P.M. HARPER AT BUSINESS ROUNDTABLE

TRÈS HONORABLE STEPHEN HARPER (Canadian Prime Minister): Bon matin. Évidemment, je suis en Jordanie aujourd'hui et je suis accompagné ce matin par un groupe distingué des hommes et des femmes d'affaires de la communauté d'affaires de la Jordanie et j'apprécie toujours que j'ai un cadeau du temps d'un tel coup.

As I said, I'm here this morning with a very distinguished group of Jordanian business men and business women to discuss our shared economic relations and opportunities between our two countries. This has been a growing relationship. Early on in the period of our government, we were visited by the King of Jordan. And really at his initiative we began trade negotiations and concluded now diplomatic and trade agreement. And now we're looking for ways, both of us, to exploit the opportunities that that agreement presents.

So I'm looking forward to how we can do that on both sides of this, find the opportunities. And I know Ambassador Sacomani(ph) and Minister Fast as well, my colleagues here will have some ideas.

But once again, ladies and gentlemen, I really do appreciate your time. I appreciate the opportunity for how we can discuss our mutual opportunities and our future.

Thanks for coming.
