Mrs. Clara Finlayson,
#135 Long Lac Band 58,
Deceased September 7, 1960

Dear Sir:

This will acknowledge your letter of recent date, advising this Department that Mrs. Finlayson passed away on September 7, 1960, at Port Arthur, Ontario.

On reviewing our records, it has been ascertained that Mrs. Finlayson was previously in receipt of Old Age Assistance pension administered by the Department of Public Welfare, Queen's Park, Toronto, Ontario. Her account was transferred to this Department effective September 1958, and Old Age Security pension cheques have gone forward to her addressed Long Lac, Ontario, since that date under Old Age Security Account No. 5-132944.

Advice concerning this pensioner's death was received in this office too late in order to allow us to withhold payment for the month of September 1960, and therefore the September cheque was forwarded in the usual manner. However, immediately the cheque is returned to this office, it will be re-made and forwarded to the Indian Affairs Branch, Ottawa, Ontario, to be credited to this pensioner's Estate.

It is trusted that the foregoing information clarifies the matter concerned.

Yours very truly,
Fred C. Jackson
