You have already seen the attached documents, and the Editorial Committee at its meeting yesterday gave further careful consideration to the principle involved in publishing the article suggested by you. It was decided that on balance such an article lay beyond the purview of the bulletin.

In thanking you for the trouble which you have taken, and regretting the delay in reaching a firm decision, I am heartened by the thought that at least it will save you the task of preparing the article.

MEMORANDUM FOR MR. McINNES

I refer to the proposed article by Mr. Cadieux on the "Definition of a Canadian".

2. I have never had any doubts that, especially in his hands, such an article would be intensely interesting. My doubts were on the propriety of publishing such an article in "External Affairs". This publication, as I understand it, is primarily concerned with Canada's international interests and business and, as I said at the Committee meeting, it might be difficult to draw the line between this responsibility and the production of a magazine of general interest to Canadians, if we use its space for articles of this kind. I suggest that an analysis of Canadian art, the quality of debate in our House of Commons, the polyglot foreign press of Canada, and the scenery of the Rockies, would all have as much right to editorial approval for "External Affairs" as this article, but would be inappropriate for the same reasons.

I had just signed the attached memorandum of April 24 when I received your memorandum also of today's date. It is not for me to decide whether or not the article suggested would be in line with the policy of the Bulletin. It is even difficult for me to give you a rough idea or an outline of the article before I have examined the papers in question. However, having read a great many of the answers, the article, I expect, might be along the following lines:

- (1) Explain the basis of the article. It is in fact a survey on the "Definition of a Canadian" conducted at the graduate students' level;
- (2) Indicate how many candidates wrote the papers and how many answered the said question (break down figures by areas);
- (3) Outline the many approaches:
 - (a) Some candidates attempted to give a legal definition of a Canadian;
 - (b) Other candidates tried a psychological analysis of what, in their opinion, the Canadians are;
 - (c) Other candidates tried to estimate the influence of race and geographical factors in their analysis of the Canadian;
 - (d) Another group of candidates attempted instead to indicate what, in their opinion, Canadians ought to be;

I will attempt to give in each case the number of candidates who tried each approach and sometimes those who attempted all four;

- (4) In the conclusion, I would merely point out through the number of answers the interest that candidates have taken in the question. I would also indicate the number of candidates who stated their views on the difficulties involved in an attempt to define a Canadian. If a great many candidates have concentrated on one or two particular approaches, the significance of this might be underlined. Finally, I would attempt to list the points on which most candidates seemed to be in agreement as to what constitutes a Canadian.

It is possible, however, that in the light of the material available, the article might be prepared along somewhat different lines but the above constitutes what I would call a "provisional" working plan in reading the papers.

This sounds quite acceptable to me; and the question seems to be rather whether M. Cadieux has time to prepare the article. Yes.

With reference to your memorandum of March 16, 1950, concerning my suggestion that I might write an article on the "Definition of a Canadian" on the basis of answers given by candidates in the recent Foreign Service Officer competition, I am pleased to inform you that the Civil Service Commission have now given their approval to this project.

2. As it may be necessary for me to examine some 300 papers in order to prepare this survey, I should give you notice that it may take me some time before I can deliver this article.

MEMORANDUM FOR MR. CADIEUX

I refer to your proposal which was approved at the March 15 meeting of the Editorial Committee on "External Affairs", that answers to the question "How would you define a Canadian?", which was asked at the recent F.S.O. examination, be made into an article for the bulletin.

At its last meeting on April 19 the Committee considered this question further, and Mr. MacDermot suggested that in terms of the policy of the bulletin such an article might be regarded as of marginal value. Mr. Heeney commented as follows on the minutes of the meeting: "This might prove controversial." Mr. Reid commented as follows: "I am inclined to agree with Mr. MacDermot."

The Committee still feels that the proposal is well worth pursuing but, since it is aware that you are extremely pressed for time, I am instructed to ask you whether you would be prepared to furnish an outline only of the proposed article for further consideration by the Committee.

Your suggestion that candidates' answers to the question "How would you define a Canadian?" in the recent F. S. O. exam be edited into an article on the characteristics of Canadian democracy was considered at a recent meeting of the Editorial Committee.

The Committee welcomed the suggestion and I was instructed to ask you if you would be kind enough to prepare such an article for examination by the Committee.

The Committee suggested that in the preparation of the article no secret should be made of the source of the opinions and the circumstances under which they were expressed.

Your telegram No. 155 of January 19th. Concur in proposed changes. Am arranging for expedition of LePan's release and shall be very glad indeed to have him on my staff. In view of excellent work which Cadieux had been doing during last year, would venture to express hope that his transference to Brussels would involve his promotion. Ends.

Dear Mr. Robertson,

I have your letter of January 8th regarding annual reports on members of my staff.

Reports were not forwarded in October last because it was only in June that I sent you confidential reports on the administrative and clerical staff. I also sent you reports on the three members of the secretarial staff who arrived in February: Messrs. Scott, Cadieux and Bell. I have nothing to add to the reports on these officers then submitted except that their work has been increasingly satisfactory. It is too early to send you a report on Holmes, of whose work I have high hopes.

In the circumstances I should be grateful if you would inform me whether it would be agreeable to you if the submission of further reports could be postponed until October.

Yours sincerely,

Sgd.

We intend to replace Stone by transferring Dupuy to London where he will be Minister to the Netherlands Government and Charge d'Affaires to the other Allied Governments in London.

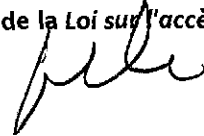

2. I am most anxious to provide Turgeon with all necessary assistance in Brussels and suggest that Cadieux proceed to Brussels shortly before Dupuy leaves. Cadieux would be replaced at Canada House by LePan upon his release from the Armed Forces.

3. I will appreciate your comments and also any arrangements you can make with CMHQ to expedite release of LePan. I suggest he should be granted his discharge in London so that he can immediately assume duties at Canada House. Ends.

Dear Marcel,

I was very interested to receive your letter of November 9th. I have shown it to the Under-Secretary and Mr. Matthews, both of whom are appreciative of your attitude. I think that it ought to be possible to comply with your wish to remain at Canada House for a year or two. I was very glad to learn that you have really established yourself in London and are liking the life there. I am sure that the systematic way in which you are studying British affairs will be of value both to yourself and to the Service.

I think that I can/in general that the Department would favour granting your wish to spend your leave in Canada. The difficulty would relate to the granting of air priority for this purpose. Unless there is great congestion at the time when your leave falls due, I shall support a plea for air priority on your behalf.

Have you met my sister-in-law and any of my nieces and nephews during your visit to Oxford? I think that I gave you a letter of introduction. I have heard about you more than once from my sister in London but she is, of course, at present in Africa and will, I imagine, remain there still for some months.

Yours ever,

Personal

Dear Mr. Wrong,

Thank you indeed for your very kind letter of November 3rd 1944. It was a great pleasure for me to learn that my reports were well received in Ottawa.

As to my inclination about posts, I must confess that I do not feel ready for a change yet. I have just settled here and I do like it very much. Over week-ends I travel as much as possible and have already spent some time visiting colleges in Oxford and Cambridge. I read a good deal of history and of the literature and art of this country. My idea is that this may eventually help me to understand better the domestic policy here which, as you may have noticed, I am gradually endeavouring to cover in its various aspects by series of despatches dealing with reconstruction. When I am familiar with domestic policy my intention is then to switch gradually to foreign policy which I hope to be in a position to know, so to speak, from the inside.

While I am trying to learn the background of British domestic policy I am at the same time interested in finding out from my own experience here how one should go about studying a country for the purposes of the Service. The process has just started and if I were to move now to a new post I would have the impression of leaving unfinished an interesting experiment.

Furthermore, my knowledge of the country is still sketchy and rather bookish and my value elsewhere would perhaps be less than if I had remained here long enough to be better acquainted with her problems. I have now more than ever the opportunity, and feel the urge, to meet people. This is a broadening experience which may also increase my usefulness to the Department.

Provided my superiors here feel that my presence in London is useful from their point of view and, I presume, subject to the requirements of the service, I should be perfectly satisfied to remain here for a year or two.

While I have the opportunity of writing to you on personal matters there is a point which I may perhaps be permitted to mention because it affects my work. I should greatly appreciate being given permission to spend my leave in Canada while, under the special arrangements now obtaining, this can be done without cost. This would give me an opportunity of renewing my contacts with old friends and of bringing myself up to date with recent developments in Canada.

I am very grateful for the encouragement which you have given me and for the kind interest which you have taken in my inclinations with regard to possible transfers. This has renewed my determination to do my best to prove equal to the understanding and generosity which, I am sure, inspired what you said about my work and prospects in the Service.

Yours sincerely,

W. Cadell

PERSONAL

Ottawa, November 3rd, 1944.

Dear Marcel,

I have had in mind for a long time to send you a personal line but as usual these things get put off. I do want you to know that we appreciate the careful and thorough work you are doing in the way of reporting. Probably not much comes in the way of replies to your reports on particular problems concerning development and reconstruction since these are matters on which we are usually not in a position to take much initiative in this Department. I am sure, however, that your reports are appreciated and used in other Departments. You have certainly got over any difficulties you had when you first joined the Department over writing the English language and I think that no one could tell now that it was not your mother tongue.

I have been wondering what your inclinations would be when the time comes for you to move to another post. You have already had quite a dose of life in London under peculiarly trying conditions. When more missions are re-opened in Europe and also when we begin to benefit from our recruiting scheme from people in the forces, there will be opportunities of movement. You, I know, understand that I am not in any position to promise anything but if you have a strong urge in any particular direction I should like to know it. It is generally much more satisfactory to send someone to a place where he wants to go.

Finally, as they may not say these things to you themselves, I feel at liberty to say to you that Messrs. Massey, Hudd and Ritchie have all spoken very warmly to me about your work and your personality during their visits to Canada this year and I am sure that they would all agree that you have a useful and interesting career in front of you in our Service and that you will rise in it to posts of high responsibility.

Yours ever,

Mr Marcel Cadieux

3rd Secy

Since his appointment to this office Mr Cadieux has been obliged to spend a considerable amount of his time on matters concerned with psychological warfare. Despite his pre-occupation with this work he has been able, through great application and a high degree of industry, to address himself to other tasks, in which he has shown intelligence, resourcefulness and initiative. I am much impressed by Mr Cadieux's intellectual quality. He has wide interests, an enquiring mind, and good judgment. These are qualities which should make him, as he matures, a valuable member of our diplomatic service. I am very glad that with the arrival of Mr Stone it will be possible shortly for Mr Cadieux to spend all his time on normal diplomatic activities.

Report on Marcel Cadieux.

I regard Cadieux as a very promising young man, with good prospects of a fine career in one service. He has a pleasant personality, good appearance, and attractive manners. He is growing intellectually with continued progress. I feel sure he will benefit by a term of service at Canada House; he has never crossed the Atlantic before. Particularly I like his attitude on French-English relations in Canada. He is both a good Canadian and a good French Canadian, and his mind dwells constantly on means to improve the present situation. He possesses schemes of his own from time to time which show originality and imagination. His range of usefulness is still limited by his knowledge of English, but this is not disappointing. I regard him already as available for useful service at any post. I would like to see Excerpt from a memorandum for Mr. Matthews from Mr. Wrong,

"With respect to your memorandum of May 12th concerning the appointment of Mr. Cadieux and Mr. Menzies as permanent Third Secretaries, I wish to recommend that both appointments should be made.
