14. MAIL TO MEMBERS OF THE ARMED FORCES IN THE UNITED KINGDOM

1. A special Airgraph Service, by which letters can be sent from Canada by air to members of the Armed Forces in the United Kingdom, is being established by the Post Officer Department in conjunction with the Canadian Army Postal Service Overseas.

2. The messages are written on special forms obtainable at all post offices in Canada. They are then photographed on miniature film and the film is despatched overseas by air. On arrival overseas the messages are reproduced on a print measuring approximately 5" x 4". The reproduced letters are placed in envelopes and delivered to the address of the unit or formation by the Canadian Army Postal Service or the General Post Office.

3. This special service, which includes air transportation in Canada and across the Atlantic, offers a speedy method of communication at a reduced charge. The inclusive fee of 10 cents is paid by means of a postage stamp affixed to the message form.

4. The service goes into effect on the 15th November, 1941.

15. AIRPORTS UNDER CONSTRUCTION

Centralia, Grand Bend and St. Joseph

1. It is understood that training aircraft have made forced landings at the above mentioned air fields which are under construction.
2. As these fields have survey stakes and other obstructions all over the field, aircraft are not to make landings, except in case of emergency.
3. Disciplinary action will be taken where landings are reported interfering with construction work, unless such landings are absolutely necessary.

16. COMMUNICATIONS WITH PRISONERS OF WAR INTERNED ABROAD

1. Communications have been received at this Headquarters which indicate that when requests have been made to Units or Individual Officers in respect to regulations governing communication with prisoners of war, correct information is not being supplied to those inquiring.
2. Attention is drawn to Air Force Routine Order 1136 dated October 3rd, 1941, and in this connection Units are to obtain copies of Post Office Department circular dated March 1941, entitled "Regulations Concerning Communications with Prisoners of War Interned Abroad" from local Post Offices. All Officers are to acquaint themselves with the contents thereof, in order that correct information may be given on this subject on request.
