 OBJET: Glace Bay, Nova Scotia s.19(1)
 s.15(1)(d)ii

INFORMATION:

1. [redacted] the Association of United Ukrainian Canadians in the Glace Bay N.S. area does not exist anymore. [redacted] it died out over 5 or 6 years ago and their hasn't been a meeting or gathering of any kind since that time.
2. There may be 3 or 4 people in the area who still subscribe to the Ukrainian newspaper, but these are old people now and their only interest is in the language and cultural aspect. [redacted] there are 2 men in the Glace Bay area, who are interested in the political aspect and they are sympathetic to communism, but they too are old and don't really have any interest. These men are Mike SALYZYN [redacted] and Sam KAVLUK [redacted]
3. John EVASUK [redacted] was active in the AUUC also but lost interest several years ago, he subscribed to the paper Ukrainian Life (Ukrainske Zhitya) up until his death a few months ago. After his death his wife offered some of these papers to Mike SALYZYN [redacted] and he told her to throw them away because there wasn't anyone left who would bother with them or had any interest.
4. [redacted] during the past 7 or 8 years the AUUC has put on press campaigns to raise funds and get new subscribers. John EVASUK used to be responsible for raising the money and sending it in, but during the most recent ones individual subscribers were sent envelopes and asked to mail in their contributions individually.
5. [redacted] that none of the young people have any interest in the AUUC or it's papers and those that were active many years ago have lost interest and are slowly passing away.

INVESTIGATOR'S COMMENTS:

7. Please note that [redacted] the AUUC died out over 5 or 6 years ago and our enquiries over that period appear to confirm this, it also appears that the most recent press campaigns amounted to nothing more then individuals being asked for donations.
8. Additional enquiries among other sources in this area failed to reveal any information or the slightest indication that the AUUC was active in the Glace Bay area, or has been for several years.

1. [redacted] there is no organized AUUC in this area at the present time, and there haven't been any meetings or social activities held by this organization for the past 3 or 4 years, [redacted]

2. [redacted] the following persons are likely supporters of the AUUC in the Glace Bay - Sydney N.S. area,

- ✓ John EVASUK
- ✓ Mike SALYZYN
- ✓ Michael OLESCHUK (3993) ✓
- ✓ William HAWRYLUK (8199) ✓

[redacted] heard of any particular activity by this group for some time.

3. [redacted] the AUUC in both Sydney and Glace Bay is no longer organized or holds regular meetings, however a few of the more enthusiastic supporters, such as William HAWRYLUK, John EVASUK and Mike SALYZYN- [redacted] still try to raise funds for the parent body and its publications. One of the methods of raising funds, which is presently in use, is by selling raffle tickets on an article which they purchase locally. When these raffles are in progress one of the mentioned men will usually be found at #1 Gate of the Sydney Steel Plant, selling tickets to the steelworkers. Source does not know where the tickets are printed nor does he know who actually runs the raffle.

INVESTIGATOR'S COMMENTS:

5. No information has come to our attention since the submission of our last report which would indicate that there is any organized activity of the AUUC in the Glace Bay area. It would appear that the principal supporters of the AUUC in both Sydney and Glace Bay are the persons mentioned in para. #2 above. Their method of raising funds as pointed out in para #3 above is of interest and will be explored further.

One comes to the above conclusion for the following reasons:

- a) because of the information received from sources.
- b) because of past information
- c) because EVASUK, SALYZYN and KILCHESKY were listed in March 1965 as subscribers to the Ukrainian Life (UKRAINSKE ZHITTYA)
- d) because SALYZYN continues to receive the tax bills and notices for the property owned by the A.U.U.C. at Centreville, C.B. Co., N.S.

6. Further enquiries will be carried out in an effort to confirm the membership and/or support of the A.U.U.C., by the persons listed above and to identify any other possible members or supporters.

a) The organization and membership drive quotas have been tentatively set as follows:

Branches	New members	Funds

...and that Nova Scotia A.U.U.C. Branches would be on their own. Only the Montreal and Ottawa Branches would come into the jurisdiction of the Quebec District Committee. This Committee should be composed of 11 members.

VII) The current total membership in the new district is 136

7. A number of persons took part in a general discussion based on the points raised. The first session adjourned for lunch.

8. The session resumed at 2 p.m. with a speech by William HARASYM. He discussed the Canadian Born problem. He wants to open English Speaking Branches in Lachine, Ville LaSalle and Pte. St. Charles. He said that the A.U.U. Montreal English Speaking Branch was doing very well with 11 members. Now that Zinowiy NYKOLYSHYN and his wife moved in Montreal from Winnipeg, Man., this membership will be 13. He urged all present to work hard to build up English Speaking Branches.

9. Anton KACHMAR, believed to have been the Chairman of the Resolutions Committee, announced that the Committee had met and were in agreement to recommend the resolutions as outlined by ROSHKO. The resolutions were the adopted by the Convention.

10. Dmytro KOSTASZEC of the Credentials Committee reported that there were 34 Branch delegates and 12 official guests present at the Convention.

11. Peter PROKOP stated that the changes made in the District, i.e. reducing the territory and changing from a Provincial Committee to a District Committee should make it much easier to carry out organizational work, and make efforts in the cultural and educational fields more effective. He urged the new Quebec District Committee and the delegates present to carry out the resolutions of the Convention with increased efforts. He suggested they should go out and speak to people about the A.U.U.C. and to explain all the advantages of the organization. Efforts should be made to win members of the Twentieth Century Society back to the ranks of the A.U.U.C. Attempts should be made to increase the string orchestra, the choir and organize Pioneer groups. He suggested that the A.U.U.C. Lachine Women's Branch should be re-organized as soon as possible. Roy SEMAK is in Montreal for this, and everyone should cooperate to make his job easier. He stated that Zinowiy NYKOLYSHYN was a very good organizational worker and lecturer in Winnipeg, Man., before he came to Montreal, and no doubt would be of considerable assistance to the Quebec District Committee.

... The new District, including all Montreal Branches as well as Ottawa, Ontario, covers a territory similar to that of the W.B.A. District Committee. This change, undoubtedly, is designed to increase the efficiency of administration of A.U.U.C. policy in the districts concerned.

16. It will be noted that the Convention stressed the importance of work among Canadian Born Ukrainian with a rather ambitious plan to form a number of English Speaking Branches in the area. William HARASYM has offered to spend two weeks to assist in this project. The Convention also pointed out the need to organize Pioneer Groups as well. No doubt A.U.U.C. officials are well aware that the organization is lacking considerably in younger members of all ages. Their efforts toward their goal will be watched with interest.

17. Photographs were taken at this Convention and will be forwarded as soon as processing and identification has been completed. A report from another [redacted] at the Convention, will be forwarded shortly.
