Peggy Ann Brown;
Mother: Mrs. Hazel Brown, Good Hope Lake, Y. T.

We have been asked by Juvenile Offenders Branch to expedite plans for Peggy's return home. The mother has been writing regularly from Good Hope Lake, and has indicated she will wait until early July for the girl's return.

Watson Lake.

Tentative arrangements are made by Juvenile Offenders Branch for Peggy's flight from Edmonton to ~~Whitehorse~~ July 2nd. They ask that confirmation be obtained from your office about arrangements for the balance of the trip home.

Would you please let us have your advice.

This child was committed to the Alberta Institute for Girls on February 22, 1962. As at April 1st of this year, the costs of these placements in institutions outside Alberta are being charged back to the Territorial Welfare. Territorial Welfare will of course be charging back to us for those children of Indian status.

Prior to her committal, this girl was in the Whitehorse Hostel and had residence in the Yukon Territory.

In addition to the $3.50 per day, there would of course be any other actual expenditures on behalf of the child.
